JESUITISM.
THE CATHOLIC LETTERS,
By E. Haskett Derby, Esq.
In one volume, 12mo. Price 75 cents.
These letters, covering the whole Catholic question, are, without doubt, the most able and learned resume of this subject ever given to the world.
The arguments and the conclusions are masterly and irresistible, and strange as it may seem for an eminent lawyer to leave Blackstone and Coke, and, for a time, bend the whole energies of his mind, with that keen sagacity peculiar to the legal profession, to an exhausting research among the tomes of the Fathers of Theology; still, the service which he has rendered to the cause of truth, and the fact that his labors resulted in changing for life the course of a beloved kinsman who would otherwise have joined the Church of Rome, will ever be a cause for gratitude.
One of the merits of the book is a spirited review of Bunsen, Howson, Conybeare, Milner, and other modern writers, and a well-digested argument on the planting of the Church in Britain by St. Paul before the Roman Pontificate was founded.
Rev. Dr. Peabody, in a note to Mr. Derby, after a careful reading of proof-sheets, uses the following language:
Your main argument, it seems to me, is to the point, and overwhelmingly conclusive. I hope, and do not doubt, that it will do much good, while it is honorable to yourself, both as a parent and a scholar.
We believe this work is destined to become
A TEXT-BOOK FOR PROTESTANTS,

28 WINTER ST.
VERY, VERY, CHEAP,
FOR SALE AT ADAMS'
WAREROOMS.
Owing to the continual demand all through the past season for their peculiarly easy fitting CORSETS, they have been duced to order largely, and now would offer the French, English and German Corsets at unprecedented low prices, together with all the beautiful varieties of Mrs. ADAMS' own French made Bodices, which are now too well-known and appreciated to need comment. It being the intention of Mrs. A. to sell all the Corsets that are to be sold in Boston this spring, owing to the prices, she would beg that ladies will bear in mind that 28 WINTER STREET is the only place where Mrs. Adams is to be found, it being the impression with some persons that she still has a store, or Corset Warerooms, in her old neighborhood; her desire is to guard her customers from such a mistake.
Inquire of the Boston or New-York Customs, who is the most extensive importer of Corsets. They will tell you GEO. W. ADAMS, of 28 WINTER STREET. This establishment is conducted on most liberally low price principles, and is at all times posted and amply supplied with every style of Bodice, Jacket or Corset in vogue. One or the other of this House is in Europe conducting the manufacturing and shipping the goods to this country—these facilities afford them the means to sell much less than others in the business, together with a determination to keep the lead by disposing of low and high priced goods at a very fraction of profit. It is well-known that Mrs. Adams has long been at the head of her profession, having had during thirty years much experience and opportunity for cultivating business talent in the best French and English schools; also, she being the first woman patentee in America. The celebrated ADAMS' PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER, so justly pronounced by Sir Astley Cooper and Sir James Clark, as the cleverest thing of its kind, is her own invention. Those in need of this article will please make personal application as above.
For sale the FRENCH PATENT WERLEY CORSET, of the Boston Agent, as above.
Dealers can be supplied with Mrs. Adams' French Busts for the exhibition of Corsets. They may also be furnished with her French metallic cuts, for advertising.

Sweet Milk.

IF you would have your Milk nice and sweet, furnish your Milkman with a small Can, which will contain the exact quantity you daily use, and you will accomplish an object that can be reached in no other way. Cans containing precisely one and two quarts respectively, (standard government measures,) will be furnished to all who may desire, at Chapman's Tin Ware Factory, Daniel street, near the Post Office, Sign of the Big Coffee Pot. Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1856.

GOUGH IN PORTLAND. — Mr. Gough has lately delivered two lectures in Portland, which we perceive have stirred up the papers, as they probably have the people also.

The State of Maine [newspaper] says:

Gough spoke to a full house last Friday evening. His anecdotes and impersonations were as felicitous as ever, but when he came to speak on the subject of Prohibition, he was out of his proper element. He is deficient in reasoning power, while his talent for declamation surpasses that of ordinary speakers.

* * * * *

He opposed regulation and restriction as absurd and ridiculous, and was for exterminating all intoxicating liquors. His doctrine if carried out would exclude it entirely from use. In speaking of the Legislation of Maine and the workings of our Liquor Law, Mr. G. betrayed a degree of ignorance and prejudice that was painful to every intelligent listener. We have now in full force in this State, a law to shut up every grog shop, and to punish every abuse that can be named in the use of liquors, and yet he went on to speak of the opening the flood gates of drunkenness in Maine, and the infamous character of those licensed to sell in this city, &c., &c.

To this the Advertiser replies:

We think the 'State of Maine' is slightly in 'advance of the Telegraph' in saying that the law 'is in full force,' or the law itself is not quite so efficient as is represented. Certain it is that in this city, so far from having 'shut up every grog shop,' they have suddenly and rapidly increased.

We have seen no account of any such shutting up, or of any attempt to do it.—Since Mr. Gough's lectures, however, viz. on Monday the 26th, the City Marshal advertised a Notice to the sellers of liquors, that the Aldermen had instructed him to prosecute illegal sales.

We have no faith whatever in the license laws; but on the contrary know the former ones to have been eminently mischievous, by giving a color of legal respectability to the business. If, however, they can do any good —we should like to see them do it.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The Crimea.—Letters to April 28, inclusive, have arrived from the Crimea.

A review of the whole British Infantry went off exceedingly well on the 25th. Marshal Pelissier and many Russian officers were present.

The weather was remarkably fine, but rain was required.

Turkey.—The accounts from Constantinople are to the 1st inst. The exchange of the ratifications of the treaty of March 30th, was known in the Turkish capital.

The Sultan had requested, it is said, several Anglo-French divisions to remain for some time at Constantinople. It is thought that this request has been caused by the state of things in the interior of Turkey.

The grand revolt which has broken out in Arabia is the theme of general conversation. Egyptian troops are to be employed in repressing it. The journals are silent on the subject.

The Smyrna papers state that the fanatics in Syria have massacred the English Consular Agent and his family.

Russia.—In his recent speech to the nobility at Moscow, the Czar alluded to the report which had been spread of his intending to emancipate the serfs, and said that was a change which could not be effected in a hurry. The present state of things was one that could not last. It would, therefore, be very agreeable to him if the nobility itself would take into mature deliberation in what way a change could be gradually prepared for, and any propositions they might make on the subject would always be welcome to him.

The Czar of Warsaw announces that Russia is to commence a campaign this summer against the Caucasians. Gen. Chruleff will have the command of the expedition under the superior direction of Gen. Maravieff.—The expedition will extend to Doghestan, the country of Schamyl, a distance of about 80 miles from the Black Sea coast.

FROM KANSAS.— Chicago, May 27.—The St. Louis Republican, of yesterday, contains a letter announcing the return of Messrs. Robinson, Schuyler and Conway, under the charge of the territorial authorities.

An extra was issued in Kansas City from the Enterprize office, on the 22d inst., which was received here last night, which says that Jones took about 20 men into Lawrence, and at his command Gen. Pomeroy surrendered all the rifles and cannon he could get, which were stacked in the streets. Jones then requested Eldridge to move his furniture from the hotel: as he declined to do so a posse entered it and carried most of it into the street. Jones gave express orders that no private property should be injured, and particular that Gov. Robinson's should not be touched, but after a portion of the posse had left, the house was burned.

During the excitement, one man was shot, and another killed by the falling of bricks from the walls of the hotel.

Another despatch, dated at St. Louis, 27th, says:—The hotel, two printing offices, and Gov. Robinson's house, in Lawrence, have been destroyed, and two free state men shot.

Gen. Pomeroy surrendered up all the arms in his possession without resistance.

Gov. Robinson is in prison at Lecompton, Pomeroy is at liberty, in Lawrence, and Gov. Reader is unheard from.

STORE-BREAKING.—On Wednesday night 21st, the store of S. D. Wingate, Esq., of Exeter, was entered by opening a back window. The thief obtained three dollars and fifty cents in money, and about two dollars worth of goods.—N.-Letter.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.

The steamship Grenada, from Havana 24th inst., arrived here to-day. She brings California dates to the 5th, being two weeks later.

The California markets were without any change of moment.

In Mariposa county, California, a party of Americans had murdered 20 Mexicans and Chilians, under the pretext that some Americans had been killed by Chilians.

The Americans had ordered all the Chinese, Mexicans, Chilians and Peruvians to leave.

The war against the Indians in Oregon and Washington territories was being prosecuted with vigor, and the Indians had met with several defeats.

From Central America.—It is reported that the Costa Ricans had shipped the wounded from San Juan del Sud.

The Costa Ricans say that they were deceived in regard to the feeling of the people of Nicaragua towards Walker, and expected to be received with open arms. They were very indignant at the false representations which were made to them on the subject.—It is confirmed that the loss of the Costa Ricans at the battle of Rivas, in killed and wounded, amounted to 650 and Walker's to about 100.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 27.

SENATE.—Notice was given of a bill to prevent civil war, and restore peace in Kansas.

Messrs. Slidell, Toombs and Douglas made personal explanations relative to their position at the time of the assault upon Mr. Sumner. Mr. Butler of S. C. made some remarks upon the same subject, in which he stated that had he been in Washington at the time, he should have assumed all the responsibility taken by his "gallant relative." Mr. Wade, in answer, said, "If the principle announced here is to prevail, let us come armed for the combat. Although you are four to one, I am here to meet you."

[The special correspondent of the Boston Daily Advertiser says:

The scene in the Senate to-day, was highly exciting. Mr. Wilson, in defence of Sumner, said that he was struck down by a brutal and cowardly assault. At this Mr. Butler said, sotto voce, "You're a liar," but subsequently retracted his words. Order was called, and the majority soon choked off the debate by calling for the yeas and nays, every administration man from the North and South except Mr. Toombs of Ga. voting aye. Great excitement succeeded, and many southern men were seen in excited consultation. The rumor was soon current that Messrs. Wade and Wilson would be assaulted after the adjournment.—About a dozen of their friends took care to be armed, and peace was preserved.

It is rumored tonight that Mr. Wilson is to be challenged by Brooks. The former has gone to Trenton tonight, to fulfil an appointment to speak, but will return on Thursday.]

Mr. Toombs said that in expressing opinions about the affair at the time, some gentlemen condemned it, but he told Mr. Brooks that he approved it.

Mr. Foster of Conn. alluded to the avowal of Mr. Toombs that he approved of the conduct of Mr. Brooks, and thought it was incumbent on him, as he had not participated in debate to any considerable extent, to say a word as to the reasons of his silence. If he remained silent, some might suppose it was through fear of like consequences to himself. He wished to disabuse the minds of Senators, if any such misapprehension exists. He had thus far participated but slightly in debate, because, being a new member, he thought it more becoming for him to listen than to speak; but when such intimations as the Senator (Toombs) had made were given, it might be supposed, if Senators did not speak, that a passion so base and unworthy as fear was the reason of their silence. He now wished to assert his entire approval of the freedom of speech here and elsewhere, to be maintained at whatever cost, and whatever might be the consequences. If a contrary doctrine should ever prevail in this country, there would be an end to liberty; for he believes that the liberty of the press, liberty of speech, and the liberty of the people, would live and die together.

Mr. Trumbull expressed a desire to speak on the topic about five minutes, but the hour had arrived for considering the special order.

Mr. Hale moved to postpone the special order, to allow Mr. Trumbull to speak.

The motion was negatived, 11 to 29.

Yeas—Collamer, Foote, Foster, Hamlin, Hale, Harlan, Seward, Toombs, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson.—11.

Nays—Adams, Allen, Bell of Tenn, Benjamin, Biggs, Bright, Brown, Butler, Crittenden, Cass, Dodge, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Geyer, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson, Pratt, Mason, Pearce, Reid, Slidell, Stuart, Toucey, Thompson, Weller, Wright, Yulee.—29.

Mr. Cass made further explanation in reference to the correspondence of Mr. Crampton, which, he said, misrepresented him.

The President's veto of the bill for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi was discussed without action. Adj.

THURSDAY, May 28.

SENATE.—The Investigating Committee on the Sumner assault made a report, through Mr. Pearce, that though the assault was a violation of the privileges of the Senate, yet to is not within their jurisdiction to punish the offence, and recommending that the Senate make complaint to the House. A resolution to that effect was adopted, Toombs alone voting no!

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Rufus Choate is here. His northern blood is boiling. He called on Mr. Sumner today.

Col. Brooks sent a challenge to Senator Wilson this evening, by Gen. Lane of Oregon.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The conduct of Col. Sumner, commanding in Kansas, meets with the approval of the administration, of which he has officially been informed, and complimented for his prudence.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Herald's correspondent at Washington says Mr. Crampton was dismissed today. His dispatch carrier left this afternoon with the answer of Mr. Marcy to Clarendon.

The correspondent of the Express says all sorts of alarming rumors are current, and one is, that if Brooks is expelled, a majority of the Southern Congressmen will retire from the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Bad News about Mr. Sumner.—Mr. Sumner is much worse. He has had a sleepless night, and his wounds are badly swollen this morning. He suffers intense pain. A brain fever sets in. Three physicians are now in consultation, including Dr. Perry, of Boston, who has been in constant attendance since his arrival. Nobody is admitted to Mr. Sumner's room.

Chas. Collins, of Salem, left that city for Portsmouth, on Monday morning, but unfortunately fell among the Philistines, at Newburyport, and for drunkenness was assessed $7 48 in the Police Court.

Hannah Flanagan, for an assault and battery on Mary E. O'Brien, was fined $1, without costs.

Albert Woods was brought up on a complaint of one James Carrigan, for throwing stones in the streets, in violation of a city ordinance; but the evidence not sustaining the charge, he was discharged.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

From J. M. Leman, Esq., a Scientific Chemist.

After a careful and minute examination of the component parts of Dr. Wm. R. Hayden's Improved Vegetable Purgative Pills, I can pronounce them a most excellent combination of medicinal plants, which must exercise the most happy influence on the system, when laboring under the effects of disease. I find them to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and perfectly free from any mineral or poisonous substance whatever.

"If you are Coming, Why do you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every motive on every Railroad shrieks it, daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family. "If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" creeping along among the baggage wagons of the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and the old remedies for Liver Complaint have gone out of way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?" Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?" If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the sex.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now a boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood. Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and red cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?" If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

Read at the Temple, Sunday Evening, May 25th, '56,
BY JOHN E. RIDER.

The Portsmouth Young Men's Christian Association has now reached the close of its fourth year. Its progress has been slow, for the want of funds and general encouragement from without; but we have had generous evidence of individual interest in our welfare and success. Our true aim and mission has yet to be understood by a great many of our citizens, and our churches have yet to regard us as auxiliary to themselves—having the welfare of young men particularly in view.

Our field of labor is somewhat different from that of most other Associations in the country. Our city being a quiet old place, of slow growth, offers few inducements for young men from abroad to seek employment among us; while our own young men are continually emigrating from us to places which, while they offer higher rewards to virtue and industry, present more alluring temptations to draw the young into vice. The general control and management of the affairs of the Association, is vested in a Board, consisting of its officers, together with seven Directors elected from the various denominations represented in the Association.

The standing Committees of the board, viz. on Library, Rooms, Lectures, Meetings, Finance, and Statistics,—are assigned specific duties, in the performance of which, the whole apparatus is supervised and made effective.

During the past year we have not added many books to our library. It now consists of 540 volumes, which are extensively read by the members. We have endeavored to furnish pure and healthful reading for all those who desire it. There is a demand for such books far beyond our present ability to supply. We trust that the wise and good, whose charities have ever been generously bestowed upon deserving objects, will respond to this call with characteristic liberality. With gratitude we acknowledge a few valuable contributions to our Library and Reading room, from the following sources:—Rev. Dr. Peabody, Rev. Mr. Holman, Rev. Dr. Huntingdon, and Mrs. Eliza W. Haven.

In our last annual report, it was announced that arrangements were being made for opening a Reading Room, thereby to attain a prominent object in the design of our organization. This has been partly accomplished. The editors and publishers of weekly papers in different parts of the Union, have gratuitously furnished us with copies of their papers; but owing to a lack of pecuniary means, we have been unable, as yet, to furnish daily papers. We contemplate removing to more convenient rooms, where we can open a public Reading Room for the use of the young men of our city, to spend their evenings in profitable reading. The importance of such a place of resort, free to all young men of our city, irrespective of membership, is felt by our Association, and to secure it we rely upon the generous liberality of those who wish the welfare and success of our enterprise. Our rooms are at present open every Wednesday evening, for the benefit of those who wish to take books from the library.—Our table is supplied with a number of weekly Journals, by the friends of the association; also a number of periodicals.

A course of nine Sabbath Evening Lectures was delivered at the Temple last winter, one each by the Rev. Dr. Cleaveland of Lowell, Rev. Arthur S. Train of Haverhill, Rev. Dr. Huntingdon of Cambridge, Rev. Rufus W. Clark of East Boston, Rev. D. P. Pike of Newburyport, Rev. Mr. Robie of Greenland, Rev. Dr. Hall of Providence, Rev. E. G. Brooks of Lynn, and Rev. Prof. King of Fort Edward, N. Y. These lectures were listened to by large assemblies, and were, we trust, the means of doing much good. During the first three evenings of the course, the weather was very stormy, and discouraged us in our undertaking; but the succeeding evenings proved to us that our citizens were coming forward to our aid. We feel ourselves under great obligations to the singers, who came forward to aid us in the services of our lectures; also to Mr. Pearson for his valuable services on the piano. We were able to procure the services of the lecturers by the kind assistance of clergymen of our city, to whom we owe much. We expect to have another course of lectures during the next winter, which will have timely announcement, and which we hope will be as liberally patronized as those of last winter.

The regular meetings of the Association are held every Wednesday evening, for the proposal and election of members, for the promotion of social and Christian intercourse, and for the reception of such information as shall advance the welfare of the Association. At these meetings, Essays are read by some member previously appointed, after which a subject is brought up for discussion—thereby presenting advantages too obvious too require comment.

Perhaps it would be as well here to state the number of Associations throughout the world. We will first mention the Young Men's Christian Association of London, with its 37 provincial branches, extending throughout the Kingdom. There are eight sub-divisions of the Association, having rooms in different sections of the city. In Germany, in 1847, there were thirteen societies, in different sections of the country; now there are 100 distinct organizations, with about 5000 members — which have united to form the Young Men's Alliance of the Rhine and Westphalia, whose central committee is established at Elberfield. They publish a paper as the organ of their body. In France their influence is already felt. In August 1852, the first Association was formed in Paris, and lectures instituted; and all their meetings are under the strict surveillance of the police. The rooms of the Association are those in which the plays of Voltaire were formerly produced. There is also one in Algiers, making 39 in the Empire. The Swiss Union embraces 21 Associations. That of Geneva is, perhaps, the most interesting on the Continent, and one that stands out in bold relief for imitation. It is an interesting fact that the rooms of this Association are on the ground floor of the house where Calvin lived and died. Italy, in spite of Romanism, has 7 or 8 Associations. In Holland there are 4, three exist in Australia, one in Africa, one in Sweden, 4 in the Canadas, and 38 in the United States—making a total of nearly 250 Associations over the breadth of the earth.

In 1854 a convention of the Associations in the United States was called at Buffalo. Our Association then sent a delegate; but we have not been able to send any since that time; and a convention is called this year at Montreal, but we lack pecuniary means to send a delegate this year.

A rigid economy has been practised, even to our detriment; and at the close of our 4th year, there is but a small balance in the treasury. If this statement of the affairs of our treasury should disappoint any of our citizens, we have to say that owing to the fact of many of our members being young men of small means, we are unable to present so favorable an account as might be desired. Our enterprise cannot be carried on without money, and in prosecuting our plans, we look to the Christians of this city for sympathy and aid, and these, we feel assured, will not be withheld. A brief exposition of the character and objects of an enterprise whose conditions and prospects we have been reviewing, will conclude our Report.

This is an association to apply to the welfare of our young men the power of associated influence. The present century has not been more distinguished for the application of mechanical inventions and scientific discovery, than by the power of association applied to the purposes of human elevation.—Every new expansion of business relations, every aggregation of human labor, every increased facility of intercourse and communication, has tended still further to ally mankind—has revealed to them that in union is the strength and completeness of the human soul, and the welfare of the human family.—Experience enforces the great maxim of religion, and urges us to fraternity and mutual help. Hence the multitude of voluntary associations for all the purposes of literature, and art, and science, and practical improvement, and charity. Their true use is not to extinguish individual agency, but to give it additional power—to do by consentaneous effort, what the same strength separately could not achieve—to gather the scattered drops into the growing rill and the on-rolling river.—Thus do we associate for mutual help and greater strength.

Ours is a young men's association. It is primarily for their use and welfare. They are to give it cast and direction. It was formed for them, it was instituted for them, it is theirs—theirs in such a sense that all its acts are to be shaped for their benefit; but not theirs in such a sense as to exclude all aid and co-operation from their seniors. Sharp dividing lines are good neither for the older nor the younger. In human life, in society, in families, there are sprinkled together the different ages for the best good of each.—The activity of youth should in this enterprise be supported by the strength and standing of experience. We wish for the countenance, the counsel, the sympathy, the help of men of character and maturity, in a degree which we can hope to secure only as they are incorporated in our ranks. A union for the benefit of young men, need not be composed exclusively of the young. And were it otherwise, who will draw the changing dubious line, at which youth has wholly passed away? We rather choose for such a purpose to recognize the marks of youth in all who have youthful vigor and youthful sympathy. The ancient Greeks applied the term young man, to an active man, whatever his age. We accept the figure, though it sometimes makes the man of 50 younger than he of 15; and whoever is still vigorous enough to engage in our enterprise, we will account young. Whoever has not outlived his sympathy for young men, his interest in them, his regard for them, and his desire actively to benefit them, is not too old for us.

MEETING OF CITIZENS.

A meeting of the citizens of Portsmouth, was held at Rechab Hall, on Tuesday evening, to make arrangements for the holding of a grand Mass Meeting to express the sentiments of the people of this city, in regard to the brutal assault on Senator Sumner, at Washington, by Preston S. Brooks of S. C. The meeting was called to order by Jos. P. Morse, Esq. Alfred W. Haven, Esq., was chosen Chairman, and J. P. Morse, Secretary.

Speeches were made in favor of free speech and against the efforts to crush it out;—and it was deemed advisable to call a general meeting to sustain the great right of freedom of debate.

On motion, a committee of five were elected to consult together for the purpose of naming a Committee of Arrangements.

The Committee reported the names of A. W. Haven, Ichabod Goodwin, Marcellus Bufford, C. S. Toppan, A. J. Beck, Horton D. Walker, J. Warren Towle, Wm. H. Y. Hackett, and J. G. Hadley; and they were elected.

The Committee met on Wednesday forenoon and organized by choosing Ichabod Goodwin, Esq. Chairman.

After discussing the objects of the meeting, the Committee prepared the following call for a public meeting, to be held this evening.

CITIZENS OF PORTSMOUTH!

There will be a meeting of the citizens of this city, at the Temple, this evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock, irrespective of party, to express their sentiments in relation to the late assault upon Hon. Charles Sumner, Senator from Massachusetts,—and to pass resolutions suitable for the occasion.

All are invited to attend.

C. S. TOPPAN,
H. D. WALKER,
A. W. HAVEN,
MARCELLUS BUFFORD,
JOSIAH G. HADLEY,
ANDREW J. BECK,
W. H. Y. HACKETT,
J. WARREN TOWLE, } Comm.

☞ The Universalist Society in this city, at its late annual meeting, voted to give their pastor, Rev. Mr. Patterson, a salary of $1000 per annum. The salary had previously been $800 for many years—and the present increase of $200 is evidence of the prosperous condition of the society, and of their estimation of the pastor.

☞ We hope the plan of selling the training field, Market square, or any public breathing place, will not be again entertained.—Rather would we have more open ground, than less.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are pure frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. D. H. McPHAIL,

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OVER TWO MILLION ACRES
OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one acre a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands where of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. Unless to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good, when compared as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and for hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the farmer, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and the roads with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the other four annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security for the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be bro't under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be constructed for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and any outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by responsible and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

EXETER, May 24, 1856.

Messrs Editors; — A few days since we started through the Cemeteries here, and copied a few inscriptions which we thought might interest some of your readers; but were much surprised when we saw by the Chronicle of Friday, that one of you had been doing the same thing in your city. However, our collection may still retain some of its interest.

"The burying ground near the depot" is the oldest we have, but the earliest date which we could find was on a stone set in 1745, although, probably, there are many graves made at a much earlier period. John Taylor Gilman, for fourteen years Governor of this State, and Hon. Jeremiah Smith, both lie here; but the inscriptions on their monuments you published about a year since, we think. A large stone, laid horizontally, states that:

Here lies the remains of Rev. Daniel Rogers, pastor of a church gathered in this place, 1748, who died Dec. 9, 1785, aged 78 yrs. He had been many years a Tutor in Harvard College; was a pious, faithful Minister of Jesus Christ, and a worthy son of the Rev. John Rogers, Pastor of the 1st church in Ipswich, who died Dec. 28, 1745, in his 80th year,—Who was a son of John Rogers, of the same place, Physician and Preacher of God's word, and President of Harvard College; who died July 2, 1684, aged 54 years; Who was eldest son of the Rev. Nathaniel Rogers, who came over from England, in 1636, settled at Ipswich, Colleague pastor with the Rev. Nath. Wood, and died July 2, 1655, aged 57 years; Who was the son of the Rev. John Rogers, a famous minister of God's Word at Dedham, in England, who died Oct. 18, 1639, aged 57 years; Who was Grandson of John Rogers of London, Prebendary of St. Pauls, Vicar of St. Sepulchres, and Rector of Divinity, who was burnt at Smithfield, Feb. 14, 1555, First Martyr of Queen Mary's reign.

John Phillips, L. L. D., Founder of Phillips Exeter Academy, an Associate Founder of the Phillips Academy in Andover, and a liberal benefactor of Dartmouth College. Died April 21, 1795, aged 75 years. Actuated by his ardent attachment to the cause of Christianity, he devoted his wealth to the advancement of letters and Religion. His appropriate monuments are the institutions which bear his name.

Many graves are marked by a rough piece of stone, or by a simple board, and many have nothing to tell whose dust lies below. On one stone, which had evidently been picked up from the road side, was the letter "L." which some kind friend had placed there, probably feeling that affection needed no other token to signify that the dead was not forgotten. A broad stone with the initials "J. S." upon it, was all that showed that another had been laid there for his last, long sleep.

A granite monument six or seven feet in height, standing near the centre of the ground, bore no inscription upon it; and another small, rough piece of stone states that "Hear is 2 bodies,"—nothing more.

Poetic inscriptions fortunately were rare, although a few gave wholesome truths, in a rough garb. One was;—

For you, Oh reader, ev'ry earthly bliss,
And
Behold my friends, as you pass by,
In blooming health—so once was I.
As I am now, soon you must be,
Prepare for death and follow me.

On one plain stone were the words, "Alfred L., died May 11, 1849, aged 6 weeks," and on another, which we found lying by the hearse-house, were only the words, "Henry's Grave." Alas! it marks no grave now, and the stranger seeks in vain for that spot which is hallowed by Henry's dust. The words are few, but do they not express that which the longest epitaph would fail to accomplish? A parent's grief, a friend's sorrow, a brother's or a sister's love, could do no more; and when the cold, lifeless form of their darling boy had been laid in the tomb, all these were expressed in the simple inscription "Henry's Grave." Who could wish for more?

This cemetery is fast losing all that appearance which renders it at all attractive to the busy man. Many of the stones are falling, or have fallen, and like those whose graves they mark, are crumbling into the dust. A few trees have sprung up, but are scattered around, and only serve, from their irregularity, to give appearance of greater neglect. We would that such enclosures, if none others, were kept neat and well laid out, and not, as here, be permitted to pass unnoticed and uncared for until the few flowers there are become choked by the rank grass and tall weeds.

Yet the "new cemetery," here, is one which is free from all these objections, and shows that a respect for the dead is still cherished—that it is not an emotion of a past age. Here the grounds are well laid out, trees sing a soft requiem for the dead, and

Peace, sweet peace is ever found
In her eternal home, on holy ground.

And now a word as to the names of these spots which should be sacred to all. New York has its Greenwood; Philadelphia its Laurel Hill; Albany its Rural Cemetery; Baltimore its Green Mount; Rochester its Mount Hope; Roxbury its Forest Hill; Boston its Mount Auburn; and Portsmouth—what? And we are as badly off. The only designations which we ever heard applied to ours, are those we have given above May they soon be changed. G. P.

FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1856.

OPINIONS!

Under the head of "Rowdyism in Congress," the Saco Democrat of the 27th says:—

Our columns to day contain an account of a disgraceful personal attack upon Senator Sumner, by a member of the House, and but a few days ago a member of the House murdered a man. To say nothing of the disgrace of these acts, they are crimes for which the perpetrators should be visited with condign punishment. We hope there is yet virtue enough in Congress to purge itself from such rowdies and criminals.

The name of the cowardly villain, who, armed with a powerful bludgeon, and accompanied by backers, stole upon Mr. Sumner, seated, occupied, and unprepared, felled him to the floor, and then beat him almost to death, was Preston Brooks, a Representative of the chivalry of South Carolina. His conduct was in keeping with the institutions which he represents, and with the spirit in which they are every where maintained. On the plains of Kansas, and in the halls of Congress, it is all the same thing—domineering insolence and brutal violence.

He concludes a two days' discharge of scholarly platitudes and pedantic dullness by venting a filthy stream of billingsgate on heads hoary with age; answers insult from men who would afford him personal satisfaction, with vulgar epithet; and when caned for cowardly vituperation, falls to the floor an inanimate lump of incarnate cowardice, and most glorious exemplar of the man of peace.

The following paragraph is from the Petersburg (Va.) Intelligencer, (Fillmore American)—

We are exceedingly sorry that Mr. Brooks dirted his cane by laying it athwart the shoulders of the blackguard, Sumner. We regret that he did so, not because he was not justly entitled to all he got and more besides, but because the nasty scamp, and his co-scamps will make capital for their foul cause out of the affair. * * * Disagreeing with the Richmond Whig as to the effect of Sumner's thrashing, we entirely concur with it, that if thrashing is the only remedy by which the foul conduct of the Abolitionists can be controlled, that it will be very well to give Seward a double dose at least every other day.

The South-Side Democrat of May 24th, says:

The telegraph has recently announced no information more grateful to our feelings, than the classical caning which this outrageous abolitionist received on Thursday, at the hands of the chivalrous Brooks of South Carolina.

The Baltimore Republican, May 24th has the following:

No greater service to the Northern supporters of the Constitution and the Union could possibly be done. It was to be expected that an attempt would be essayed by the Abolitionists to make political capital out of the transaction. Doubtless the flagellation was tamely received for the same reason.

The Savannah, (Georgia) News, deems Brooks, as he really is, a coward. It says,

We hope, when the facts of the case come to hand, to learn that it is not so bad as reported—that the blow was not dealt while the Senator was engaged in writing at his desk. We are reluctant to believe that any provocation could have prompted Mr. Brooks to take such an advantage.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of Friday, May 23, says:

A large number of the Massachusetts delegates to the Cincinnati Convention arrived here this evening. Six of them were speaking of Mr. Sumner's difficulties, when four declared their hearty approval of the whipping, and the other two regret it only on account of its probable effect among the people of Massachusetts.

The Worcester Spy says:

We have seen a private letter from Washington, dated on Friday last, which states that the Congressional bullies of the South contemplate a similar assault upon Mr. Wilson so that made upon Mr. Sumner.

The Portland Expositor, (liberal,) says:—

When northern views and northern sentiments, however erroneous, cannot be protected in a full hearing and expression there, we do not say, we would "let the Union alide"—but we would say, let the war be carried into the Southern country, and let the last remnant of slave-ocracy be exterminated as the essential condition to security of speech to the north, in their own halls of legislation and debate.

MORE EXHIBITIONS OF "CHIVALRY."—New York, 28th.—A private letter to the Daily Times, confirms the story that Brooks of S. C. had threatened to assault Mr. Chaffee, a Representative from Massachusetts. The letter says: On Friday evening, Brooks approached Mr. Chaffee, at Willard's Hotel, and threatened to whip him on suspicion of his having denounced his conduct; that he said he wanted to whip a few more of the Massachusetts men: and that Mr. Chaffee replied: "If that is your purpose you may as well begin on me, and it is no matter whether I said anything of you or not." To which Brooks is reported to have answered—"No d—n you; you can go along."

☞ The Boston Courier, of Thursday, says, speaking of Washington matters:

We have reports that the brazen Brooks is swaggering about the capital, seeking for some one low enough to step on the tail of his blood-stained coat, and it is stated that he has challenged Senator Wilson to fight a duel. The Massachusetts Senator cannot, in our judgment, stoop so low as this, yet.

SUMNER AND KANSAS.

CHICAGO, May 28.—There was an immense gathering here last evening, composed of all parties, responsive to a call for a meeting to consider the destruction of Lawrence, and the attack on Mr. Sumner. Resolutions were adopted, expressive of sympathy with Mr. Sumner, and a determination to resist the invasion of Kansas. A committee was appointed to adopt a plan for the immediate organization of a force to rescue Kansas, which committee will report to an adjourned meeting, to be held on Saturday evening.

KANSAS AFFAIRS.—The Westport (Mo.) Times of the 22d states that the Investigating Commission were still at Leavenworth.

Gen. Schuyler writes that Mr. Conway and himself were set at liberty on the 20th.

Mr. Brown is still a prisoner at Lecompton, and Gov. Robinson is in a similar situation.

No account has been received of the movements of the posse since the attack on Lawrence on the 21st.

After the arms in Lawrence had been delivered, Gov. Shannon was requested by the citizens to interfere and prevent the outrages threatened by the posse, but he declined. Mr. Schuyler then called upon Mr. Oliver, to induce him to use his influence with Gov. Shannon. Mr. Sherman made a similar request, and Mr. Oliver promised an answer in fifteen minutes, but neglected to do so until it was too late.

Previous to the posse entering Lawrence, Gov. Shannon agreed in writing that if the arms were delivered to Sumner, only a sufficient number would be allowed to enter to make arrests, but he afterwards declared that the arms should be delivered to the posse, and that the Hotel, Herald office and breastworks should be destroyed.

The mob shot an Indian, near Lawrence, out of mere wantonness, and the Delaware tribe threaten to revenge his death.

Another Chicago dispatch of the 28th, says: Gov. Reeder, and G. G Fogg, Secretary of the Investigating Committee, arrived here this afternoon. They came through Missouri and narrowly escaped with their lives. Gov. Reeder addressed an immense crowd to-night. He attends the Republican Convention at Bloomington to-morrow, and from thence goes to Washington. He confirms the destruction of Lawrence.

The condition of things in Lawrence was foreshadowed by men there before the late outrages occurred. From a private letter received from Mr. Fogg, one of the clerks of the Congressional Commission, under date of Leavenworth, May 15, the following extract in relation to Kansas affairs is taken:—

The affairs of Kansas grow no better very fast. The territorial officers seem bent on harrassing and driving the free state men all out of the territory. Large forces of "border ruffians" are collected at this moment about Lawrence, swearing to destroy the town and murder all the people. These ruffians expect to do their work under color of "law and order," and with the approval of Gov. Shannon and the United States Marshal. And I am free to say I fear they will do it. The capture of Gov. Robinson, the absence of Lane, Reeder, &c., have left the citizens there without experienced leaders, and they seem to be at the mercy of their oppressors. God only knows what will come of the dangers that environ them.

KANSAS ITEMS.—The story of Kansas, in short, is just this: Every means to make it a slave State seeming to be fruitless, except by driving the free State men from the territory, Shannon and Marshal Donaldson have, on the strength of Reeder's refusal to waive exemption from arrest, enrolled all the ruffians from the slave States as so much militia under pay. These assassin soldiery boast that fourteen days' service entitles them to 160 acres of land, besides their pay and rations. Thus an army of pro-slavery men is quartered upon Kansas to eat out its substance, destroy business, and free the territory from free State men. This, too, when a force of government troops, sufficient for every purpose of arrest and protection is within call.

The world affords no case which has its parallel in vileness. Not a man has resisted, even to the waving of his hand, the acts of Col. Sumner's troops; and yet these troops are not called upon, but cut-throat robbers and murderers are armed by Shannon with United States guns, and their expenses paid with United States money!

This last scheme, concocted by the agents of this administration for the purpose of fastening slavery upon Kansas, will probably be successful.—Cleveland Herald.

If such, however, be the fact, we have only to say that where Mr. Brooks's brutal attack upon Mr. Sumner has made hundreds of sectional men and determined antagonists of the slave power, the attack upon Lawrence, and the slaughter of any of its inhabitants, will make thousands and tens of thousands.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

"If, hereafter, and till this question is settled, there is but one party in the North, we deserve to be the plantation slaves of South Carolina."

The Boston Courier says:—"If these accounts are true,—and we hope they are not—the people of Lawrence will hold the same place in history which is occupied by the Huguenots of France, and the martyrs of St. Bartholomew, and there will be an end to party feeling at the North, except that of indignation against the South."

THE ANTECEDENTS OF BROOKS.—The New York Sun says;

"Preston S Brooks was severely wounded in a duel with one Wigfall of South Carolina, before going to Congress. Both Brooks and Wigfall were wounded in this duel, the former severely. Wigfall, not satisfied, says the Sun, afterwards challenged the father of Brooks; the old gentleman refused to fight, and Wigfall posted him a coward. A young relative of Mr. Brooks, Mr. Bird, attempted to tear down the placard, and was shot dead by Wigfall, who had previously said he would kill any one who should attempt it.

☞ The Boston Telegraph of Thursday evening, speaking of Mr. Sumner, at Washington, says:

A private dispatch has been received, later than anything else that has been received, which states that he was "sleeping quietly," and says "don't be alarmed."

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in a hundred tongues in hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone!

CITIZENS' MEETING.

Pursuant to a public notice, a large meeting of the citizens of Portsmouth assembled at the Temple on Thursday evening, to consider the late outrage on the freedom of debate in Congress, in which a Senator was struck down in his seat, as a punishment for words spoken in debate.

The meeting was organized as follows:

Ichabod Goodwin, Esq., President;
C. S. Toppan, H. D. Walker, A. W. Haven, Marcellus Bufford, J. G. Hadley, A. J. Beck, W. H. Y. Hackett, J. Warren Towle, Louis Barnes, Ebenezer Lord, and Samuel Cleaves, Vice Presidents;
J. Warren Towle and William H. Rollins, Secretaries.

Rev. Mr. Lamson opened the meeting with prayer.

The following Resolutions were offered by J. W. Towle, Esq. one of the Secretaries:

WHEREAS, An assault violent and cowardly has been made upon a Senator from Massachusetts, in the Senate Chamber of the United States, by one Preston S. Brooks, a member of the House of Representatives from South Carolina, because of the freedom of speech exercised by said Senator within the license of debate—

Now therefore, inasmuch as violence and brute force have usurped the place of reason and argument, and free expression of opinion is sought to be restrained by deadly personal assault—

RESOLVED, That we sympathise profoundly, with the strong expression of indignation manifested by the sovereign State whose Senator has been so atrociously assailed.

RESOLVED, That we will sustain even to death the right of freedom of speech in our public Representatives; regarding such freedom as the safeguard of our institutions, and bulwarks of our liberties.

RESOLVED, That we regard the attack of Preston S. Brooks upon the Senator from Massachusetts, as so atrocious in its nature and so dastardly in its execution, as to render said Brooks unworthy of the intercourse of honorable men.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this meeting, it a duty which the House of Representatives owes to its character and dignity, to expel from its midst an individual who has degraded himself to the ranks of the bully and assassin, and that we believe the State of New Hampshire is thoroughly with us in this opinion.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Ichabod Goodwin, J. W. Towle, A. W. Haven, C. S. Toppan, Jas. W. Emery, H. D. Walker, S. H. Goodall, Wm. H. Y. Hackett and Wm. Claggett.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted, and it was voted to send a copy of them to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and also to those of Massachusetts.

BURGLARS AT WORK.—On Wednesday night some housebreaker tried a front window in the house of Dr. Boardman, on Middle street, but found it fast and strong. A back window was opened, by cutting out a pane of glass, and the thieves visited a parlor, where they collected such valuables as they chose to carry off—but decamped, apparently in a hurry, without booty.

Some time in the night, the door-bell rang a startling peal—the Doctor was summoned from his bed to attend a patient forthwith.—He obeyed the summons, and when he got home,— about 7 o'clock in the morning, he learned for the first time, that the "border ruffians" had been trespassing on his domicil.

The same peal of the door-bell, which roused the Doctor, probably started the robbers.

The Franklin House was also entered through a back door, which had been left unfastened, and about $3 taken from the money drawer in the office. The drawer was forced open with an axe, which the theif or thieves left in the room.

Look out citizens: keep awake, watchmen.

SIGHTS.—As Uncle Toby walked home to tea, he saw a drunken man, sitting flat on the ground before a groggery, leaning his back against the same. A couple of sympathizing friends lifted him up, and with much ado, steadied him home.

Another poor fellow, worse off, got into the lock-up;—and a third, who could not use his legs, was lifted and dragged away by two kind companions who were sober.

Here were sights enough for one day, or one week.

POLICE COURT.—May 29th.—Before Justice Odell—Patrick Smith, for a drunken assault on his daughter, Hannah Smith, was sentenced to 20 days confinement in jail,—to pay costs, $3,83—and give $30 bonds to keep the peace.

Edward Newman, for drunkenness, sentenced to 14 days in House of Correction,—and costs, $3,99.

☞ House and lot No. 5 Russell St., the property of John G. Brewster, were sold on Thursday, at auction, by George W. Towle, Esq., to Paul M. Snow, for $905.

☞ At the Pacing Match at the Plains, Thursday afternoon, Walter ran two straight half-mile heats in 1:20 and 1:20 1-2. Skip shew great speed, but broke badly. o.

An English journal, in the government interest, explains Lord Clarendon's letter respecting the 2000 rifles for Costa Rica by saying that the British government have quantities of old muskets for sale, and will be glad to meet with any other customers besides the Costa Ricans.

The sittings of the Crimean Board of Inquiry in London were within a day or two of termination.

A pension of £5000 has been granted to the Marquis of Dalhousie by the East India Company, on the ground that he has annexed four kingdoms to their territory.

There is a great outcry against Palmerston for having prohibited the playing of military bands in the parks on Sundays.

The London Times Crimean correspondent sets down the Russian losses in and around Sebastopol at 86,000, while 100,000 perished from fatigue and disease. He says they would not have been able to sustain themselves many days longer had not peace been declared.

The commercial accounts are not of importance, although cotton and breadstuffs are slightly depreciated in the Liverpool markets. The money market has sustained no alteration and consols had no quotable change of importance.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 28.

HOUSE.—Mr. Thorington of Iowa introduced a bill giving lands to Minnesota, Nebraska and Kansas, for railroads.

Mr. Caruthers introduced a bill ceding the public lands to the states in which they lie.

Mr. Greenwood introduced a bill for the repeal of the act establishing the Court of Claims.

Mr. Bennett of New York, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting 1,000,000 acres of land to Louisiana, to aid the construction of three railroads in that state. Passed—62 to 58.

Mr. Florence moved that when the House adjourn it be till Saturday. He believed many gentlemen intend to leave this evening for Cincinnati.

The motion of Mr. Florence was negatived. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—The Boston Advertiser's special dispatch from Washington, of Wednesday evening, gives these items:

The British Consuls, Messrs. Rowcroft of Cincinnati, Barclay of New York, and Matthew of Philadelphia, were dismissed to-day.

We have no positive information of the rumor that Mr. Toombs has challenged Mr. Wade. It is supposed that Gen. Lane of Oregon is the bearer of a challenge from Mr. Brooks to Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Brooks expresses himself perfectly satisfied with Gen. Webb's letter.

The city is is greatly thinned out to-night; everybody has gone to Cincinnati.

The developments of to-day strengthen my views that Pierce will begin the strongest at Cincinnati, but that the real contest will be between Douglas and Buchanan—the responsibility resting with the South, which will favor Douglas, but dare not overlook Pennsylvania.

I did not say what the telegraph did, in last night's dispatch, that the friends of Messrs. Wilson and Wade took care to be armed to protect them, but to be around.

Mr. Sumner's condition is not improved to-night. It is very critical.

COOLIE SLAVE TRADE.—The Boston Advertiser has published a highly important decree of the Peravian Government, prohibiting the introduction of coolies by contract, in the violent and cruel manner which has hitherto prevailed.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID makes a very pungent drink for this weather;—diluted with a little water it is pleasant. It exhilarates and vivifies the system, and gives energy and life, in place of lassitude and weariness. If the system is billious, it is well to take the Globules in connection.

SENATORIAL DISTRICTS.—Mr. Editor;—Some time ago you published an extract from the New Hampshire Patriot, setting forth a complaint that the Hindoos had wickedly passed a Senatorial District Act, with the intent to keep the power in their own hands—but that by mistake they had made such a division of districts, that the Democratic party, with only 2000 majority, could carry 8 of the 12 districts.

Your inference then was, that the division must be very fair, if this was so.

The late official canvas of Senatorial Votes, shows that the Patriot's calculation was correct,—and that your inference was also correct.

The combined opposition, (not the Democratic party,) have only about the 2000 majority in the popular vote—and the same combined opposition have elected 9 Senators of the 12.

Could any District law be fairer than this?

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with U.S. Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantageous terms, applying for Patents superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be required by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official disclosure relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had been extensively engaged before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in recommending those who cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

CHARLES MAGRUDER BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1855.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lottery purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence, and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here, and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west the extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a deep black mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivation and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and form no miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence the Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and the value of tenant precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be bro't under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to COOKING WITHOUT FIRE.—Mr. W. W. Albro, of Binghampton, N. Y., has patented a domestic contrivance for cooking food without fire. The required caloric is generated by the use of lime and water. When brought in contact, they unite with such rapidity and energy as to develope an intense heat. No decomposition takes place, and therefore no gas escapes; thus heat is produced without combustion. The inventor turns this phenomenon to a highly useful purpose in the present improvement.

The water is poured through a funnel into a perforated pipe, and falls in a shower upon the lime. Heat begins to generate, and in a few minutes all the various commodities are seething away, as if they had a hot fire beneath them. The heat varies from half an hour to an hour, according to the quantity of lime used.

During an experiment made in the Scientific American office, the other day, with one of these contrivances, the editor cooked a slice of ham, stewed a dish of sliced apples, baked some other apples, and boiled a quantity of water, all at once, at a consumption of perhaps a quarter of a cent's worth of lime.

The inventor makes several different sizes; the largest does not exceed a lady's band-box; among them is the dinner pail pattern, so arranged that the mechanic, when noon time arrives, has only to pour a half pint or so of water into his pail, in order to cook a warm dinner. The lime and edibles are, of course, arranged at home. A good improvement.

On Thursday, the 22d, inst., there was a bad smash-up on the Northern Railroad, near Danbury. The freight and gravel trains met while under great head way, badly smashing both engines, and several cars, and making a general wreck of matter where they met. The locomotives were damaged so badly that no endeavors were made to get them on the track, but a temporary track was built for the regular train, around the wreck. No one was injured, both laborers and officials jumping off.

☞ Parker Pillsbury, of Concord, N. H., returned from Europe last week. He has been absent over two years, on a mission connected with the American Anti-Slavery Society. He returns in comparative good health. A public reception was given him, by his friends, at Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Wednesday evening.

☞ John Berry, of Georgetown, was found on Saturday evening, by the watchmen in Newburyport, somewhat intoxicated—a bottle in his pocket, labelled 'Clark's Bitters,' suggested the cause of his unfortunate situation. He was fined $2 and costs, amounting in the whole to $8.14—in default of which he was committed to jail.

Dr. Jim died in Shreveport, Louisiana, on the 19th ult., aged one hundred and twenty-four years, three months and twenty-five days. He was born December 24, 1731, in Fredericksburg, Va., as the slave of Captain John Carter, who served as an officer during the revolutionary war. Jim was the body servant of Captain Carter and others through the whole period of the revolution, was well acquainted with Gen. Washington and most of the other distinguished generals of the war, and was at Yorktown and witnessed the last decisive struggle for Independence.

In the Criminal Court of Wilmington, Del., last week, a negro, named James H. Morris, who was convicted of an assault on a female, with intent, &c., was sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, to stand in the pillory one hour, to be whipped with thirty lashes, to be imprisoned one month, and to be sold to the highest bidder for fourteen years.

The Vienna tribunal has just condemned Dr. A. Goldmark to death, for high treason in 1848. Fortunately for the doctor, he is not in Austria, but in New York, where he is successfully carrying on a manufactory of percussion caps, and the sentence will have no more effect upon him than would "a blister upon a wooden leg."

The Emperor Napoleon has just purchased 18,000 square metres of land in the city of Paris and divided it off into lots, on which he intends immediately building a large number of houses for the accommodation of the poorer classes of his subjects. Each house as soon as it is built will be sold at public auction, and the proceeds applied to building another.

At Pittsburg, Pa., on the 15th, while some five hundred children were going through a singing rehearsal, seated upon a row of temporary seats, rising one above the other nearly to the ceiling of the hall, the seats gave way with a crash, and the children were tumbled together in great confusion. Strange to relate, none of them received the slightest injury, although some fell at least twenty feet.

The States of the Duchy of Meiningen have just decided that no Jew can be an elector, a juryman, a public functionary, an advocate, or attorney.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MAY 31, 1856.

THE N. H. PATRIOT, of May 28, says, speaking of the Brooks and Sumner case:—

This assault will find no apologists among our people, as it has no justification. It meets, as it merits, the most unqualified reprehension, and deserves the severest punishment. We regard it as utterly disgraceful, a gross outrage, and we regret and condemn it as sincerely as any of the political friends of Mr. S. can do.

This reads well. But we read on.

Even the malignant slander of an aged and absent relative, and the most insulting libel upon his State, do not justify the assailant.

Surely not,—but here begins something that we should call an apology, though the Patriot it seems does not. Read on

But while we say and feel this, we must also say that Sumner's speech was of such a character as to provoke the result which has followed, and it seems to have been designed for that purpose. * * * The natural result followed; and while we cannot too severely denounce the assault, it is proper at the same time to denounce the provocation with equal severity.

The Senator [Butler] thus violently and ruthlessly assailed was absent, at his home in South Carolina. He is an aged man, and one of the most courteous, accomplished and respected members of the Senate. Mr. Brooks is his nephew, and took upon himself the responsibility of punishing Mr. Sumner for this abuse of his venerable uncle. Failing to meet him elsewhere, Brooks went into the Senate chamber, after the adjournment, &c.

Yes, indeed, it was after the adjournment,—and two days after the speech complained of, when the amiable Brooks, the dutiful nephew of the "courteous" Butler, with malice aforethought, stole up to Sumner's desk and made a sudden assault with intent to kill.

And on the Patriot's theory, this sneaking attempt to kill, is a crime of exactly equal enormity with a strictly parliamentary speech against measures and men, on the floor of the Senate.

Let us try a case or two, by the Patriot's own ruling.

And first, let us try Sumner by it. Sumner made a long, severe, well arranged speech against the Nebraska Kansas rascality,—in which he introduced and showed up the rascals. In this speech he not only accused Senator Butler of being a great blunderer, as the Patriot quotes, but he proved the blunders by quoting chapter and verse. This "courteous," Butler is an old hard drinking roue, who has repeatedly insulted Sumner, as the half drunken chivalry have done on various occasions—and has just now called Senator Wilson a liar, and then backed out. Butler in the debates has been conspicuous in browbeating every one who would not bow down to slavery, as personified in himself, Atchison & Co.

Sumner's words against him were no aggression—they were only a reply to numerous aggressions.

For this reply, the nephew Brooks, a man as debased as his uncle, with confederates no better, stole up and aimed the deadly blow.

This is bad, says the Patriot—very bad.—But the provocation, that is, the speech, is equally bad!

So, we suppose, it was very bad, for Herbert to shoot Keating the Irish waiter. But the provocation, of daring to tell this rowdy he could not have his breakfast,—was too much to bear. It is equally bad. It is the "natural" effect of an answer from a waiter or a Senator, made to one of the half drunken chivalry.

It was bad, very bad, for Senator Rust to attack Editor Greeley in the street—but then Greeley's provocation was equally bad, as he had rather used up the Senator in his letters.

And now, to come a little nearer home,—what public man is there in New Hampshire, among the Patriot's opponents, against which it has not said things hard, severe, harsh, and in every way as offensive as any thing it can quote from Sumner?

Shall we mention Burke, Metcalf, or John P. Hale? Suppose now some ardent friend of the latter should steal in with a few choice friends, and crack the editor's skull a few times with a cudgel, before he could rise from his chair!

That would be bad, very bad—but would the provocation be equally bad?

We trow not. For no other reason that we can think of, except that Sumner spoke against slavery,—and that the Patriot generally spoke against something else.

☞ Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, being challenged by the ruffian Brooks has, it is said, replied, that he used the language complained of, because he at the time believed, and now believes, it was strictly true, and demanded by the character of the assault on Mr. Sumner. He also said that he was no duellist, but that he will use what language he thinks proper in debate, and if assailed for doing so knows how to defend himself.

KANSAS NEWS.

Governor Shannon had called out the troops and stationed them at different points. The Missourians were returning home.

After the burning of the hotel and the Herald of Freedom office, Governor Robinson's house was fired, but the fire was extinguished before the house was destroyed. Sheriff Jones then dismissed his posse, when they immediately rushed into the stores and dwellings of the place, removing everything valuable and destroying everything not moveable. The Post Office was broken open and the letters seized. All the houses of the free state men were pillaged except the Cincinnati Hotel. Buford, Stringfellow, and Atchison were conspicuous during the day. Governor Shannon was absent. The posse of Jones left the city at sunset, he informing them that he should need their services next day.

The correspondent of the Tribune, writing from Leavenworth, May 22, gives the following particulars of the attack on Lawrence:—"Marshal Donaldson, whose United States posse had been gradually narrowing the circle around Lawrence, made a nocturnal descent upon it about three o'clock yesterday morning. They took possession of the town without the slightest resistance, and arrested those they wanted, Dietzlers and Smith being among the number taken. The Marshal, after prolonging the search, and taking all the arms he could find, went through a mock process of disbanding them, when they were immediately led on by Sheriff Jones, who has not been half so seriously injured as was supposed, and the assassination story about whom has doubtless been a trick. Four pieces of artillery were immediately planted in front of the great hotel, and then commenced to batter it down. Little progress was made by the artillery, as the walls were thick.—One corner was injured; but when they saw that the work was too slow, a keg of powder was placed in the cellar, and the attempt made to blow it up. This was only partially successful; but the flames were soon bursting from it in all quarters. Both of the newspaper offices were destroyed. The posse, in the meantime, ransacked every quarter for liquor, and, long before evening, a great many of them were disgustingly drunk, and running about the streets talking about killing the abolitionists. Several men are reported killed; but the loss of life and other outrages perpetrated on helpless men, women, and children, will never be known. Comparatively few men were in Lawrence when the attack was made. When it was resolved that the United States authorities should not, in any shape, be resisted, no matter how lawless or violent, the defenders left the city one by one, well knowing that the presence of a few would only expose them to certain destruction, and that the attack on them would make an apology for destroying the town."

LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature of New Hampshire will assemble on Wednesday next. As the people have failed to choose a Governor, the Senators and Representatives will meet in Convention and elect one of the two candidates having the largest number of votes. Ralph Metcalf will undoubtedly be re-elected governor, by a considerable majority in both branches.

TWO EXTRACTS from the same paper. In one article, the N. H. Gazette of the 31st says:

All the Democratic papers that we have seen unequivocally condemn the assault upon Senator Sumner.

In another:—

Mr. Sumner courted personal attack by personal abuse. He has reaped the effect of his words, and can blame himself for the consequences which ensued.

IOWA LAND BILL.—A letter from Washington dated, May 15, to the N. H. Patriot says:

"A bill was signed by the President to-day, which will add to his popularity very much in the Western States. I refer to the bill granting alternate sections of land in Iowa in aid of railroads running from the eastern to the western boundaries of that State—or from the Mississippi river to the Missouri. Senator Jones and Mr. Pike, of N. H., of the joint committee on enrolling bills, carried the bill up to the President, and in an hour afterwards it was brought to the House signed."

The following is the new libel law of Pennsylvania, and the whole of it:—

"That from and after the passage of this act, on the trial of indictments for writing or publishing a libel, the truth of the matter charged as libellous may be given in evidence, and if the jury in any such case shall find that the same was written or published from good motives and for justifiable ends, and that the matter so charged was true, it shall operate to the acquittal of the defendant or defendants."

The New York Daily News (Hardshell,) says it has "not words to express the indignation felt" that "the President has again rushed into the Soft soil of Van Buren Democracy"—gone into the very region and home of the Jerry rescuers, and brought down from the salt marshes of Syracuse a Mr. Dillaye to affix prices and values upon merchandise into the port of New York!" It further says "the State has become and is becoming abolitionized."

Good nature redeems many faults. More than beauty, wealth, power, genius, it causes men and women to be loved. If there be no shining qualities whatever in the character, even should there be considerable intellectual deficiency, yet if a good temper beams brightly on the countenance, we ask nothing more. We pause not, we do not question, nor hesitate, but surrender at once to the fascination of the good and honest soul, that has set upon his face the seal of this admirable quality.

AM. TEMP. UNION.—Gov. Briggs of Ms. has been chosen President of the Am. Temp. Union in place of Chief Justice Sawyer, who has resigned.

MORMON EMIGRANTS.—A family, consisting of the husband and his four wives, from Canada, en route to join the faithful at Salt Lake, passed through our city a day or two since. They have their own means of transportation—wagons and horses. The wives with their husband occupied one vehicle—apparently a happy load.—Detroit Free Press.

The New York State Temperance Society has forwarded to California, for gratuitous distribution, equal to half a million of pages of Temperance reading, which were carried free by the transportation companies; and about two million pages are to be forwarded to Kansas, which will probably be conveyed gratis.

Phoby Myers, a colored woman, was convicted in Maryland, last winter, of enticing her children and grand-children to run away from slavery, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for forty-two and a half years. A few days ago she was pardoned, at the request of the owner of the slaves and other influential gentlemen.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A letter from Havana, of the 25th, says: "I learn by passengers on board the Illinois, that Nicaragua is blockaded on the Pacific side by French vessels of war; that the Sierra Nevada was not permitted to land her passengers at Punta Arenas, and was too late at Panama to put them across for the Illinois.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself! Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "trod the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

STILL ANOTHER ROBBERY.— The dwelling house of Stephen Walker on Middle St., was robbed on Thursday night. About 10 o'clock, just before the family were retiring, a noise in the lower story attracted their attention, and caused an examination of the premises and fastenings of the doors, windows, &c., but nothing unusual was discovered. In the morning, Mr. Walker's pants were missing from the chamber where he slept; and were found in the lower story. The pockets were rifled of a port monnaie containing about $100, and some silver coin. A part of the coin was scattered about the room, and a half-dollar piece found upon the stairs. The port monnaie was found in the back yard, empty, and a back window open. It is probable that the rascals entered the house during the day or evening, and secreted themselves till the family were asleep. The numerous successful burglaries of late indicate the existence of an organized band of professional thieves among us, and should put our citizens upon their guard. Some immediate measures should be taken to put a stop to these robberies, and doors and windows should be kept fastened at all times in the day as well as in the night.

On Wednesday night an unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the clothing store of B. Cheever & Son. The operator in this case was evidently a novice. His only tool seemed to be a knife with which he attempted to cut away a shutter, around the bar. This job was given up, and an entrance sought through the work shop, which was entered through a window; but this failed also, and thief left without booty.

We learn that the dwelling house of Mr. Samuel Ham on the Middle road was entered on Wednesday evening by three large boys, who were discovered by Mr. Ham, and made their escape.

The same evening, the house of Mrs. Littlefield near the Plains, was entered in the absence of the family, and articles stolen, though what amount is not known.—Gazette.

☞ We are requested to mention that there will be no services in the Pleasant Street Church to-morrow.

SPRING MARKET.—The proprietors of the Stalls at the Old Spring Market, request us to remind the public that they are always "on the Spring" to keep up with the times—that is to keep prices down to suit the times; and that they have as usual, a complete stock of fish, flesh and fowl, with vegetables, &c. which they will sell as low or a little lower than can be had at other markets. *

☞ A farmer near this city, 80 years of age, and still active, informs us that the prospect for grass is remarkably good, and for apple blossoms, uncommonly favorable.

The Pennsylvania Farm Journal says; "We look forward to an immensely heavy apple crop. The experience of the 'oldest inhabitant' favors the opinion. The severest winters are generally followed by an abundance of apples, and although the unexampled severity of the one just past may cause an exception to this rule, we hazard the prediction that we shall have apples in plentiful abundance.

THE CROPS.—The advices from all parts of the country in relation to the growing crops are unusually satisfactory. In this State the general accounts are, that there is a present prospect of a large crop of wheat.—The papers in various parts of the country are giving good accounts of the prospects of the coming crops. The season is backward but that is said to be very favorable to wheat, which was sown in immense quantities last fall.—Pennsylvanian.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May 29.

Messages from the President were received in both Houses, informing Congress that he has ceased to hold intercourse with the Minister of the British government, and deems it proper to lay before them the considerations of public duty which had led to the adoption of a measure of so much importance.

In the Senate a dull debate ensued between Messrs. Cass, Toombs and Butler.

In the House, the message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Grow, representing the majority of the Committee on Territories, made a report, proposing to admit Kansas into the Union with the Topeka Constitution. Consideration was postponed to the 25th of June.

Several private bills were passed, and both houses adjourned to Monday.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The special committee in Brooks's case will report on Monday, and recommend his expulsion. They will also recommend a vote of censure on Keitt and Edmundson.

The minority will report that the assault on Mr. Sumner involves no violation of the privileges of the Constitution, and outside of the Constitution Congress has no privileges.

Virgil D. Parris of Maine, special P. O. agent for New England, was dismissed from office on Tuesday. A few hours before his dismissal he had called on the P. M. General, and intimated his intention of voting in the Cincinnati convention for Buchanan.

Mr. Brooks left for Cincinnati this afternoon, and Gen. Wilson will go North tomorrow.

The dismissal of Crampton had caused no sensation here. Mr. Lumley, Secretary of Legation, was to remain a charge de interim.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Illinois, from Aspinwall, with California mails, arrived at New York on Thursday. She brings $1,800,000 in gold, and 660 passengers.

John Spalding of Calais, Me. and Miss S. Allyn of Sandwich, Mass. died on board the Illinois on the passage.

The Sierra Nevada left San Francisco on the 5th for San Juan, to proceed to Panama in case of any disturbance at the former place.

It was rumored at San Francisco that a large party, well armed, was going down in the Golden Gate to revenge the recent outrage at Panama.

PANAMA.—The late Railroad Accident.—The dead thus far amount to 43. The wounded who required surgical aid numbered 60, of whom 47 are now in the hospital of the railroad company, and the remainder went on toward San Francisco.

The El Panemeno states that some arrests of persons engaged in the riot of April 15th had been made, and a portion of the stolen property recovered.

The disturbances in the interior had been quelled.

Central America.—The Aspinwall Courier of the 20th May has further advices of the movements of the Costa Ricans, some of whom had reached San Juan. They there shipped their wounded to Punta Arenas. The main body of the army pushed their retreat into Costa Rica, the troops suffering severely from cholera on the route.

The final evacuation of Costa Rica was not completed until April 29.

The Courier is informed by friends of Walker, that at 3 A. M. on the 12th, being out of ammunition, Walker marched out of the city to the drum and fife, and for four hours the Costa Ricans continued to fire at the church which he had vacated.

From Oregon.—The Oregonian of April 19 publishes a report from Col. Cornelius, commanding 1st Reg. Oregon Mounted Volunteers, dated April 14, at the Dalles, on the Columbia river. On the 10th, Capt. Hembree, and an exploring company of four were suddenly surrounded by about 70 hostile Indians, who fired upon them, killing Capt. Hembree. This was the signal for a general Indian attack upon the camp, for which at at all points the Indians commenced marching, but the attack was prevented by the activity of the troops.

A band of 300 Indian warriors was subsequently dislodged from a fortified position up the creek. No other white man was killed, but one was slightly wounded.

MR. SUMNER.—The N. Y. Courier of Friday morning, has a despatch from Washington, saying—

Mr. Sumner is worse and in a very critical condition. The fever has not abated, and erysipelas has set in.

The Boston Transcript of Friday evening, gives the latest despatch:

Senator Sumner is more comfortable this morning, and the symptoms of erysipelas are subsiding. Drs. Perry, Miller and Lindley have been in consultation on his case.

Another libel suit has just been decided at New Orleans A man wanted $20,000 damages from the Crescent newspaper, but the jury, after mature deliberation, gave him the round sum of one cent. Suing newspapers for damages is a paying business at New Orleans.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, rye.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them. The Government lands have been sold, at $1.25 per acre for one to two good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska; the although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased will yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

CANE AND PITCHER.

Almost the only news by Saturday morning's mail from the South, relates to the outrages on freedom and free speech in Kansas and in Washington. The latter place has the pre-eminence at the present moment, as it has just received a consignment of valuable and appropriate presents, for the Honorable Mr. Brooks, sent on from kindred spirits in South Carolina, as testimonials of their approbation of his conduct, in committing an assault and battery on a Senator for words spoken in debate. The presents have a peculiar fitness: The pitcher for the drunkard; the cane for the bully: out of the former he will quaff the fiery draught, which will madden his brain and excite his nerves to use the latter..

Brooks, Butler and their apologists, north and south, now take the ground that free speech, free debate, and a free press, are all nuisances and crimes which it is meritorious to put down by any means, murder not excepted. This is the issue at the present moment.

The following items are from a Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Evening Post.

Not less than twenty witnesses have been examined by the House Investigating Committee as to the assault on Senator Sumner.—It is stated that Mr. Edmundson of Virginia, who was present with Brooks in the Senate, admits that he knew of the intention of Brooks in advance of the attack; that he was with him two mornings, with a view of witnessing it, and that Brooks requested him to attend at the very time it happened. This and other evidence, I presume, will show its premeditated character, beyond question. It is stated that Mr. Stephens of Georgia strongly urged Mr. Brooks to issue a card, disclaiming all political motives in the attack, and justifying it solely on the ground of his personal displeasure in consequence of the alleged greivances of his uncle. Mr. Brooks is, however, reported to have declined to make any such statement. Brooks's constituents have just sent him a testimonial in the form of a cane, and a massive silver pitcher, both of which have arrived in Washington. The pitcher is engraved with this inscription:—

Preston S. Brooks,

—The very day of the assault. I understand that assurances have been volunteered that under no circumstances will violence be offered to Wilson or his friends, either in or out of the Senate. Wilson's letter, refusing to either accept the challenge or to qualify his words in regard to the assault on his colleague, is considered creditable alike to his courage and his good sense.

Mr. Sumner's sufferings, which, for about twenty-four hours, were intense, were greatly relieved yesterday by the lancing of the swelling upon his head. His neck and head are, however, still much swollen, and require constant bandaging. He sees no visitors, and the physician pronounces him still in danger. His case, on the first two or three days after the assault, was, doubtless, much aggravated by the excitement of receiving so many calls; but, aside from this circumstance, he has not been able to leave his room without the risk of fatal consequences.

MR. BROOKS.

Let us look into the courage of this doughty knight of the cane and pitcher.

Webb, of New York, says, in his letter;

In my comments upon the recent outrage in the Senate, I have intentionally kept out of view both Mr. Sumner and Mr. Brooks—looking at it solely as an insult to the country, a trampling upon the Constitution, and an outrage upon the sanctity of the Senate chamber, which merited death on the spot from any patriot present, who was in a position to inflict the punishment.

As an answer to this letter, Mr. Brooks of South Carolina has given notice to Gen. Webb, through Gov. Aiken, that his letter in Tuesday's Courier and Enquirer is satisfactory.

Again, in the correspondence between Messrs. Brooks and Wilson—Brooks, by Mr. Lane of Oregon, sent a note to Gen. Wilson, demanding that he should either retract the words "murderous, brutal and cowardly," used by him in characterizing Mr. Brooks's assault on Mr. Sumner, or indicate where he would receive a hostile message from Mr. Brooks.

"Therefore I hold myself at liberty, by this note, to request that you will inform me without delay, where and when, outside of this district, a further note will reach you."

To this Wilson replied:

"I characterized, on the floor of the Senate, the assault on my colleague, as brutal, murderous and cowardly. I thought so then; I think so now, and have no qualifications whatever to make with regard to those words. I have always regarded duelling as a relic of barbarous civilization, which the law of the country branded as crime. While, therefore, I religiously believe in the right of self defence, in the broadest sense of the law of my country, the convictions of my whole life alike forbid me to meet you for the purposes indicated in your letter."

That is to say, he refused to retract or qualify his words; declined receiving a challenge, but would defend himself from personal violence.

Well: what happened? For some hours after this correspondence had passed, a street fight was expected, as Gen. Wilson was well armed and surrounded by armed friends.—Mr. Brooks, however, said he designed no violence, and it was agreed not to bring the subject before the House.

CALIFORNIA — NAVY YARD — DRY DOCK.

U. S. Dry Dock, Navy Island, California, May 2, 1856.

It has now been nearly two years since I left Portsmouth for the land of gold. It did not take me long to find out that "all is not gold that glitters." However, I have no reason to complain; for I have been quite successful. Business in this country is very good for those who will attend to it. There will probably be more gold taken from the mines this season than any heretofore. Some very rich strikes have been made, but I do not know that there has been any more than usual.

The following incident may be a benefit to those who want to get the California fever, just to see how it feels. A man in Nevada, who had been accustomed to dig just gold enough to buy whiskey and keep drunk as much as possible, got dead broke the other day. Not a red could he borrow. Taking a piece of an iron hoop in his hand, he walked to the top of a high hill, just back of the town, and commenced "prospecting." Hardly had he began, when he struck as pretty a sample as has been seen for a long time. It weighed ninety-two pounds, and was worth about $13,000! Probably it will kill or cure. Now every man must not fancy that because one drunken sot has got such a lump, that every one can do it, for that is a rule that won't work.

The Navy Yard has about "dried up"—cause, money has run out. We have now got to wait until Congress appropriates some more and then "Hard Times" round this place will vanish. Uncle Sam's generosity to this Navy Yard has already built up quite a little village opposite. Vallejo is the name of it. It used to be the Capital, which was afterwards removed to Benicia, and finally to Sacramento—where the last Legislature assembled. While this was the capital, it was quite flourishing; but when that was moved, the town dwindled all down,—so much so, in fact, that only about half-a-dozen people were left. When the Navy Yard was instituted, it commenced to grow up again; and at one time there was about 1200 inhabitants. Many have moved away lately, but by another fall I have no doubt there will be upwards of 2000 people in the place. It is strongly talked of as the terminus of the Marysville Railroad.

The only business being done here now is by Dakin, Moody, Gilbert, & Secor. They have built one of their Sectional Docks out here, and are now constructing a Basin and Railway to be used in connection with the Dock. They have about two hundred hands employed, and will probably finish the works in about four months.

Isaiah Hanscom, Esq., well known in your vicinity, has been appointed Naval Constructor for this Yard, and has entered upon his duties.

The sloop-of-war John Adams is expected in daily. She will take in stores and sail immediately for Puget Sound, to relieve the Decatur. The latter vessel, which has been engaged in protecting the whites from the Indians on the Sound, has been ashore; and will, on the arrival of the "Adams," come down to this Yard to be repaired. It is supposed that she will require pretty extensive repairs.

Exeter, May 31.

Accidental Death.—John Marsh, aged about 18, who came from New Market, but who has recently been residing in this town, accidentally killed himself this morning in the following manner: He took a boat and went out on the river, in order to shoot an eagle which he saw flying about there. He laid his his gun in the bottom of the boat, and when taking it up, the hammer probably caught on the side of the boat and discharged the gun, the charge entering his right side, killing him almost instantly.

An inquest was held by Coroner Dearborn, and a verdict rendered that he came to his death "by accidentally shooting himself with a gun in a certain boat on Exeter river, and not otherwise." G. P.

☞ There was an immense meeting in the New York Tabernacle on Friday evening, of sympathy with Sumner and free debate, and consequent condemnation of Brooks & Co.

Mr. Sumner's Health.—A telegraphic despatch has been received in Boston from Hon. Anson Burlingame, dated Washington, 11 o'clock Saturday morning, which says that "Mr. Sumner is better today."

Col. Fremont is a member and a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church,—is a man of great simplicity and purity of life,—beloved and respected in all circles where he is known,—has a thorough knowledge of men, and is well versed in all governmental affairs. He is a Pacific Railroad man, and an ardent advocate of river and harbor improvements. In all his feelings and sympathies he is a Western man, and is desirous of seeing the praries of the far West, and the coast of the Pacific dotted all over with the homes of the farmer, the school-house, and the church.

Suit of Freedom.—A suit, which excited considerable local interest, was brought to a close on Saturday evening in Chesterfield Circuit Court, Judge Nash presiding. The style of the case was Betty et als vs. Anderson's executors. It was a claim on the part of certain negroes, Betty and descendants, to freedom under a deed of emancipation executed by Jordan Anderson, the elder, in 1780. After the most patient investigation of the case, and the most elaborate argument of counsel, it was decided in favor of the complainants. There were twenty-one thus suing for their freedom, and they had the case decided in their behalf, notwithstanding the abolitionists say there is no law for negroes at the South. There are about twenty more of Betty's descendants in an adjoining county, and steps are in progress to bring their claims in like manner before the proper tribunal.—Richmond Despatch, 12th.

Hereditary Evil.—The Newburyport Herald says:

In the matter of intemperance there are those who have indulged and seem to have no power of resistance. If we should examine into those cases, we might find that in most instances they had never had justice done them by others, and especially by their mothers. In nine cases out of ten such intemperance arises from one of three causes; first as an hereditary disease; or second from an unfortunate condition previous to birth; or third from the manner of life in infancy.—Others may be inebriates, but few irreclaimably so. * * * *

There is no justification in holding the cup to a neighbor's lips; but in home, its influences and instructions, and not in the banishment of that cup, is the assurance of sobriety. It is in the power of parents, and to a degree with instructors and clergymen, by establishing principles and forming character, to give greater protection than could be had by the absolute and total prohibition of rum. That would only save from drunkenness, while evil desires would find play in a thousand other directions; but to the pure in heart all things will be pure.

Impatient of chronic domestic difficulties, John Taylor, an old, respectable but eccentric resident of Tashua, Ct., contrived to get a heavy flat stone upon his back, and drowned himself in a stream of water only eleven inches deep.

"If you and Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

REMOVAL AND APPOINTMENT.—John Christie, Esq. who has been for thirty-one years attached to the Navy Yard on this station, was removed on Saturday, May 31, from the office of Clerk to the Commandant,—and Mr. Gordon M. Newton, son of the Commodore, appointed in his place. To prevent misapprehension by any one in reference to this matter, Mr. Christie has shown us a letter to him from Com. Newton, from which we make the following extract:

"Allow me on this occasion to express my sincere thanks for your services, which have been most faithfully and diligently performed since our association, and to assure you that no circumstances other than my son's wish to be with me, would ever have induced me to part with you. You carry with you, dear sir, my good wishes for your future welfare and happiness, which, believe me, will be a pleasure to me to promote."

STILL AT WORK.—The gang of thieves who now infest our city, still continue their operations. On Friday night they visited three different places.

About 2 o'clock Mrs. Jere. Mathes, living corner of Fleet and State streets, was awakened by the noise of some one entering a window. On opening a window in the front of the house she saw two men, who answered in the affirmative to an interrogatory as to whether they were watchmen. She requested them to take the man to the watch-house; they agreed, but went up street with the man instead of down, and at full speed.

They entered the Spring Market, packed up a quantity of meat, but were alarmed and fled at the approach of the watch.

The store of Hamilton C. Locke, on Penhallow street, was also entered, and a coat stolen. It is not known whether any liquor was taken.

AN OLD FRIEND GONE.—Everybody who has patronized the livery stables in Portsmouth much, within the last six years, knew little Jeanet—a chesnut or blood-bay mare of small size, but big enough to do all any reasonable person would ask horseflesh to do.—If the ladies wished a side-saddle ride or a drive by themselves in a carriage; if the boys or inexperienced gents wished to bestride a horse; if marshals for any procession were to be mounted; or a "quiet horse" was wanted for any use—Jeanet was always called for. And she was always ready to respond in gallant style. Everybody liked her—nobody was afraid of her.

Well, happening to be in Messrs. Fernald's stable, on Thursday evening, an hostler who drove Jeanet into the yard, remarked that she was sick. And it was apparent that her right side was considerably swollen. We thought of her no more; but next day, at noon, it caused us a pang of regret, to see the faithful creature ingloriously hauled away on trucks; to be buried. A post mortem examination, we learn, shew cause for suspicion that she died from poison,—from or by whom administered, if at all, is a mystery. "Well done, good and faithful servant"—may we often "look upon thy like."

☞ The schooner Emerald, with her cargo of lime, which sunk recently in our river, were the property of Capt. Small, who commanded her. He had no insurance—and lost besides, $50, with clothing and other articles in his cabin—being left almost penniless.—Some of his friends in this city have circulated a subscription-paper for his benefit; and we are pleased to learn that upwards of $200 have been made up for him; and more will probably be done. A little aid from many who will not miss a trifle, will often serve to encourage a man, in a tight corner, to try again. "Help ye one another."

☞ By our advertising columns, it will be seen that Mrs. Barrow, an actress of much ability and wide celebrity, now connected with the Boston Theatre, is to give one of her popular Readings at the Temple in this city, next week. She has been received with much enthusiasm, at her Readings in the principal cities; and comes to us with the prestige of a good name, and a varied and excellent programme.

A Mr. Gilmore, of Albany, has been obliged to call on the police to take care of his two daughters, aged 16 and 18, for keeping bad company. They were placed in jail, and Adam Todd, one of their admirers, was subsequently committed for his ingenuity in furnishing the girls with liquor in the jail. He first climbed upon the roof of the stable adjacent to the jail, then tied a string around the neck of a bottle—then tying a stone to the other end of a string, he threw the latter into the window of the cell in which the girls are confined, who could thus draw the bottle into their possession.

COOL.—A New Yorker, who calls himself Ray B. Eastbrooks, has written a letter to Col. Frazier, a slaveholder, of Edgefield, S.C., proposing to send him a black woman named Diana, now in New York, whose freedom was purchased by the benevolent people in that city. He says the woman desires to return to Edgefield, if she can be placed in a position not to be sold, and remarks, "I would like to see the color of the hundred dollars I paid towards her." The letter is published in the Edgfield Advertiser.

LATER FROM KANSAS

CHICAGO, May 30.—Reliable information has been received here of the murder of Mr. Rolt and Mr. Mitchell of New Haven, near Lawrence. A letter to the St. Louis Democrat confirms the statement, and says they were cooly shot by the posse, ten miles from Lawrence, on the 16th inst., while the forces were collecting to attack Lawrence.

ST. LOUIS, May 30.—Pro-slavery Accounts.—The St. Louis Republican this morning publishes a letter purporting to come from Independence, May 26, which states that eight pro-slavery settlers on Pottawottamie Creek have been killed by free state men. The letter says the deed was committed by an organized band of Abolitionists, who have determined to wreak vengeance upon any opponent of their views, the other settlers in the neighborhood have asked Governor Shannon to protect them and their property from further violence.

All is quiet at Lawrence, Lecompton and Franklin, United states troops having been stationed at each place.

[The above needs a confirmation. The Republican is a violent pro-slavery paper, and it was the first one to start the report of the assassination of Sheriff Jones.]

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, May 30.—Col. Eldredge, from Lawrence, arrived here yesterday, en route for the East. He intends to demand damage from Government for the destruction of his property at Lawrence.

Gov. Reeder came down the Mississippi on a steamer, as a deck hand, which he left at St Charles, Mo. passing over to Illinois, thence by railroad to Chicago. His trunks were left at Atchison, and contained, it is said, copies of letters to parties at the east, which involve him in a conspiracy against the government.

The steamers Saturn and Polar Star, arrived here last night, brought down a large number of Kansas emigrants returning to the east.

The resolution on intemperance was taken from the table and read. It was as follows—

Resolved, That drunkenness is still making so much havoc among our youth, and blasting the prospects of so many of our race, that we cannot but lament its horrors. Nor can we think that any diversity of opinion as to the best means of staying this blight, justifies any Christian in withholding his influence from the cause of temperance. We renew our protest against that avarice which induces sober men to continue in the traffic of ardent spirits; deplore that inconsiderateness in the young which makes them, for a momentary gratification, risk a drunkard's fate; and exhort parents to teach their children to abhor intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, That as prohibitory legislation is but one means of checking intemperance, we rejoice in the efforts made to promote temperance by dissuasion and moral appeals. Believing in the utility of such agencies, we will aid them by our personal efforts and influence.

Rev. Mr. Hanson of Gardiner, Me. said he had resided in Maine for eight years, and for the past three months had seen more drunkenness there than during the six preceding years. He gave as a reason that the friends of temperance had been divided between legal and moral suasion, each division contending for its remedy. The two arms of power had not united in the good work as they should have done. Too much dependence, perhaps, had been placed in the law, and too little on moral suasion. But the aspect in Maine was only temporary. If the issue had been clean on the prohibitive principle, the people would have endorsed it. Other matters not necessary to mention had entered into the contest. Maine had not really receded.

Rev. Mr. Thompson of Waltham said there was not one in a hundred of the temperance people of Massachusetts but were in favor of prohibition, while many of those who falsely call themselves moral sussionists, were rum-sellers and their friends. The law was not carried out in Boston, neither were the Ten Commandments, but they had not better be repealed. He believed the temperance cause in Massachusetts never stood better.

The resolutions were then adopted by the Association.

Of all the agencies which the inventive beneficience of the age has put in motion, none, I must say, appear to me so hopeful of the highest utility as the Young Men's Christian Associations, which, taking their origin only a few short years ago, have already rapidly multiplied in every country which enjoys the blessings of civil and religious liberty.—Youthful energy, gentlemen, is in itself a great power, to whatsoever object directed. But when impelled by the strongest and steadiest of all principles of human action, a sense of religious duty, and directed to the highest of all objects of human pursuit, "peace on earth and good will to men," and when its efforts are combined and systematized by organization and concert, there is nothing humanly possible which it cannot accomplish.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:

There is a fervent desire on the part of some of the members to reach the consideration of the Kansas case, and the impatience to do so has reached a point well nigh intolerable. Members are fairly blistered with the thought that Kansas finds no voice raised in behalf of her unequaled woes in the national capitol. The discussion can be but little longer deferred. It looks as though the opposition to appropriations squinting, ever so distantly toward footing the bill of the land pirates in that territory, would be fiery and overwhelming. The depth of feeling here, over the recent hellish deeds in Kansas, is unfathomable.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under 1837) continues to be determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has maps arrang ments whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thro h him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in advising inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1852.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES, BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and sell lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. D. H. MCNEALL,

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, and rocks picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

The great sun upon the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of transporting them from home. Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or uninterrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of those lands purchased shall yearly be put under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

But they do not expect that their increased expenditures shall be made up in an increase of price on their goods, but in a large increase in their business and in additions to their already extensive list of customers. They are satisfied that the

LOW PRICE SYSTEM
Is better than any other, and will treat all their customers on the same favorable terms. They are perfectly willing that their Cloths and Clothing and prices should be compared with those of any other establishment. Their stock of

Custom Work,
And warrant perfect satisfaction to all who favor them with their patronage. Good work, good style and a perfect fit is warranted, or the purchasers will not be expected or desired to receive the garments.

Sweet Milk.
IF you would have your Milk nice and sweet, furnish your Milkman with a small Can, which will contain the exact quantity you daily use, and you will accomplish an object that can be reached in no other way. Cans containing precisely one and two quarts respectively, (standard government measure,) will be furnished to all who may desire, at Chapman's Tin Ware Factory, Daniel street, near the Post Office, Sign of the Big Coffee Pot. Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1856.

REMARKABLE EXTRACTS, WITH NOTES.—The People's Advocate, said to be edited by the Post Master of Salem, Ms., but published at Marblehead without any name of printer or editor, condemns Sumner and eulogises Brooks. It says:

We know that Mr. Brooks is most amiable and gallant, and that the circumstances of the case were very embarassing.

Most gallant coward—most amiable murderer—most embarrassed drunkard.

The collision between Mr. Brooks of South Carolina and Mr. Sumner is extremely unfortunate, for many reasons.

Very unfortunate! It has waked up the people of these States to ask if any freedom is left.

No southern gentleman has ever refused to meet Mr. Sumner or any other abolitionist in fair and high debate.

We have recollections of sundry Gags, applied in Senate and House, for years and years, even against petitions, remonstrances, and memorials. We have also some recollection of one "hangman Foote," Atchison, and other amiable persons of this sort who, met Adams, Giddings, Hale and others in a way rather different from fair and high debate.

The affair we have said is unfortunate. It is unfortunate because the popular mind at both extremes of the Union is unfit for its reception.

Now hear him say how Brooks ought to have treated Sumner.

A calm and contemptuous rebuff ought to have satisfied every sense of honor.* * *

And it would have left Mr. Brooks free from every imputation of indiscretion and ferocity.

Very true; so it would! but as the case stands, exactly opposite to this, he was ferocious, indiscreet, dishonorable, and contemptible.

And it seems to us, that such a defence of him, is also contemptible beyond almost anything we have seen on the subject.

KEITT AND DOUGLASS.—A gentleman of Montreal, Dr. Bunting, happened to be lingering in the Gallery of the Senate Chamber, when Brooks attacked Sumner. He says:

While this assault was progressing, Mr. Keitt stood with one hand flourishing a large cane to keep off any person to interfere, and with the other hand holding a pistol behind him partially under the flap of his coat, but which Dr. Bunting saw very distinctly projecting from between the flaps of his coat.—During the attack, Senator Douglas stood within five feet of Mr. Sumner, in a free and easy position, with both hands in his pockets, his hat on, and making no movement toward the assailant.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY, BOSTON.—At the adjourned meeting on Wednesday morning, after a debate on Rev. Nehemiah Adams's South side View of Slavery, he was run down, as a member of the Publishing Committee. Resolutions were introduced, by Rev. Mr. Dexter, tending to reform and improve the action of the Am. Tract Society at New York. Rev. Dr. Blagden moved the resolutions be committed to a committee of five, to report at the next annual meeting.—The motion was lost, and the resolutions were carried by a vote 40 to 12. A Resolution was also passed, directing the new Publishing Committee to prepare and print a brief and comprehensive statement of the Constitution of this, the Parent Tract Society, and of its relations to the National Society. This looks a little like indepeudent action.

For the Chronicle.

JUNE.—June, balmy, smiling, vernal June is here to usher in the Summer months, but not as we are accustomed to look on this month: the cold, dreary weather of the two or three weeks preceding has much retarded the progress of vegetation. Whitsunday came, and passed, but still, so far from being white, the blossoms of our apple-trees, as a general thing, were just peering from the bud. But leaving all things to him who has promised "seed time and harvest still," we are yet somewhat interested as the Summer, comes in in such a cold and uncongenial manner as to make it absolutely necessary to personal comfort to have a fire the last day of May or the first of June. E. M. J.

THE FIRST ARREST.—In Portland, at the Municipal Court, May 3d, Daniel Brock was brought up on complaint of Marshal Ring, that he sold one John Clark a pint and a half of gin, not being authorised to sell under the Statute of 1856. Brock was adjudged guilty and fined five dollars and costs, which he paid and was discharged. This is the first arrest we have seen mentioned in any of the Maine papers under the new law.

☞ By California papers, we notice that Mr. Charles E. Rand, formerly of this city, is appointed one of the delegates to the Republican County Convention, from the third Ward in San Fransisco.

CEMETERIES IN EXETER.—A writer in Exeter News Letter says:

While we rejoice over all signs of improvement in the new sepulchres, we regret to see the decay and neglect which are at work on the old. It seems to us this spot of earth should be dearer to us children of Exeter, than our own hearthstones, and that every token of neglect is as disgraceful to our community, as would be the decay of our houses of worship. There lie buried our fathers and mothers—the brothers and sisters with whom we played in infancy—and all those who in the olden time gave Exeter a prestige and a name. There, after life's fitful hour, they sleep well. Let it not be our reproach that because they have slept long we are losing the memory of those virtues which should make us love to honor even the dust and ashes which was once the abode of their now glorified spirits. This burial-place is owned by the town, and it should be the work of the town to adorn and beautify it with flowers and trees—and above all to see that no sign of neglect about it, should be the reproach of those who are enjoying the blessings transmitted to them by its honorable and beloved occupants.

We copy this, not only as an item of interest respecting Exeter,—but as applicable to the old town burial grounds in this city.

A VERDICT.—The Lowell News of the 23d says:—

The inquest held on the body of William Keyes, found in Merrimac river, Wednesday afternoon, resulted in a verdict that he fell into the river while intoxicated, and was drowned. The evidence before the jury went to show that, after moving that day, Keyes came to the city for a candle, which was found in his pocket. In the neighborhood of eleven o'clock that night, he was in a house on River street, so intoxicated that he staggered. He obtained the candle there. Watchman Freeman testified that about half-past one o'clock that night, while on the corner of Merrimac and Cabot streets, he heard a cry proceeding from the direction of the Merrimac river. He heard it but once, and it appeared as though the person was struggling. The night was dark and rainy, and the wind was east, blowing from the direction where Keyes must have got into the river. Freeman endeavored to ascertain the cause of the cry, but without effect.

Keyes' eyesight was imperfect. He might have fallen and hurt himself, and getting confused, walked off into the river, making the outcry heard by Freeman; or he might have received a blow from some unknown person, though no evidence was shown to that effect. It is quite a noticeable fact that officer Gilman, whose beat is there, said there are 25 places on River street where intoxicating liquors are sold!!

The same paper says:

The police were called yesterday afternoon to quell a row in the cellar on the corner of Merrimac and John streets. They reported the whole crowd drunk, and a promiscuous fight in progress. One of them named Newell Wadleigh was locked up. This cellar is reported as a very bad place. Last night the keeper was locked up for being drunk.

THE UNION OF THE NORTH in the next election appears now very probable. Late events have served to bury political differences, and meetings, like that in Boston, where Whigs, Americans, Democrats, and Republicans all meet together, are very certain. The opponents of the present administration are making the most of this crisis; and the Providence Journal pretty well expresses their opinion, when it says: "If, hereafter, and till this question is settled, there is but one party in the north, we deserve to be the plantation slaves of South Carolina." This is an unfavorable political division. We had hoped, whatever party should succeed, that there would be States both north and south in opposition. Whenever politically the north & south shall think they have different interests, as they now are holding different moral and social positions, the days of the Union will be numbered; and never can we justify ourselves to freedom and progress in the world, and never can history justify us with posterity, if, in in our madness and folly, we should overturn and destroy the fabrics of our fathers—the hope of the world. But if the south find a united north against them, they may thank themselves for it. They are fairly driving the non-slaveholding States to the wall, where they must all stand or lie together. And if any men or parties arise to justify or even excuse the outrages which are now being daily perpetrated, and they find themselves overwhelmed by an indignant people, they too may thank themselves for their dishonor and defeat. If affairs go on for another month, as they have for the last, we shall have a more exciting election this fall than the country has ever known; and as in 1840, there was a mixture of all the elements, so will it be again, and in the free States with the same result.—Newburyport Herald.

A memorial has been addressed to the legislature of California by Rev. William Speer, in behalf of the Chinese in that State. The present Chinese population is estimated at nearly 39,000, and although they are subject to gross extortion and injustice, they are industrious, economical and thrifty. They are generally regarded and treated as unwelcome intruders, especially by the miners, who maltreat them and drive them from their claims at will. The government also imposes a capitation tax on entering the country of from $5 to $50 per head, and a mining license of $10 per month, twice the amount paid by other miners. The author of the memorial urges that the Chinese should be justly and kindly treated, not only as a matter of right, but with a view to the trade of China, which may become a cource of great wealth to California.

WASHINGTON, May 31. [Telegraphic Correspondence of the New York Tribune.] Mr. Fogg, the Secretary of the Kansas Commission, arrived in this city last night. He left Leavenworth on Saturday last, when the commission were in session. He fully confirms the accounts of the sacking of Lawrence, and the burning and destruction of property and general pillage; described in the accounts already published.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, commenced its session at Cincinnati on Monday. The papers are full of speculations as to the result, but as yet no report of its organization has been received.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone!

LOCAL.

FOURTH OF JULY.—We are requested to state that a meeting of those in favor of publicly celebrating the coming Fourth of July, in Portsmouth, will held at Jefferson Hall, this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. It is essential that all interested in the movement, should manifest their interest by being on hand to-night—as on the enthusiasm exhibited here, may depend the decision of the City Council committee in regard to the matter.—"Now or never."

☞ On Saturday night two men stopped a third man in Market street, and demanded his money. This he refused to give up, and the dispute which this occasioned was overheard by one of the assistant Marshals, who with the watchmen went to the rescue.

One of the men ran, and though chased by a watchman, escaped. The other of the rogues also succeeded in escaping after a hard tussle, minus his cap and a part of his coat.

The proposed victim being intoxicated was put in the watch-house for protection.

☞ The City Marshal informs us that the two men who took charge of the supposed thief that tried to enter the house of Mr. Mathes,—were real watchmen;—and that the man whom they took up was a drunken Frenchman, who had been in the Watch House more than once before. He is probably no burglar, but he is a drunken vagrant, and has left the city. If he comes back, he may be sent to the town farm.

We are informed that the Gazette's statement in relation to "three large boys entering the house of Mr. Samuel Ham, on Wednesday evening last," is erroneous. Mr. Ham knew nothing of the matter until it appeared in the papers. G.

GLEN COTTAGE.—By an advertisement in to-day's paper, it will be seen that this finely located cottage is offered for sale. It is situated on the corner of Middle and State streets, near the centre of the city, in an excellent neighborhood, and for a small family who desire a beautiful residence, is one of the best that can be found among us.

☞ As a young man was riding down Congress street on Monday forenoon, his horse shied from fright at the trench dug for the aqueduct, near Mr. Morse's—broke off both shafts, and threw out the driver, who struck upon his head, and was considerably, though not seriously injured.

A couple of gentlemen were riding through the streets in a buggy, when one of the breeching-hooks broke—and the carriage striking the horse, caused him to increase his speed to rather a dangerous degree. The driver held on like a man, and finally drew his horse up safe, with but little damage done except the breaking of an axle. We think the best way, at such times, is to stick to the craft, especially when there is no chance to jump out!

☞ Capt. Clark, of the Exchange Saloon, under the Chronicle office, has just fitted up his store in good style for the summer trade; and is always ready with a good stock of fruits, confectionary, cakes, pies, &c., to furnish refreshments which will cheer the inner man, without depressing afterwards. The Capt. is strong on temperance, and furnishes nothing stronger than mead, or his "royal pop" beer. Fall into the ranks!

P. S. & P. RAILROAD.—The Annual meeting of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, was held at North Berwick on Monday. A large number of stockholders from Salem, Lynn, &c., attended, taking advantage of the occasion to enjoy a free ride and free lunch.

The Annual report which was read, exhibited a highly satisfactory condition of the road. After considerable discussion by Messrs. Sturgis of Boston, Chase of Salem, and Hackett of this city, a Committee, consisting of William Sturgis of Boston, Stephen A. Chase of Salem, and C. S. Toppan of Portsmouth, were appointed to examine into the condition of the Road and its management, and report at the next annual meeting any improvement which they may judge beneficial in the management of the Road.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors:—

Ichabod Goodwin,	John Howe,
James Hayward,	Thomas West,
Josiah Calef,	Albert Thorndike,
Charles E. Barrett.

A GOOD HIT.—We find the following in an Ohio paper: "Yesterday the Senate passed a bill imposing penalties of from five to fifty dollars upon distilleries who should permit their hog pens to become so unclean as to be offensive in their vicinity. When the bill was upon its passage, Mr. Brown remarked he must be permitted to express his surprise that the Legislature should attempt to remove the lesser nuisance—the hog pens, while they permitted the distillery to remain!"

NEW YORK, June 1.—From Nicaragua.—The steamship Orizaba arrived here to-day from San Juan with 450 passengers from California, brought down by the Sierra Nevada.

Quiet seems to be thoroughly restored in Nicaragua, the Costa Ricans having evacuated the country without risking another battle. President Mora left with his staff on the 26th April, and his army followed almost immediately.

The cholera had made sad havoc in the ranks of the Costa Rican army.

Gen. Walker landed at Virgin Bay on the 39th April, only a few hours after the last detachment of the enemy had left.

The agents and other parties in the interest of the old Transit Company aided the Costa Ricans in their invasion.

Gen. Walker is in good health, and the Nicaragua army is generally in good condition, excepting at Granada, where the fever had been very severe, and several Americans had fallen victims to it. Gen. Jaie Walker, brother to the General, died on the 15th at Massaya.

Advices at Granada from Costa Rica intimate that that country is full of internal commotion and that there is a prospect of the overthrow of Gen. Mora. It is stated that of the 3000 men he took with him for the invasion of Nicaragua only 1200 returned—the rest having died from cholera or in the battle.

The elections were being held in Nicaragua, and it was considered certain that Rivas would be reelected President.

The British frigate Eurydice and steamer Hercules were at San Juan del Norte, but made no opposition to the landing of the passengers.

MEETING AT CONCORD.—A dispatch from Concord to the Boston Traveller, describes an Indignation meeting in Concord, which is quite radical in its proceedings,—as follows:

A large and enthusiastic indignation meeting was held in this place on Saturday evening. Addresses were made by Hon. Thomas P. Treadwell, H. A. Bellows, Esq., Sylvester Dana, Esq., Rev. John H. Moore, and S. P. Jenerson, Esq. A series of strong resolutions were unanimously adopted, denouncing the brutal assault upon Senator Sumner; urging the expulsion of Brooks from the House; condemning the late outrages in Kansas; expressing sympathy for the free State settlers; attributing the outrages in Washington and Kansas to the insatiable and grasping power of slavery—and calling upon all to combine to resist its influence and aggression, and effect its extirpation from al National Territory.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN.—The N. H. Telegraph says:

A somewhat distinguished politician of the pro-slavery stamp, from New Hampshire, was in Washington, when that valuable sprig of of Southern chivalry, Brooks, struck down with a huge bludgeon, without notice, an unarmed man. He met Brooks after the outrage and told him that by his act he had made two heroes—one of himself at the South, and one of Charles Sumner at the North—that if Charles Sumner was returned to the Senate by Massachusetts, he might thank himself for it—and that if he should be President of the United States, he might take the glory of it equally to himself.

MRS. PARTINGTON ON FEEDERS.—The New York Mirror's paragraph, stating that the Ericsson took out to England one of Hoe's six-cylinder presses and six men as feeders, met Mrs. Partington's ear as she sat at her work. "Well," said the dame, "they have sent a good many feeders over here, and it is nothing but right if we send them a few back again. But I hope there will be enough for 'em to feed on. It would be dreadful if they eat everything up before the feeders get there, as they did when they had the expedition in the Christian Parish in London, that Mr. Riddle was the commissionary about. Feeders, indeed!" mused the old dame, "two or three of 'em, only, I dessay, but see how the feeders come over here, devouring our flesh pots like the low curses in Egypt, that we read of. But!"—and that but was a pleasant one, and a smile as warm as the May sun accompanied it, that melted the ice of her first words,—"let 'em come, God help 'em; as the man said about the fly; there's room enough in the world for all of us, and not be porpoises either." She went on with her knitting, satisfied that she had said something, and the satisfaction was contagious, for her smile lit up the old files in the corner till they seemed bound with red morrocco, and Lion crowded a slipper half way down his throat to prevent laughing outright.—Evening Gazette.

THE POST WAR.—We understand that Mr. Charles Robinson has been summoned, on demand of Mayor Jenness, to appear before the Police Court on Monday morning next, to show cause why that post should not be removed. On Tuesday next Messrs. Grant and Foot, police officers, will be brought before the same court for assault upon, and false imprisonment of Kelley and Donovan. The actions of Mr. Robinson against the city for larceny of posts and chains, damages, &c., will be tried at the fall term of the Court of Common Pleas.—Ballot.

AWFUL.—On the night of the 12th ultimo, the house of Mr. Cunningham, in the township of Equessing, County of Halton, was totally destroyed by fire, and horrible to relate, his wife perished in the conflagration, nothing afterwards being found of her but a few bones and the heart. When the fire was discovered, the neighbors hurried to the spot, and found Cunningham behind the door in a state of intoxication. He was dragged out, and said his wife had gone to some of the neighbors, but the poor woman, appears to have been unable to help herself for the same cause as her husband. An inquest was held, but nothing elicited further than the belief that both had been intoxicated at the time of he fire.—Berlin Chron.

JESUITISM.

THE CATHOLIC LETTERS,
By E. Haskett Derby, Esq.
In one volume, 12mo. Price 75 cents.

These letters, covering the whole Catholic question, are, without doubt, the most able and learned resume of this subject ever given to the world.

The arguments and the conclusions are masterly and irresistible, and strange as it may seem for an eminent lawyer to leave Blackstone and Coke, and, for a time, bend the whole energies of his mind, with that keen sagacity peculiar to the legal profession, to an exhausting research among the tomes of the Fathers of Theology; still, the service which he has rendered to the cause of truth, and the fact that his labors resulted in changing for life the course of a beloved kinsman who would otherwise have joined the Church of Rome, will ever be a cause for gratitude.

One of the merits of this book is a sys-tified review of Bunsen, Howson, Conybrare, Milner, and other modern writers, and a well-digested argument on the planting of the Church in Britain by St. Paul before the Roman Pontificate was founded.

Rev. T. Peabody, in a note to Mr. Derby, after a careful reading of proof-sheets, uses the following language:

Your main argument, it seems to me, is to the point, and overwhelmingly conclusive. I hope, and do not doubt, that it will do much good, while it is honorable to yourself, both as a parent and a scholar.

We believe this work is destined to become
A TEXT-BOOK FOR PROTESTANTS,

28 WINTER ST.
VERY, VERY, CHEAP,
ADAMS'
WAREROOMS.

Owing to the continual demand all through the past season for their peculiarly easy fitting CORSETS, they have been induced to order largely, and now would offer the French, English and German Corsets at unprecedented low prices, together with all the beautiful varieties of Mrs. ADAMS' own French made Bodices, which are now too well-known and appreciated to need comment. It being the intention of Mrs. A. to sell all the Corsets that are to be sold in Boston this spring, owing to the prices, she would beg that ladies will bear in mind that 28 WINTER STREET is the only place where Mrs. Adams is to be found, it being the impression with some persons that she still has a store, or Corset Warerooms, in her old neighborhood; her desire is to guard her customers from such a mistake.

Inquire of the Boston or New-York Customs, who is the most extensive importer of Corsets. They will tell you GEO. W. ADAMS, of 28 WINTER STREET. This establishment is conducted on most liberally low price principles, and is at all times posted and amply supplied with every style of Bodice, Jacket or Corset in vogue. One or the other of this House is in Europe conducting the manufacturing and shipping the goods to this country—thus facilities affording the means to sell much less than others in the business, together with a determination to keep the lead by disposing of low and high priced goods at a very fraction of profit. It is well-known that Mrs. Adams has long been at the head of her profession, having had during thirty years much experience and opportunity for cultivating business talent in the best French and English schools; also, she being the first woman patentee in America. The celebrated ADAMS' PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER, so justly pronounced by Sir Astley Cooper and Sir James Clark, as the cleverest thing of its kind, is her own invention. Those in need of this article will please make personal application as above.

For sale the FRENCH PATENT WERLEY CORSET, of the Boston Agent, as above.

Dealers can be supplied with Mrs. Adams' French Busts for the exhibition of Corsets. They may also be furnished with her French metallic cuts, for advertising.

THE OLIGARCHY.

An oligarchy is more corrupt than an aristocracy. And, therefore, Russian aristocrats speak reproachfully of our Southern slavery. The Russian serfs, although oppressed by heavy taxes, enjoy rights, which the nobility dare not invade, and by the act of enlisting in the army they become free. The condition of the serfs is far preferable to that of the white masses, generally, in our slave states; for they enjoy a portion of the fruits of their labor, and cannot, without their consent, be removed from the soil they cultivate.

There is no aristocracy on earth, of which history has a record, more depraved, than the oligarchy which has grown up in this republic, and which is now gradually undermining the foundations of our free institutions. It has rendered itself powerful in the government by a unity of sentiment and action, as well as by threats, in times past, to dissolve the Union, unless its purposes should be carried into execution. The North, in consequence of internal party divisions, fomented by southern statesmen, have generally yielded a passive submission to southern dictation, and would, do so at the present crisis, were it not apparent to all enlightened men, that by yielding now to the imperious demands of the oligarchists, we should invest them with the absolute political control of the government, which would be virtually surrendering up the liberties of the country. Should they be suffered once to gain a numerical majority of the States—then slavery would be paramount—its empire would be indefinitely extended—and nothing short of a sanguinary revolution or civil war could reinstate liberty.

At this moment we are threatened with civil war, unless the demands of the oligarchy shall be complied with; unless the vast central regions of North America shall be opened to the leprosy of slavery. We trust that every friend to civil and political freedom in the North, regardless of past political differences, will manfully resolve that Kansas shall be free. This is the period upon which the momentous question, whether slavery or freedom shall triumph, will turn. To open that region to slavery, would be, virtually, to surrender the citadel of liberty into the hands of the most unprincipled, corrupt, and tyrannical oligarchy that ever disgraced the earth. This point is as clear as noonday light. The solemn issue is before us, and we must decide it. The numerical strength—the physical power, is with the North. We cannot believe that they will prove degenerate sons of patriot sires. Our rights and privileges are vastly more involved in the decision than they were in respect to the grave matters presented at the commencement of the American Revolution.

A Senator of the United States, is struck downby a cowardly assassin, by a preconcert of oligarchists, for fearlessly proclaiming to the world, truths which cannot be refuted. By that outrage, it was intended, in violation of the constitution, to strike down freedom of speech. Freemen will never submit to that. It electrifies the whole North. It excites a just and holy indignation. But it is palliated or justified by the profligate oligarchy—and a few—very few—recreant northern dough-faces. The latter will soon be held in deeper detestation than were the tories of the revolution.

We shall have troublesome times. We shall be called upon to gird on our political, if not our military armor. Should the 300,000 slaveholders involve the North in civil war, they would seal their own doom, and their unholy institution also. They would have a feeble support in their own States, and should they invade free soil, they could not stand against the powerful arm of the North. The North is pacific. We have no fears of civil war, unless the supporters of slavery should have the temerity to commence it in Kansas. Crushed it soon would be. But the blood of freemen there would not crimson the ground, unless the blood also of the ruffian invaders should expiate their crimes. Woe to the instigators of such a fratricidal contest! Alarming as are the present indications, we yet hope that the counsels of wisdom will be regarded.

But the slaveholders will not take counsel of wisdom, but only of their fears. The latter ought to be sufficient to check the rash, headlong course which they now seem to be adopting. We now call to mind the prediction of Mr. Jefferson, in substance, that slavery must be terminated by pacific measures, or else by blood. "Pride goeth before destruction; and a haughty spirit before a fall."

T.

LIQUOR IN THE TROPICS.—A writer in one of the morning papers gives his experience as to the necessity of using liquors while crossing the Isthmus. "I made the journey," he says, "in the commencement of the fever season, having to stop at Chagres (as bad as Aspinwall, and near by,) two nights and days. From previous statements, I feared the deadly miasma. My companions carried with them liquors to fortify themselves against fever, and strongly urged me to do likewise.—This I declind, and we started up the river Chagres. At first the water tasted saltish, and of course was, as the natives say, mucha marla—no good. My companions said: 'You will have to use our good brandy yet; but I preferred an orange, which I found much more cooling than their fire-water. The natives gathered sugar-cane, and we all liked it much. I bathed every day in fresh or salt water, and after living near two months on the Isthmus, left it a stout, healthy, and happy man. I should say that I rose early and walked three or four miles every day (but not in the heat of the day, as many did), taking only one meal of meat daily, with abundance of fruits and vegetables. My experience teaches me, after crossing the Isthmus in the dry and wet seasons, in sickness and health, that liquors, in all cases, only add to the troubles of the traveler. Providence has kindly placed at hand the cooling cocoa-nut milk, the orange, the sugar-cane, tamarinds, etc.; and if we do not eat too much of these in the heat of the day, but follow the example of the simple and healthy natives, we shall enjoy better health, with the prospect of again meeting those whom we love, and for whom we are thus encouncering dangers."

The simple truth about alcohol is, that it is inimical to the human system, always and everywhere, but most inimical just when the uninformed multitude are most inclined to take it. It is bad in a temperate climate; it is worse in a tropical. It is bad when we are well; it is worse when we are sick. It is bad when we are sheltered; worse when we are exposed. It is bad for digestion; it is worse for indigestion. It should be shunned at all times, but never so resolutely as when everybody says it is indispensable.—Life Illustrated.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1856.

GENERAL COURT.

Our State legislature meets in Concord this day, for organization, and for the transaction of the annual business. We presume but little public legislation will be called for in any quarter;—and should think, as charters were liberally granted last year to numerous corporations, there would not be many now to apply.

The late stirring political events, in Washington and Kansas, will doubtless receive due attention, so far as they affect our interests.

Henry Green, a free negro of respectability, living in Baltimore, has recently been tried for larceny and during the trial it came out, that having married a slave woman many years ago, he purchased her, but never gave her freedom—consequently their children were his slaves. Last year he sold two of his sons, 18 and 20 years of age, to a slave dealer, for $1000 each, and they were shipped to Louisiana. He was himself born a slave, but was manumitted when young.

Remarkably respectable, in that part of the country where some white fathers sell their sons:—but when the paragraph gets down east, the idea of such respectability passes from the region of the sublime into that of the ridiculous! A respectable negro committing larceny and selling his children! Almost equal to an amiable bully, and a chivalrous assassin.

Thirdly, Herbert killed Keating; and lastly Brooks & Co. assaulted Sumner.

These criminals were all born in the Southern States,—and all attempt to carry out plantation usages in their intercourse with better men.

GEN. JAMES W. NYE.—This gentleman whose speech at the Webster dinner at the Revere House a few weeks since, will be remembered by those present, addressed a meeting in New Jersey on Wednesday last, and after stating that he voted for President Pierce in the Democratic Convention which nominated him, and also supported him at the polls, referred to the President in the following words:

Where, he would ask, slept the honor and humanity of President Pierce, who had not either visited the sick room of Charles Sumner, or sent to inquire for him? Neither had a single member of his Cabinet; while the Foreign Ministers, moved by a common humanity, had been to pour oil into his wounds. [Great Cheers.]—Boston Trans.

On the 25th of April, Ex-Senator Atchison wrote to South Carolina, as follows:—

I would not be at all surprised if the question in KANSAS came to an immediate and bloody issue. The Abolitionists still commit crimes and set the laws at defiance. They have, within a few days past, assassinated the Sheriff of Douglas county, whilst in the discharge of his official duty. Three companies of the United States troops have been called for by the Governor and marched to the scene of action. We have not yet heard the result, but I fear nothing will be done by the United States troops; the border ruffians alone can settle the matter satisfactorily.—Border justice is what the Abolitionists must have.

On the 21st of May, that same assassinated Sheriff Jones, after every writ had been served without resistance, was cannonading Lawrence! It requires a considerable fund of credulity to believe that the assassination of Jones was any thing but a sheer pretence, acted off by the scoundrels, to cover their nefarious plans.

The report that Mr. Herbert had given a house and an annuity to Mrs. Keating, whose husband he killed in Washington, is contradicted.—Administration paper.

No sir, he did not do that, but true to his bully instinct, he vindicated the assault upon Mr. Sumner.—Charlestown Adv.

We had no idea that the murderer would pay any thing—but it is quite natural he should vindicate his brother criminal.

Mr. George Thompson, of Paterson, N. J., has within a few days lost four children, aged respectively two years and nine months, five, seven, and nine years, by scarlet fever.

The Emperor Napoleon has invited any industrious Chinese, who may be expelled from California, to take refuge in Tahiti, where they will find a welcome and employment.

THE general state of the system, at this season of the year, is often deranged and weakened by changes in the atmosphere. Arnold's Globules and Vital Fluid gives vitality and strength at once, by furnishing the requisite chemical elements.

"No smoking allowed within or without this building."

All the members of the diplomatic corps have called on Mr. Sumner, but not one member or friend of the Administration, with the single honorable exception of Gen. Case.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

The National Convention of the Democratic party, assembled in Cincinnati at noon on Monday. Samuel Medary was unanimously chosen temporary chairman.

While the call was being read by Mr. English of Indiana, a sudden uproar arose at the door of the hall, and a crowd rushed into the room, fighting and wrangling in the greatest confusion. This crowd proved to be the Benton delegation from Missouri, resolved to force their entrance by violence. They knocked down the doorkeeper and rushed in, headed by Ex-Governor Price. For a few moments a scene of confusion, impossible to describe, ensued. Members jumped upon their chairs, and it seemed as though a serious riot was about to take place. After a while, however, quiet was restored, and the reading of the call proceeded.

New York also appeared with two sets, but as the committee could not decide which was entitled to admission, they declined to give tickets to either, unless they arrange among themselves, as was done in the case of the Mississippi delegation. Both delegations from New York are now admitted.

Mr. Medary, on taking the chair, commented on the progress of Democracy, and believed that occasional storms in the party were calculated to purify the atmosphere. He thought they were destined to triumph despite temporary obstacles.

A committee on credentials was appointed.

As soon as the committee was announced, Mr. Richardson of Illinois rose and said he did not wish to interfere with the quarrels of states, but the convention owed to itself, to its dignity and propriety, that no person should be allowed to force an entrance into this hall over the power of the doorkeeper.—It should protect itself from violence and insult.

Mr. Hall of Missouri, one of the delegates who had forced the door, arose to speak, but the chairman refused to recognize him, saying the gentleman (Mr. Hall) must present his grievances to the Committee on Credentials.

The Missouri delegations withdrew.

Judge Wilson of Iowa opposed the resolution, on the ground that the last Baltimore Convention was overridden by outside pressure, and all fair representation of states done away with.

The Committee on Organization was then appointed.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Committee on Organization to report rules to govern the Convention.

A committee was appointed to construct a platform; and after some other preliminary business, the convention adjourned to Tuesday.

The Boston Herald publishes a special dispatch as follows:—

The politicians here piously devoted Sunday to laborious service, in behalf of their beloved country. There was a great amount of political preaching services; held in all the principal hotels of the city.

CINCINNATI, May 3.—The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following names:

President—John E. Ward of Georgia.

Vice Presidents—Jona. Smith, Me.; C. L. Woodbury, N. H; J. P. Kidder, Vt.; H. H. Childs, Mass.; F. W. Gardner, R. I.; S. G. Pratt, Conn.; G. W. Belden, O.; W. E. Crofford, Mich.; Wm. Rochill, Ind.; J. E. Matterson, Ill.; H. F. Walling, Ia.; Nelson Dewey, Wis. and one from each of the other States.

Thirty-one Secretaries were also reported.

The report of the Committee was adopted.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Every one here thought, when the stand taken by Senator Wilson was made known, that a rencontre would be the immediate consequence. The sequel to the correspondence should therefore be published. Col. Lane called on Mr. Wilson on Friday morning, after the receipt of Mr. Wilson's reply, and assured him from Mr. Brooks that no assault upon him was contemplated, and that he and his friends might disarm. Mr. Wilson accepted these assurances, and appeared in the evening without arms and without attendants. The whole affair is over so far as those two are concerned.

[We should place no sort of confidence in any assurance of such a scoundrel or of his associates.]

P. S.—Mr. Wilson, now in Boston, publishes a card, wherein he says,

"Gen. Lane did not call upon me on Friday; he never assured me that an assault would not be made; I never expressed to him my satisfaction."

In other words, the whole despatch is merely a lying apology for Brooks, who had threatened to attack Wilson, but, afraid of resistance, sneaked out of sight, and now his friends, with the aid of the telegraph, try to make him appear magnanimous.

At the late term of the superior court for New Hanover county, N. C., the grand jury made the following presentment:—

"That the practice of certain storekeepers, who sell liquor by the quart or greater quantity, and permit the purchasers thereof to leave it in their shops, to be drank by them or their friends, by the glass or otherwise, is an evil, calculated to prejudice the interests of retailers, who are compelled to take out licenses at great expense, and is likely—if permitted to be continued—to result in a general evasion of license law, to the great injury of the sobriety and peace of the community, and of the income of the town and county."

SEVERE SENTENCE.—We are informed by letters received in this city, that the three men who were arrested in Talcahuano, for setting fire to the ship George Washington of this port, (before reported burned) received one hundred lashes each, and sentenced to the chain gang for thirty years.—New Bedford Standard.

Blitz had a bright little fellow on the stand to assist him in the experiments. 'Sir,' said the Signor, 'do you think I could put the twenty-five cent piece, which the lady holds, into your coat pocket?' 'No,' said the boy confidently. 'Think not?' 'I know you couldn't,' said the little fellow with great firmness. 'Why not?' 'Cause the pocket is all torn out!'

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

☞ The Citizens' Meeting held last evening at Jefferson Hall to make arrangements for celebrating the Fourth of July adjourned to this evening, at the Common Council Room.

SAVE WOOD, AND BE COMFORTABLE.—Gen. J. G. Hadley, of the Piscataqua House in this city, has made successful trial of a patent Portable Oven, manufactured by Messrs. Blodgett & Sweet, of Burlington, Vt. It is constructed of galvanized iron, on the double principle of a refrigerator; and works to a charm—requiring but little fuel, to cook a large quantity of food in the best manner, and throwing off but very little heat into the room. These ovens are made of seven different sizes, for use in families or hotels; at prices from $16 to $100. One may be seen in operation at the Piscataqua House. Gen. Hadley is the agent in this city. We should judge the article well worthy of examination.

WINKERS.—Many owners and drivers of horses have, of late years, come to believe that "blinders" are not more essential to the rig of a horse in harness, than to the same horse when used under the saddle, or to an ox. The excuses for the toleration of this old barbarous and ridiculous custom, of "blinding" horses,—such as preventing them from being skittish, making them look better, &c,—have been proved to be all moonshine; and now-a-days many horses may be seen, everywhere, which are allowed to use the eyes nature furnished them for that purpose. But, after all, there are very many who still cling to the old appendage, and will retain the Winker. To all such, we would recommend that they try Boyd's patent Winkers, and they will never again torture a horse with the old-fashioned flat winker again. The new winkers are handsomer, and answer every possible purpose of the old, except the chance of injuring the eye or head of the horse that wears them. Mr. Larrabee, at his harness establishment near the post-office, is proprietor of the right to manufacture and sell the new patent article in this city and county.

☞ The Ladies of Hampton give a social Levee at the old Conngregational Meeting House this (Wednesday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock. Tickets 15 cents. Music, addresses, refreshments, &c., may attract some from a distance, should the evening be pleasant.

LATEST FROM KANSAS.

From Leavenworth City, May 28, we learn that the border ruffians, for what reason we do not see stated—appointed a Committee of Vigilance to attack Leavenworth, and let no Free State man pass, and determined to make lawless arrests of obnoxious parties.

A company of men, armed with muskets and bayonets, (US arms) have been parading all the afternoon making arrests. They took prisoners a Clerk of the Commission of Congress, named Conway, and two witnesses that had been subpenaed, Warren Wilkes of S. C. headed the party. Moore, one of the murderers of Brown, helped to make the arrests.

The two witnesses were arrested while talking with Mr. Sherman. Sherman asked if it was by legal process they had taken one of the clerks of the Commision. Wilkes said it was not—that he had no legal authority, but he should arrest the men down on his list.

A despatch from Topeka, 25th, says:

The U. S. District Court has adjourned till the second Monday in September. Judge Lecompton refused to admit Messrs Robinson, Smith, Deitzler, Brown and Jenkins, to bail, and they will be held prisoners by the Marshal.

It is estimated that the loss sustained by citizens of Lawrence by the recent attack will amount to $100,000.

A letter, received at Middleton, Conn. dated Lawrence, K. T., May 22, from Mitchell, states that Dr. Root and himself are alive.—They were fired at and arrested, but are now discharged.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

QUEBEC, June 3.

The propeller Indian, from Liverpool 21st ult, arrived last night.

Liverpool Market, 20th.—Cotton—demand limited. Corn—business is far from large; sales unimportant. Wheat tends downward, and is 3 a 6d lower. Flour—sales limited, and a decline of 6d a 1s per brl has taken place.

Political news unimportant.

The Central American question excites some attention in the British Parliament.—The Earl of Clarendon said that many requests had been made for British protection of the governments in that country. Her Majesty's government would be very glad if Walker's enterprises were not carried further.—But they again and again said that with the affairs of Central America they had determined to have nothing to do, and that all their action would be limited to sending just that sufficient naval force to the coast of South America, which would be adequate for the protection of British interests and British propeety.

[This does not look like any trouble in that quarter.]

The evacuation of the Turkish territory by the troops of the Allies will be completed in six months.

SUICIDE.—Last Friday, a woman named Eva Sessler, wife of Christian Sessler, who resides on Tremont street, Boston, committed suicide. She had been laboring under insanity for some time past, probably occasioned by the loss of a child.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, June 2.

SENATE.—Mr. Bright being absent, Mr. Stuart presided. He laid before the Senate a message from the President in relation to Central America, which has already been published.

A resolution was adopted, that when the Senate adjourns on Thursday next it be to the following Monday.

The presiding officer laid before the Senate a letter from Mr. Brooks to Mr. Bright, in which he disclaims any intention of offending against the privileges of the Senate by his assault on Mr. Sumner, but says he felt bound to chastise Mr. Sumner for the insult to his state and to his relative, and having sought him in vain elsewhere, he deemed it proper to inflict that punishment in the Senate. He did not think he was committing any breach of privilege.

The letter was read, laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Senate then adjourned to Thursday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Campbell of Ohio, from the Select Committee on the assault on Mr. Sumner by Mr. Brooks, made a report, concluding as follows:—

Whereas, The Senate of the United States have transmitted to this House a message, complaining that Preston S. Brooks, a Representative from South Carolina, committed upon the person of Charles Sumner, a Senator from the state of Massachusetts, while seated at his desk in the Senate, after the adjournment of the 22d day of May last, a violent assault which disabled him from attending to his duties in the Senate, and declaring that said assault was a breach of the privileges of that House The Senate have further decided that, inasmuch as the said Preston S. Brooks is a member of this House, they cannot try or punish him for a breach of the privileges; that they cannot proceed further in the case than to make complaint to this House, and that the power to arrest, try and punish, devolves solely on this body, and

Whereas, Upon full investigation, it appears to this House, that the said Preston S. Brooks has been guilty of the assault complained of by the Senate, with the most aggravated circumstances of violence; that the same was a breach of the privileges, not only of the Senate, but of co-ordinate branch of the legislative department of the government, in direct violation of the Constitution of the United States, which declares that Senators and Representatives, for any speech or debate, in either House, shall not be questioned in any other place; and

Whereas, This House is of the opinion that it has the power, and ought to punish the said Preston S. Brooks for the said assault not only as a breach of the privileges of the Senator assailed, and of the Senate and House as declared by the Constitution, but as an act of disorderly behaviour, and

Whereas, It further appears from such investigation that H. A. Edmundson, a Representative from the state of Virginia, and J. M. Keitt, a Representative from South Carolina, some time previous to the assault, were informed that it was the purpose of said Brooks to commit violence upon the person of the said Sumner, for words used by him in debate as a Senator in the Senate of the United States, and took no means to discourage or prevent the same; but on the contrary, anticipating the commission of such violence were present on one or more occasions to witness the same as friends of the assailant therefore,

Resolved, That P. S. Brooks be, and is hereby forthwith expelled from this House as a Representative from the state of South Carolina.

Resolved, That this House hereby declares its disapproprination of the said act of Henry A. Edmundson and Lawrence M. Keitt, in regard to said assault.

Signed by Messrs. Campbell of Ohio, Spencer of New York, and Pennington of New Jersey.

Mr. Howell Cobb presented a minority report, arguing that no breach of privilege, under the Constitution, had been committed and that the House had no power to go beyond the Constitution in deciding that a breach of privilege had been committed.

Both reports were laid upon the table and ordered to be printed. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Election Riot.—There has been an election riot here to-day.—Pistols were used, and an Irishman shot and killed.

During the Municipal election to-day there was considerable fighting. In one precinct a man was dangerously injured. In the seventh ward, the fighting was very sharp and several were slightly injured. In the fourth ward clubs and stones were the order of the day.—We cannot learn that any body has been killed, but it is reported that in the fourth ward the mob, after creating a riot, were dispersed by the police with pistol shots, and that several of the rioters were wounded, though not seriously. The election is very close, but as the returns are not fully counted, we are unable yet to arrive at a correct result.

Another account speaks of a man as dangerously wounded; not killed. As to the fighting, that must be genteel and "respectable" in Washington. The assaults and batteries in the street, are modeled after those in the capitol.

Sewall Patterson, tried and convicted in Belfast, Me., for an assault with intent to kill Mrs. Jane Green, was committed to jail on Wednesday of last week, and at 8 o'clock the next morning he escaped therefrom, knocked the jailor down and leaving rapidly for the woods. He had not been retaken at last accounts. He had been sentenced to eight years confinement in the State Prison.

FREEDOM AT THE SOUTH.—The Canton Commonwealth, (Miss.,) says that Charles Wheelock, a plasterer by trade, was tarred and feathered in that place on the 19th ult., and then ordered to leave the State, for the crime of tampering with slaves and propagating abolitionism.

The twentieth year, some people say, is always too cold to raise corn. It was a very cold season in 1816, and so it was in 1836; and they imagine it will be in 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "devoted by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be devoted by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within ten miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same reasoning is good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands is carried either in wagons or uninterrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to this extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, of course, and their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $6 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $120 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the money he has earned money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, breaking, cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a3 6m

JOSIAH QUINCY, SEN.

This venerable man, an ex-mayor of Boston, now in his 85th year, was invited to join in the Unitarian Festival at Boston, last week, but declined, in a letter, which contains the following passages.

My mind is in no state to receive pleasure from social scenes and friendly intercourse.—I can think or speak of nothing but of the outrages of the slaveholders at Kansas, and the outrages of slaveholders at Washington—outrages, which, if not met in the spirit of our fathers of the revolution, (and I see no sign that they will be)—our liberties are but a name, and our Union proves a curse. These outrages constitute a series of iniquitously contrived, well-connected, compact tissues, of which

The fugitive slave law was the first;

The repeal of the Missouri compromise, the second;

The invasion of Kansas, and the taking the ballot-boxes by storm, by a mob of slaveholders, the third;

The encouragement of this sacrilegious foray against the right of free suffrage, and the ultimate support of it by the National Executive and military arm, the fourth;

The hostile irruption of two members of Congress, into the Senate chamber of the United States, openly armed with deadly bludgeons, and probably secretly, according to the habits of their breed, with bowie knives and revolvers, and there prostrating on the floor with their bludgeons a Senator of the United States, sitting peaceably in his seat, and from his position incapable of defence, inflicting upon him blows, until he sunk, senseless, under them, and which, if they do not prove mortal, it was not for want of malignant intent in the cowardly assassins—and all this for words publicly spoken the Senate, in the course of debate, allowed by its presiding officer to be spoken, and exceeding not one hair's breadth any line of truth or duty.—This is the fifth and the climax of this series of outrages, unparalleled, nefarious, and brutal.

Such are the facts—such are the outrages—a series of them, which ought to ring through every city and field, through every palace and cottage of the free States—which ought to fly, like the fiery cross on the highlands of Scotland, over the mountains and through the valleys of the free States, startling the sleeping, rousing the thoughtless, uniting the free clans, and enkindling whatever glimmering spark yet remains of the feeling and spirit, which, in former times, entitled the inhabitants of the free States to the character of patriots, and fearless, far seeing statesmen. But alas! sir, I see no principle of vitality in what is called freedom in these times. I see divisions enough, and parties enough; I see every whim setting up for itself and calling and expecting all the rest of the world to follow in its train. But of a thoughtful, concentrated, determined principle of united action, suited to the occasion, which, spurning the desire of place and hope of emolument, and the hankering for office, and actuated solely for the advance of public good and general welfare, I see nothing. The palsy of death rests on the spirit of freedom in the so called "free States."

In my opinion, it is time to speak on the house-top, what every man who is worthy of of the name of freeman utters in his chamber and feels in his heart. By a series of corruption, intrigue and cunning, bribing the high by appointments of State, the low by hope of emolument; playing between the parties of the free States, and counteracting one by the other; by flattering the vain, paying the mean, and rewarding the subservient, the slaveholders have, in the course of fifty years, usurped the whole constitutional powers of the Union, have possessed themselves of the executive chair, of the halls of Congress, of the national courts of justice and of the military arm, leaving nothing of hope to the spirit of freedom in the free States, but public speech in the legislature and the ballot box. The one a slaveholder's mob is crushing in Kansas, the other a deputation from the slaveholders of the House of Representatives attempted to crush by a slaveholder's bludgeon.

SPIRITUALISM EXPLAINED.—A gentleman of this city, related to us, a few days since, the following facts. Himself and family had been for a long time a good deal annoyed by the ringing of the front door bell. This always occurred just as they were sitting down to dinner. The servant girl, the members of the family and himself, would go to the front door and the back door, but no person "or any other creature" that could pull a bell wire could be seen. The bell did not always ring at the dinner hour, but never rang at any other time unless some caller rang it. The matter passed on in this way until the family began to think that "the spirits had actually taken up their abode with them." They were not, however, quite willing "to give it up so." One day when our informant had returned from his business to his home for his dinner, not a little hungry, and was pulling up his chair to the table, "jingle, jingle, jingle," went the bell, and down went the chair upon the floor, which only made the bell ring the louder. He now commenced with new vigor, and a desperate resolution to solve the mystery. "Sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish," he would find out who rang the bell. In the course of his search he entered the cellar, and there perched in a spot near the ceiling, was his favorite "pussy cat" pulling away upon the bell wire as if she perfectly understood what she was about! She was enabled to reach the wire by crawling up a board partition, and the board was a good deal worn by her claws in ascending, so often had she been there.—Lynn Bay State.

"IT HAS COME—FIRE!"—On one occasion, during an engagement, Captain Duncan, commanding the Flying Artillery, Gen. Pillow, in his usual solemn manner, called out to his officer, "Captain Duncan—fire—the crisis has come!" Duncan' without saying a word turned to his men who were standing by their guns already shotted and primed, and simply called out, "Fire!" The men were slightly surprised at the order—there being no particular object within range, when an old grey headed Irish sergeant stepped up with, "Plaze yer honor, what shall we fire at?" "Fire at the crisis," said Duncan; didn't you near the General say it had come?"

The Hagerstown (Md.) Chronicle states that on Sunday night five slaves belonging to Mr. George Shaffer, of Funkstown, and three of Mr. Claggett's of the same place, decamped for the North. They came to Hagerstown and stole two horses from Mr. Snider's livery stable, and carriage from Mr. John I. Underwood, in which they started at a rapid rate for Pennsylvania.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1856.

RUN INTO THE GROUND.—We have rarely seen any thing more ridiculous, than a late move in favor of Brooks the assassin. The Columbia South Carolinian, in alluding to the public demonstrations in approval of Brooks, uses the following language;

And, to add the crowning glory to the good work, the slaves of Columbia have already a handsome subscription, and will present an appropriate token of their regard to him who has made the first practical issue for their preservation and protection in their rights and enjoyments as the happiest laborers on the face of the globe.

This marvellous piece of folly sickens the Charleston (S. C.) Mercury, which condemns the whole affair, and reproves its authors, in the following fashion.

Was the like of this ever before published in a newspaper in South Carolina? The negroes of Columbia have actually participated in the congratulation of Mr. Brooks, and the South Carolinian lands it as "the crowning glory to the good work!" Now, these meetings in South Carolina to sustain Mr. Brooks, as counter to those at the North, are proper enough. But when, in the capital of the state, slaves are permitted, nay, applauded, and urged to take part in our political movements—to unite in popular demonstrations—to raise subscriptions, and present their tokens of approval to our public men—it is, indeed, a spectacle as disgusting as it is novel. We blush for the state when such things are permitted. If our slaves can publicly congratulate, may they not then publicly condemn?—And if one portion are permitted to lead Mr. Brooks, why may not another, if disposed, sympathise with Mr. Sumner?

According to the Carolinian, the approval of Mr. Brooks's fellow citizens, their congratulations and testimonials, are completely obscured by "the crowning glory" of this negro demonstration! And in the same view, we suppose that the negro deputation—and why should not there be one?—when it arrives in Washington, will take precedence over their masters, while they present to Mr. Brooks their "appropriate token."

Such a proceeding, while it offends every sentiment of Carolina society, is calculated to bring ridicule and disgrace upon the whole movement.

We do not think it disgraces the movement,—for no such disgrace is possible—but it is surely ridiculous to the last degree. Yet it is connected with several grave questions.

The crowning glory of the cowardly assault, is, that is is approved by certain slaves, who "can't take care of themselves," who are "chattels personal," who are of "an inferior race," the "children of Ham, devoted to slavery"—and who therefore we suppose must be the best judges of constitution, law, and constitutional privilege!

They are to present an appropriate token! We suggest a slave whip, as the most appropriate.

And on the whole, we commend their example to the white slaves of the North, who take the same views of freedom, and who like them cower beneath the crack of the driver's whip, and echo the opinions of their masters. The testimonial of these white slaves ought to be the picture of a doughface on his knees, eating dirt to order.

AT Lawrence, Kansas, 14 persons were shot in the last nine days preceeding the 21st inst. When complaint was made to the Marshal of the violence of his men, he replied that he could not restrain them, and did not wish to be held responsible for their acts. Every body must have seen before he begun that such would be the case.

He did not wish to restrain them,—and is probably too mean a person to be responsible at all. The parties really responsible, are the President who commissioned him,—the Secretaries who gave the instructions to him and to Col. Shannon,—Douglas and Atchison who spread the Nebraska net in the first place,—the president who fell into the net when he aided in passing the bill,—and finally every intelligent man in the country who has supported this scheme of villany either first or last.

Ignoramuses and dupes are excused;—they know no better.—But for intelligent men there is no excuse. They are fully responsible.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.—The election at New Orleans has gone for the Americans on city officers.

The fiercely contested election in Washington amounted to this, as we learn by telegraph:—

Magruder, Democrat, was elected Mayor. The vote stands—Magruder 2936, Hill 2904. Four Know Nothings to three Union Aldermen are elected. In the Council the Know Nothings have 12 to 9 Union. Four Know Nothings to three Union Assessors are elected.

The venerable Dr. Dana, now 85 years old, preached at the Harris street church, Newburyport, where he was last settled, on Sunday morning. Though his sight has so failed that he repeats his texts and hymns from memory, his mind retains the vigor of other years, and he is yet one of the most interesting and impressive preachers in the county.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

This body met at the State House in Concord on Wednesday, June 4.

In the Senate, Thomas J. Melvin was elected President. Wm. Burns was the opposing candidate. Vote 7 to 4. Clerks the same as last year.

In the House, Edwin H. Rollins of Concord was elected speaker, by 162 votes. Sam'l Herbert had 147. Scat. 3. This is the relative strength of parties.

John H. Goodale, of Manchester was chosen clerk; and Henry O. Kent of Manchester, assistant clerk. All American Republicans.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

TUESDAY, June 3d, continued.—The Committee on Credentials sat with closed doors, to hear the Missouri contested seat case, and came to a decision to admit the Atchison, or anti-Benton delegates.

A motion to admit the delegates from the District of Columbia to the floor was, after debate, laid on the table.

A motion to give gallery tickets to outsiders was rejected.

The motion to admit the District of Columbia delegates on the floor was again renewed.

Mr. Bauden of Indiana protested against admitting more than two delegates from the District of Columbia. The object of taking the convention from Baltimore was to get clear of Congressional influence. He was opposed, also, to admitting delegates from the District to the galleries without a limit.

Mr. Petit of Indiana also opposed all motions to fill the galleries, even with ladies, but would certainly prefer to see them filled with beings wearing pantaloons than with beings wearing petticoats.

The President declared the motion to lay on the table lost, when a call by states was demanded. The result was—yeas 159, nays 91. So the motion prevailed.

A long and warm debate followed on the admission of outsiders, and several resolutions, having that object in view, were tabled amidst the most dire confusion.

The hall of the Young Men's Democratic Association was offered for the use of the Convention, if the Convention should think it preferable to the one in use.

A delegate from Connecticut moved to except the offer of the hall of the Young Men's Democratic Association. He had been in that hall, and could assure the members that it could hold nearly double the number of persons that this hall held. Several gentlemen with weak voices spoke there last night, and were distinctly heard. He would say, too, that on that occasion the Democracy of Cincinnati, in that hall, showed themselves far more orderly than the Democracy do here. The motion was referred to the Committee of Arrangements, and the Convention took a recess till 4 P. M.

June 3, P. M.

The Committee on Credentials were occupied the whole day in arguments of counsel in the New York delegation dispute, at the close of which the Chairman proposed that both sets of delegates be rejected, unless, waving minor differences, they themselves selected 35 delegates from each side to represent them in the Convention.

Mr. Stevenson of New York, objected to the Hards, because they had shamefully abandoned Franklin Pierce, and made their address the basis of abuse, of the most sacredly Constitutional administration ever known.

Mr. Wiggin of Maine, denounced the Softs as Abolitionists, and contended that their support of the present Administration was no proof that they were not Abolitionists for Pierce had been as favorable to the Abolitionists in some of his acts, as he had been to the South in others.

Mr. George, of New Hampshire, said he would not stand by and hear the glorious and God-like administration of Franklin Pierce abused in that Committee.

Mr. Wiggin retorted and said he was ready to denounce the President, and prove that in his disappointments at the North he had endeavored to nourish abolitionism.

Mr. Telford of Indiana was willing to let in the Hards, for he looked upon the Softs as rotten Abolitionists at heart.

Further discussion ensued, pending which the Committee adjourned till to-morrow, without taking the vote.

June 4th.—The Committee on resolutions reported a motion to adopt the resolutions without debate, which caused much excitement. Virginia opposed the resolution touching foreign affairs, and demanded a vote by States.

A KANSAS ITEM.—The St. Louis Republican publishes an extra of the Kansas Herald, of the 28th ult., which confirms the report telegraphed, of the murder of 8 pro-slavery men on Passowotowmic Creek by a party of Free State men.

The victims were most horribly mutilated. In some instances after their throats had been cut, their legs were chopped off, also their arms, and their eyes gouged out. All the pro-slavery families at Hickory Point were driven off, at the point of the bayonet, and their horses and provisions stolen by the Free State men.

This is another of the stretched stories, like the murder of Sheriff Jones, &c.—The Boston Journal says of it:

[The author of the above lying statement piled on the agony too strong. The alleged mutilation of the bodies is so improbable in itself as to stamp the whole statement as a falsehood got up for effect in Missouri.]

CONGRESS.—On Tuesday and Wednesday, there was no quorum in the House. The Senate was not in Session.

MASONIC.—The Grand R. A. Chapter of N. H., will hold its annual convocation on Monday the 9th inst., at 11 A. M., and the Grand Lodge of N. H., its annual communication on Tuesday the 10th inst., at 10 A. M.—in Concord.

CONTRAST.—While the black slaves of Brooks's district applaud him—the black freemen of Boston hold a meeting of applause and sympathy for Sumner.

NEW ORLEANS, June 2.—Destructive Fire at Baton Rouge.—The east wing of the Louisiana Penitentiary at Baton Rouge was burnt yesterday. Loss $200,000. Nine prisoners escaped.

NEW HAVEN, June 4.—James Dixon was elected U. S. Senator from Connecticut, today, by two votes.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way, the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

Row.—On Tuesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a couple of fellows named James and Geo. Meloon, said to have been rather the worse for liquor, entered the disreputable house kept by a Mrs. Mary A. Broadhurst, on the corner of Water and Mechanic streets.—From some cause, a fight soon ensued, in which James Meloon was stabbed and cut pretty severely, and ejected from the house.—From that time till midnight, the place was the scene of more of a disturbance than we have had in Portsmouth for years. A large crowd collected, said to be from three to five hundred; and the house and contents were considerably damaged by the throwing of stones, clubs, &c., every window being stove in. The police were on the ground, but could not withstand the crowd.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, June 3.

Before Justice Bennett, James Sullivan, for being drunk in the street, was fined $3 and costs taxed at $4.40.

June 4.

Before Justice Odell.—George Meloon complains against Mary A. Broadhurst of Portsmouth, for keeping a common bawdy and disorderly house. She was bound over in the sum of $400 to appear at September court.

James Meloon complains against Wallace Johnson and Mary A Broadhurst, for assault and battery on said James. They were fined $10 each; costs $9.40 to be divided. And to give $100 bonds each, to keep the peace.

☞ On Wednesday afternoon we saw a boat builder's shop on wheels, pass by our office, drawn by a stout team of oxen and bound to the Northward. John Shannon, Esq., being chief engineer.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRITIAN ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, May 28th, it was—

Resolved, that the thanks of this Association be given to Rev. Mr. Holman, for his Anniversary Lecture, delivered on Sunday evening last, May 25th.

Resolved, that the thanks of this Associabe given to the singers who assisted us on Sunday evening last, on the occasion of the Anniversary Lecture. Also to Mr. A. Pearson, for his valuable services on the piano, and as conductor of the music.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Rev. Mr. Holman, and to Mr. Pearson; and published in the Morning Chronicle.

For the Association,
F. W. HAM, Cor. Sec.

For the Chronicle.

GYMNASTICS.—Messrs. Editors:—Do you not consider the project of establishing a gymnasium in Portsmouth, as one that is feasible? There are a great many young men in this city who pursue sedentary avocations, to whom such an institution would be of an incalculable benefit. "But," you say, "cannot they walk?" True, they can walk, but is walking, alone, an exercise that is calculated to bring the various muscles of the body into action, develop the chest, and form a straight, healthy, vigorous man?

We have no Common, where our young men may run, jump, wrestle, play at ball, and other healthy exercises of a like nature, and therefore some of them seek amusement in the hot and dusty ball-room, or in the bowling-alleys, which last, though a beautiful exercise, seems to be indissolubly connected with dram-drinking. Then Mr. Editor, do please inform us, if you think there is any chance for an establishment of this kind in Ports.

There was formerly a small one in Market street, but as the subscription price was merely nominal it has, we believe, died out. H.M.J.

REFRIGERATORS.—The upright refrigerators, advertised by Mr. Carlton, are economical and beautiful articles; good against heat, and equally good against frost; preserving the milk and the meats from sourness, and thereby preserving the tempers of the eaters from the same evil.

THE MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATIC DELEGATION AT WASHINGTON.—We understand that the only members of the Massachusetts delegation to the Democratic Convention, who are known to have been present at the dinner at Willard's Hotel in Washington, in company with Preston S. Brooks, of South Carolina, were Messrs. Chas. G. Greene, Charles H. Peaslee, and Dr. George B. Loring. It is said also, though we are not positive as to the fact, that Mr. James Whitney of this city, and Messrs. Hibbard and George of New Hampshire, were present on that occasion.—Boston Traveller, June 3.

SINGULAR AND SUDDEN DEATH.—At Worcester, on Saturday, Mr. Eliphalet Tenny, of Palmer, while running from the Nashua & Worchester Railroad depot in that place, where he had lost the cars, to overtake them at the Lincoln street depot, stumbled and fell, striking his head upon the ground with such force as to produce almost instant death.

WEATHER.—The late cold snap extended over the greater part of the North. A letter from Middlebury, Vermont, states that "the thermometer this morning (29th) stood at 40°. The mountains in the eastern part of the town are covered with new snow!" It snowed hard at Pittsburg, Pa., on Friday.

NEW YORK STATE.—The Saratogian publishes proceedings of a recent convention at Ballston Spa. Among the resolves are the following:

Resolved, That it is the right and duty of the people, as such, to apply a thorough corrective to the traffic in intoxicating beverage; a more enormous, and intolerable evil than any other by which humanity is oppressed

Whereas the court of appeals has, by its recent misconduct, forfeited public confidence, without which no tribunal should be trusted; and whereas also the legislature has been brought into suspicion, if not disrepute, by an indelicate correspondence between one of its members and a person 'engaged largely in the manufacture of ale,' and by significant reference to 'a very heavy dealer in liquors:'

Resolved, That the only effective remedy against rum-traffic, and its demoralizing, and deadly consequeuces, is such an amendment of the constitution as can control corruption by restoring, promoting and perpetuating temperance; that it may be an organic law of society as it now is of health, happiness and life.

Resolved, That impunity officially allowed to crime and collusive concealment of it, by newspaper publishers, paragraphing the effects of favorable effects of free-trade in alcholic beverages, can betray no person of common sense and observation into belief of that absurd and stupid falsehood.

Resolved, However, that such free-trade is no more injurious to mankind than was an excise-licensed monopoly, which, neither regulating nor diminishing its infamous and murderous traffic, disgraced the 'great and patriotic State of New York,' by legalizing the causes of crime, including its inevitable effects, pauperism of the drunkard's family, delirium tremens and death.

The editor of the Saratogian remarks:

It may not be absolutely necessary to amend the Constitution. Perhaps the evil complained of may be reached without resorting to this extreme measure; but if competent jurists decide that it cannot, we favor even that. The Constitution is not inviolate, nor is it by any means a perfect instrument, and if it is found to present no barrier to an evil so flagrant as the one complained of, the sooner it is done away with the better.

He recommends political action, not by a new party, but action on present parties, in the State election,—and says:

We agree with our friends in their opposition to License. Give us a good Law, or give us none at all. We do not want enactments to protect the traffic which we are seeking to suppress. A license law would put back the triumph of Prohibition at least ten years.

SUPPLY OF CLERGYMEN.—The Boston corespondent of the Journal of Commerce, himself a clergyman, furnishes the following information in his last letter:

The number of pastors lately dismissed in this part of the country is very large. In looking at the religious papers of last week we observed that 11 pastors have either asked a dismission or been dismissed within a few drys in one denomination, the Orthordox Congregational. * * * And yet, lest there should be a rush of ministers from your State and farther West to stand in the shoes of these men, let me say that ministers, without a pastoral charge or permanent employment, have not been so plenty in and around Boston for the 11 last years as now. At a single sort of ministerial exchange in this city they can supply 20 more pulpits almost any Sabbath, than they have pulpits to supply.

HUME THE MEDIUM.—The following paragraph, extracted from a foreign paper, refers, we presume, to Mr. Hume, the noted medium from Springfield, Mass.;

"There has been received into the Catholic chuch at Rome, an American gentleman named Hume, an interesting and gifted young person, whose present religious opinion singularly contrasts with his antecedents, having been in the U. States long celebrated as one of the most succesful mediums for communicating with the invisible world, and obtaining answer by the mysterious spirit rappings."

THE DIFFERENCE.—The Salem Postmaster's paper said last Saturday, that Brooks's assault on Sumner, when rightly understood, would be found a personal, not a party matter,—and that no southern gentleman ever declined a fair discussion of the slavery question.

Per contra, the Washington correspondent of the Newburyport Herald says:—

Though professedly made as a personal matter, to revenge what he regarded as abuse of a relative, such was not the real design or motive for it. Mr. Sumner as an abolitionist, has made himself peculiarly obnoxious by his bold denunciations of wrongs and their supporters, and it was to punish him, and intimidate others, that the assault was made. Weeks ago, a member of Congress informed me, he heard Mr. Brooks say he thought this matter should come to a crisis, that a beginning should be made with these abolitionists. * * * The ground assumed is that men shall not discuss the subject of slavery, under fear of personal violence, that the south will not allow freedom of speech upon this topic to the North. * * * Put the naked question to any one, and he would pronounce it under all circumstances, as it has been pronounced, 'mean, dastardly and cowardly.'—But at the South it is simply thought of an attack upon a marked anti-slavery man, and Brooks has become a lion, a man to be admired. In the discussion in the Senate yesterday, Mr. Butler spoke of him as 'his gallant nephew,' and others spoke of the act in terms of approval—no one from the South condemned it.

INSURRECTION IN HAYTI.—The Traveller publishes a letter received in Boston from Aux Cayes, May 10, which speaks of an insurrection 2000 or 3000 strong which had taken several neighboring posts and was just entering that city, having repulsed the government troops, who were but 560 strong.

JOHN ADAMS.—"The elder Adams, the son of a worthy cobbler."—"Theta"—Transcript, May 17, 1856.

It was perhaps owing to the very fact of his humble parentage that the elder Adams became what he was. I have never seen the story in print, but it legitimately descended to me by oral tradition, having been told my great-grandfather by "the pious Deacon Adams, of the church in Braintree," himself.

The deacon, during a temporary absence, had set John to cutting out the "uppers" for some shoes; but—like the Chinaman, who in making a pair of breeches from a pattern furnished by some prudent captain, had faithfully copied the patches which his wife had put in the seat of the old ones—John had embellished every "upper" he had cut out with the three-cornered hole by which the patterns had hung on their accustomed nail. "I saw," said the deacon, "I couldn't make a shoemaker of him, so I put him to learning."—Boston Traveller.

A DESERTED PALACE.—A correspondent of the Springfield American, who has just been to Iranistan, the late palace seat of P. T. Barnum says:

"A visit to Iranistan, where Barnum so lately lived in all his glory, affords an excellent text for a sermon on the mutability of all mundane affairs. The grounds are neglected; the hot house has received no more care this winter than enough to keep the plants from freezing; the fountains have forgotten to play, and the flowers are coming out amid heaps of leaves and rabbish, which have not yet been cleared away; and a rail bars the entrance to the deserted palace, whose figurative latchstring always used to be out. The robins and sparrows hold undisputed possession of the grounds. Aladdin has lost his place for a time."

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW READY TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north-east, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed out, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every mile added miles the produce of those lands are carried, after in wagons and interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual instalments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

THE MURDER OF KEATING.—The American Celt of last week devotes much space to the murder of Keating by Herbert, member of Congress from California. Referring to the vote by which Herbert was whitewashed the Celt says:—

"Now, in relation to that division on Herbert's case, we have a duty to perform, and we shall not shrink from discharging it. That duty is to announce, in unmistakeable terms to the adopted citizens of Irish birth throughout the country, that the Democratic party in Congress have shamefully deserted their duty, deserted their own professions of impartiality between different classes of citizens, and that they have, as plainly as deeds can speak, declared the murder of a man of Irish blood by one of their colleagues to be a trifle, wholly unworthy even of inquiry. Is the the Democratic party mad or is it only rotten, that it should so belie itself? With half a dozen exceptions, every man of the majority for Keating's murderer is a professed 'Democrat.' What then does it mean? Or can it mean anything but one thing—that an Irishman born, however peaceable or loyal, is only fit to be used by the Democratic party, and when used, set up for a target and shot with impunity. This is what it means, and to this meaning we shall hold the entire party.

We hold Mr. Pierce, Mr. Douglas and Mr. Buchanan responsible for this conduct of their confidants and supporters. They were all in Washington; it was for days the topic of the town; if their friends have taken sides against the victim and against common justice, they are not wholly above suspicion. A few days ago the blood of Thomas Keating was on the hands of but one Democrat; it has spread since then, and it is now upon the souls of the seventy-nine who refused all enquiry. It is on the Democratic party, as a party, and accursed be he who helps such a party into power until that blood is lawfully purged away."

This is pretty strong language, but the Celt concludes with the following:—

"Let them not suppose this matter is going to drop here. One who seldom drops anything has now the matter in hand, and he distinctly warns the Democratic Representatives at Washington, that if justice is not done on the murderer Herbert, they will be held accountable, as the party who interposed to screen and protect him from the penalty of his guilt."

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1856.

For the Chronicle.

"GIVE ME LIBERTY!"

At a public meeting at Cambridge, Prof. Joel Parker late Chief Justice of N. H., said—'Some of my father's blood was shed at Bunker Hill at the beginning of our Revolution, and there is a little more left of the same sort for the commencement of another.' One of the Boston resolutions was in favor of taking a Northern stand in defence of freedom.

The Boston Post of the 4th inst. contains a column upon the subject, and while we give due credit for the condemnation of Brooks's outrage, we cannot adopt the conclusion to which the argument leads. It appeals to our free citizens to submit passively, because they are now in the enjoyment of the social and political rights secured by the Americas revolution, and quotes from Mr. Webster that the Bunker Hill column 'stands upon the Union.'

The conclusion referred to, is this—that the northern sons of liberty should wait patiently, until southern chains are fastened to their limbs. Resistance then would be justifiable, but not before! The Post recites the great causes which led to the Revolutiod. All that has recently happened (conceded to be not strictly justifiable) had better be passed over, rather than excite the passions of the southern gentlemen! Now we believe there is as great cause for alarm and for resisting usurpation as there was at the beginning of the Revolution.

But the column stands upon the Union. Yes—and it will stand where it now stands—should anybody establish even a 'Southern Republic!' But whatever baptismal name they might give it, it would be, in substance, a despotism, or worse, an oligarchy, in accordanc with some present political doctrines. Will the Post openly and explicitly state the objects for which the union and the constitution were formed! If it will frankly say that slavery, its perpetuation, and extension, were the object, or one of the objects, we should then know how to meet the argument. We protest against an argument, however plausible, while through shame the object and the conclusion are concealed from public view.

The purposes for which our experimental system of government were specified—were spread out upon the parchment, for the benefit of the friends of liberty the world over. If the purposes are not to be carried out, a grand mistake was made—and the union, the constitution, and columns pointing to the skies, are of no avail. Will the Post deny this!

Suppose that the writer in the Post had lived about the period of '74, when we were at peace, and some European power hadsent over an armed band (not 'ruffians' or savages) and members of that association had set fire to a village, shot down some of our citizens—assassinated a member of a legislative body, and threatened others—that would not have been war, would it! Suppose the same things to be done by members of our confederacy, or glorious union—that would not be civil war, would it!

'The column,' in its silent eloquence, says—peace—be still—else you may irritate the South! They are 'terrible—very terrible'—as an army with banners!

When Judge Parker and a mighty host who have some regard to the blood shed at Bunker Hill, declare that they will not peaceably submit to having our Representatives and Senators shot down, or assassinated in the Halls of Congress, and lawless invaders destroy peaceful villages and crimson the plains of Kansas with the blood of our own freemen—When such patriotic men begin to think they may be called on to fight the battles of freedom over again, spurning the threats of the tyrannical oppressors of the land—the Post, points his slow, moving finger—☞ at 'the column' and exclaims—'Away with your idea of a revolution—Out upon this nonsense!' So said the tories of the Revolution. T.

☞ On Thursday morning in Concord, were seen the effigies of Franklin Pierce and Preston S. Brooks hanging in front of the State House, eighty feet from the ground, on the Pierce and King liberty pole, erected in 1852. An effigy also of Col. George in another part of the city, bearing an inscription upon his front of "the glorious and godlike administration of Franklin Pierce."

CHICAGO, June 3.—From Kansas.—Our dates from Lawrence are to 25th May. The correspondent of the Tribune sends a list of the property destroyed at Lawrence on the 24th ult., amounting to $130,000.

Gov. Shannon issued an order calling out the troops at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 22d.

A gentleman just arrived, reports that the difficulty mentioned as occurring at Passawatomie Creek took place at Osawatomie. The quarrel arose from depredations committed by the proslavery men on the cattle of the Free State men on the 26th.

Some proslavery men seized a Free State man and proceeded to hang him, when his wife fled and aroused the neighbors, who came to his rescue. A fight ensued, and five proslavery men and two Free State men were killed.

A force of sixty men were organized at Westport, Mo., on the 27th ult., and proceeded to Osawatamie.

This account is the other side of the same affair, which was first described as the murder of eight proslavery innocents, with gouging and other accompaniments, and which aroused the indignation at Westport, Mo.

☞ There was a great Kansas meeting at Faneuil Hall in Boston on Tuesday evening. Mayor Rice presided, and introduced the Hon. Henry Wilson, as a gentleman who believed in the defence of freedom, and also in self-defence. Senator Wilson was greeted with great and prolonged cheering, and it was some moments before he could be heard.

He made an effective speech, in which he said that for three centuries the people who loved liberty had no greater need for assembling to devise mean, for its promotion than at the present time. He said that the whole influence of the present general government was given to crush out freedom in Kansas, and that the conduct pursued by the President and his cabinet was no more defensible than is Brooks's cowardly assault on Senator Sumner. He claimed that Brooks's conduct was in accordance with the wishes of the slave oligarchy. He came to-night, hoping that some word he might utter would add one throb of sympathy or one dollar of material aid to the contribution for our self-sacrificing brethren in Kansas. The cause of liberty never demanded more of her friends assembled in Faneuil Hall than to-night. Behind the borderers of Kansas stands the government of the United States in the unbalanced grasp of the slave power.

GOODWIN'S GRAND GREASEJUICE.—No name could possibly be more unpromising or unprepossessing. Yet the article itself, as prepared by Charles H. Goodwin of Exeter, and by him forwarded to Uncle Toby, made the old gentleman's wig to shine with new lustre, and to give forth an odor as flagrant as Mrs. Partington's rappee. The juveniles also caught the spirit of the age, and put the 3 Great Gs over their locks with as much gust as a duck takes a morning bath, and with about the same success in improving their good looks.

There seems to be only one fault in the G. G. G.—viz. it goes off rather too fast. But this evil can be cured by replenishing the bottle (for 25 cts.) at the proprietor's fountain of fat, in Exeter.

With the 3 Gs. came the tiniest pair of shoes from Mr. Fields, another Exeter advertiser. But what could the old gentleman do with them? He ought to have velvet slippers.

CONWAY.—A new meeting-house for the Congregational Society in Conway, N. H., was dedicated May 29. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Bouton of Concord. Dedicatory prayer by Rev. Reuben Kimball, formerly of Kittery Point, who is engaged as a stated preacher for a year.

CICINNATI, 4th.—The Convention was engaged nearly all day in discussing the platform and resolutions. They were all adopted. Considerable excitement was created by various ineffectual motions of Southern delegates to have the resolutions on foreign affairs reconsidered, the South being unwilling to have those resolutions engrafted on the platform.

A motion was made by Mr. Petit to proceed to nominate, but was subsequently withdrawn, to await the settlement of the difficulty in the New York delegation.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The Committee on Resolutions have reported a platform embodying,

1. The Baltimore platform of 1852.
2. Utter repudiation of Know Nothingism.
3. Congress has no power or control over the domestic institutions of the States [and Territories.]
4. Reaffirming the principles of tht Kansas Nebraska bill. [The announcement of this plank caused enthusiastic cheers.]

In the absence of general lessons in music, which might well be given in all our public schools,—the juvenile singing school seems to be the best, if not the only available means of developing the young musical idea, and as such, well worthy of patronage.
This branch of the musical profession would seem to the appreciative teacher, to be one of the most attractive, agreeable and important, although one of the most arduous; and having the best accommodations for a large school, we shall be happy to meet all members of former classes, and as many others of the juveniles as would like the aid of the musical staff in their journey

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"
It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for
HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH
HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from
Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,
Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.
It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in
HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS
Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "hoed the mark straight."
They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, June 5.

Wells, (Democrat)	150
Metcalf, (Opposition)	175

In the afternoon His Excellency sent in to the Convention the following Message, which was read by the Clerk.

To the Hon. Senate, and House of Representatives :

You have assembled here at the time designated by the Constitution, to discharge the responsible duties of Legislation for the State —duties delegated to you by the choice of the people whose representatives you are—whose rights you are to protect—and whose interests it will be your pleasure as well as your duty to promote.

I can truly congratulate you upon the favorable circumstances under which you assemble. For the past year the people of the State have been blessed in a great degree with health, peace, and prosperity, and all branches of industry have met with ample rewards; and indifferent and callous indeed must be the heart that does not acknowledge our obligations and feel profoundly grateful to Divine Providence for his favors and protection.

Finances.

On the first day of June, 1855, the account of the indebtedness of the State above available funds was $38,417.76: the cash on hand at the same time was $21,680.49, and the Railroad and State taxes then due, was $3,-121.53. The first two items include the available funds above spoken of. From that time to the first day of June 1856, there has been received into the State treasury, from all sources, including the cash on hand and some temporary loans, now paid, $218,272.44, and there has been paid out in the same time, the sum of $199,116.94, leaving a balance in the treasury, June 1st, 1856, of $19,155.50. There is also due from Railroads the sum of $1,109.-20, leaving the State debt, June 1st, 1856, over and above available funds $64,127.20.

Insane Asylum.

Among the expenses of the State, the past year, is the sum of $25,000, appropriated by the Legislature, for erecting a new wing to the Hospital for the Insane. The money has been drawn from the treasury, pursuant to the resolve, and expended for the purposes expressed therein: I am informed that the amount appropriated is not sufficient to complete the undertaking. Appropriations have always been granted liberally to the Asylum when asked for, and it has been a favorite institution with the public, in all parts of the State. To accommodate the numerous applications for admissions, several additions have been made to the original structure, and still the applications increase with the increase of accommodations. After the additions already begun and partially completed, shall be finished, it will, perhaps, be prudent to consider whether, if there should be more patients applying for admission than can be accommodated, it will not be economical and expedient to limit the reception of applicants to those of our own State, in preference to providing accommodations for those from other States.

House of Reformation.

Another item of expenditure, out of the common administration of affairs of the State, is an appropriation of $15,000 towards the establishment of a "House of Reformation for Juvenile and Female offenders against the laws." For several years past the policy, and even the necessity of providing some more gentle and appropriate place of punishment for such offenders than the State Prison or the common jail, has been a matter of very general interest, inquiry and discussion. The measure has been recommended to the Legislature by several Chief Magistrates, and been favorably considered. The necessity becomes more and more apparent as our cities and large villages are increasing in population, and, as a natural consequence, in this class of offenders. The State Prison is now the only place provided for transgressors—except for some petty offences—as soon as they become amenable to the laws, and this without regard to age, sex, or moral or mental condition.

At the last session of the Legislature such an institution was established, to meet the wants of the community and promote the cause of humanity, the amelioration of the punishment and instruction and reformation of juvenile delinquents. To carry this into effect, a resolve was passed requiring three Commissioners for the purpose, and in pursuance thereof, Hon. Matthew Harvey of Concord, Hon. Frederick Smyth of Manchester, and Hosea Eaton, Esq., of New Ipswich, were appointed. The said Commissioners have purchased a farm of one hundred acres in the city of Manchester, for the purpose contemplated by the resolve, which act has been approved by the Governor and Council. The Commissioners in the further discharge of their duties, have caused plans and estimates of the cost of erecting suitable buildings thereon, to be made, and the stone-work and brick have been contracted for. A detailed report of their doings, with the plans and estimates, will soon be transmitted to the Legislature. The appropriation of last year has been drawn and expended, and further appropriations will be necessary to complete the work.

Banks and Banking.

The Banking system of the country has become so interwoven with its industrial interests and monetary affairs, that the abandonment of a paper, and the adoption of an exclusive specie currency, is now as much an "obsolete idea" as that the establishment of an "United States Bank is necessary to regulate exchanges." What would have been the effect if "promises to pay" had never been substituted for gold and silver, can now be only a theme for theoretical speculation, and not of any practical utility. An extensive field of argument is open on either side.—Banks are so easily multiplied and put in operation that the whole system may be liable to explode by the pressure of its extension.—Banking in this State is a special privilege, which should be extended with extreme prudence and caution. It is some apology for occasionally chartering more banks, that the course of business has, within a few years, greatly changed. Long credits are not so common as formerly, and capitalists have sought a different, but often less safe and profitable direction for their capital, than loans to individuals, and money is often not to be obtained at all, except through the agency of Banks. Charters should never be granted merely to enable a few to borrow money with greater facility, or to loan it at greater profits. When the business of any particular locality is of such a nature and amount as to require banking facilities in pursuing it to advantage, and when there is an actual surplus of capital for such investment, and men of integrity and ability are ready and willing to take charge of its affairs, bank charters may with propriety and safety be granted. Where these requisites do not evidently exist, it may be well to consider seriously whether these privileges should be granted.

For the safety of bill holders, no State in the Union has provided a better system of banks than our own. No bank is authorized to have bills in circulation to a greater amount than the capital stock actually paid in, so that the bank, if honestly managed, will at all times have funds and money equal to twice the amount of its circulation. In addition to this, each stockholder, to meet the liabilities of the bank, is liable in his individual capacity for the amount he owns of the capital stock. The deposits will add to the credit of the Bank equal to the amount of its liability for them. With these resources, it would seem that without palpable fraud, or some mismanagement of its officers, any bank must be able to redeem its circulation and pay its depositors. Banks seldom fail, unless the Directors, or their particular friends have borrowed, or used without borrowing, a large portion of its funds, contrary to their charters.

To guard against such abuse, and to remove the temptation from men to become Directors for the purposes of enjoying facilities of obtaining large loans, the law prohibits any Director from being indebted to the bank, directly or indirectly, to an amount greater than one half the capital stock actually owned by such Director, than to a greater amount than three per cent, of the whole capital of the bank, under the liability to indictment and penalties. The Cashier cannot be a debtor at all.

It is unfortunately true that all the guards and checks that can be devised to protect the community or individuals from dishonesty and fraud of others, will sometimes fail of accomplishing the object. In business transactions confidence in a more or less degree must be reposed in men, both individually and collectively, and this confidence will sometimes be betrayed. The wisest and most judicious legislation cannot prevent it. In this State, however, we have had but little cause to lament a violation of our laws, or violation of confidence in Bank officers; and I am happy to say that no Bank chartered under our present system has failed to meet any or all its liabilities on demand.

The Legislature of last year were exceedingly liberal in granting charters for Banks. It is to be hoped the present Legislature will not exceed in this respect, the proper and legitimate wants of the community.

State Prison.

I have reason to believe that the management of the affairs of the State Prison for the past year, under the able and faithful Warden, has been judicious and economical. The annual report of its income, expenses and condition, will soon be laid before you. At the last session of the Legislature, a resolve was passed, requesting the Governor and Council to appoint a Committee to examine into the affairs of the Prison, and report to the Governor and Council the true standing and condition of the same, and its financial affairs from June 1st, 1850, to June 1st, 1855. A Committee was accordingly appointed, who have attended to the duties of their appointment and made their report to the Governor and Council at their session in May, which will be soon transmitted.

Agriculture and Education.

In my communication to the last Legislature, I commended to their notice the interests of Agriculture and Education. It cannot be necessary to again call your attention to their consideration. You are not ignorant and cannot be unmindful of their superlative importance. The former is inseparably allied with all the industrial branches of business, and the latter with morals and safety of the community and the permanency of our institutions. So far as you may think it necessary, I have no doubt but it will be your pleasure to foster and advance the interests and prosperity of each. Your own knowledge of and familiarity with these matters will best suggest the means of promoting their success.

Collection of Debts.

I also, at the same time, suggested the expediency of so amending our laws for the collection of debts, as to abolish all liens obtained by priority of attachment on writs of mesne process—a provision so often ruinous to debtors without a corresponding benefit to but a small portion of creditors. I am still of opinion that the beneficial effect of such a change after a short time will be felt by the creditor, the debtor, and the community at large. Without repeating or extending the argument, I would again most respectfully invite your consideration of the subject.

Judiciary.

The act of the last session of the Legislature, remodeling the Judiciary system of the State, is fast removing the serious causes of complaint of the law's delay that had long existed prior to its passage, and enabling those who are so unfortunate as to be obliged to contest their rights in a court of justice, to do so according to the provisions of the Constitution, which declares that "justice shall be administered promptly, without delay."

The great mass of business accumulated on the Dockets of the old courts in the large counties, is fast diminishing, and the time does not seem far distant when all parties may have their actions tried without delay; as the Supreme Court has not jurisdiction of actions where the damages claimed do not exceed one hundred dollars, far the greater number of civil suits will be brought and tried in the Court of Common Pleas. When this Court had criminal jurisdiction it was often a very serious evil to litigants to be obliged to wait and keep their witnesses in attendance, while the Attorney General was occupying the Court with the business of the State, and it often so happened that the State trials were necessarily put off for some time till the termination of a civil action already commenced. None of these difficulties will occur now in the Court of Common Pleas, which will generally have the most crowded civil dockets, while the cases in the Supreme Court being less in number can be more readily arranged, and will often be mostly disposed of before the criminal cases will be reached, which, I am informed, is seldom done, in some Counties, till the second week of the session. The State is bound to furnish Courts and judges to speedily dispose of all the law business legally brought before them. The division of labor between the two courts will not require any greater number of days of session than would be required, if all the labor was done by one Court, nor any additional expense to, attendance of the juries. In the small Counties where but two juries are called in, there may be, as far as the juries are concerned, a little addition of expense, but even this expense will be many times saved to the parties in time and money, by the less number of days of attendance of themselves and witnesses, many of whom must be kept till the end of the term. Long sessions of the Court of Common Pleas have been necessary since the passage of the act. This Court is charged with all the business found in the old Court when the new system went into operation. Within a year most of the actions found in the old dockets have been disposed of.—When the Courts shall have no other business but what has originated within their jurisdiction, the people will have a fair opportunity to compare the merits of the old and new systems, and judge whether an improvement has been made or not.

THE PROHIBITORY LAW.

The act for the suppression of intemperance is having a salutary effect. It is more fully regarded and practically sustained than any license law we ever had in the state. In many towns the sale of intoxicating liquors is wholly abandoned, and in others it is sold only as other penal offences are committed, in secret. I am not aware that there is a city or town in the state where spirituous liquors are openly sold.—That there are places where the law is secretly violated, is not doubted, and the same may be said of every law, whether statute or common, from the highest to the lowest grades of offence. But this is a feeble reason why a law may not be salutary and effective, or why it should be repealed. Our national revenue laws are often violated with impunity if not with boldness, but I have never yet heard that urged as a reason why all laws against smuggling should be repealed. The sale of lottery tickets is strictly prohibited in this state, yet the law is constantly violated; but no one for that reason suggests that the prohibition should be taken off and the sale left open and free, or at a well regulated license system" established in its stead. The sale of lottery tickets is all but harmless when compared with the ruin and desolation of mind, body and estate, caused by the sale of intoxicating drinks. The sale in either of the above cases has ever been a matter of municipal regulation, and if the prohibition of the former has met with less opposition and a less reluctant acquiescence than that of the latter, it is because the sale is more limited, less profitable, and pampers less to the appetites and passions of the people. I offer years of experience, but few would be willing to invite into the state this species of gambling by a repeal of the prohibition, though men are found who will sell and who will buy lottery tickets, whether the sale be prohibited or not. So many will be found who will have, if possible to be obtained, spirituous liquor, and others will be found sufficiently sordid and reckless to furnish it; yet when the good effects of a prohibitory law shall have been affirmed by time and experience, and when no selfish purposes are to be attained by misrepresenting its provisions, its objects or its friends, there is reason to believe the law will be as efficacious in suppressing intemperance, and will meet with as much favor from a virtuous community, as its most ardent friends could hope for or anticipate.

That the sale of spirituous liquors has greatly diminished since the act took effect, is plainly visible, and this fact is freely conceded by most candid men, whether they approve of its objects and provisions, or not. Those engaged in the illegal traffic dare not expose it openly, but sell it in the darkness of midnight. It is very evident to all, and it is next to an impossibility to be otherwise, that sales must be extremely limited in number and quantity, where the traffic must be carried on in dark places and loathsome dens, where men tremblingly feel their way and where the light of day is not admitted to witness the transaction or countenance the offence.

If there is to be any restraining law, any law to prevent the unlimited sale, the present law is as mild and liberal as an efficient law can be. The license system has ever proved and every where proves only a special privilege to a favorite few—an unlimited sale by a licensed class, a legalized method of encouraging intemperance with all the train of acknowledged evils. The result of the controversy will and must end in the entire prohibition, or a free, unlimited sale. I cannot believe any respectable portion of the community are yet prepared to adopt the latter alternative. The law of the former has not been in operation a sufficient time to test its effect and expediency in all its minute provisions. I trust it may be permitted to stand until it shall have had a fair trial, and then if it be found not to answer the objects designed, and meet the expectations of the people, it will be in season to amend or repeal it.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The Constitution requires that the sense of the qualified voters shall be taken once in every seven years on the subject of its revision. At the time of our next annual town meeting in the month of March, seven years will have elapsed since the sense of the voters was taken on that subject. It has been customary for the Legislature to take some action thereon prior to submitting the same to the people.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

In regard to our national affairs, I regret to say that a dark cloud seems hanging over the country and gathering strength as it moves along, portending the horrors of war with foreign nations, and angry, if not bloody contentions among ourselves. Questions of grave import have arisen between our own and several foreign governments, which it was thought at first would be easily and amicably adjusted, but have become of very serious importance, and threaten to interrupt the friendly relations heretofore subsisting between them.

With England we have several questions of controversy, one of them at least involving our national rights or honor, and ever encroaching upon our independence. I allude to the fact, through her resident Minister here and other agents she has recruited her armies in this country for a foreign service, and declines to make any satisfaction for the insult. Another is, the position she assumes in relation to Central America entirely contrary to her treaty stipulations.

England and France now allied and flushed with a barren success in the Crimea, are assuming towards us a position more menacing and pretensions than ever.—There are also unsettled questions arising with other nations, and it is hoped that more amicable counsels will yet prevail in European Cabinets, and that we may not be driven to a resort to arms for the maintenance of our rights and our honor. Yet when these controversies with foreign nations are forced upon us we trust the declaration of President Jackson that "we will ask for nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing wrong" will find an echo from every patriotic heart.

KANSAS AND SLAVERY.

Notwithstanding the gloomy aspect of our foreign relations I regret to say that our domestic relations look still more gloomy and alarming. The contest for the extension of slavery, and the opposition to it has assumed an attitude that foreboded a collision. Southern politicians long accustomed to control and direct the administration of the affairs of the country, feel highly indignant that the people of the free States should at last become sensible and weary, and exhibit some determined opposition to their arrogant and aggressive demands. There is no design nor desire at the North to deprive the South of one solitary right.—Whatever the Constitution gives them is most cheerfully accorded. The North will hold sacred all their rights and defend them with all the power they would defend their own, but they believe it to be an imperious duty, as well as a sacred right to use all constitutional ways and means to confine slavery and its evils to its present limits whilst the slave power asserts the right, theoretically and practically to extend it wherever they please, "peaceably if they can, forcibly if they must."

Not satisfied with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, whence all our present troubles flow, they now claim the right to practically extend slavery into the free States, and the South never made a claim yet of any value that has not sooner or later been granted.—The decisions of the Courts of England, and of most of the States in this country have uniformly been that when a slave has been voluntarily taken by his owner into a free State his servitude ceases, and he that moment becomes free. Recent successes have stimulated the slave power to demand the nullification of this law. They demand that the North shall be compelled to them to take their slaves with them whelever they may please to go, whether for business or pleasure, and to retain their ownership and their power over them.—Their business or their pleasure may require a few hours, days, months or years. Only let the owner call his domicil in South Carolina, and if this recent claim or demand is conceded, they may fill the free States with slaves in spite of their laws and their sovereignty. One judge has already been found sufficiently servile to take the first step to sustain these absurd demands, and if his decision shall be made the law the taunting threat of a Southern Senator that "he will yet call the roll of his slaves in the shade of the monument on Bunker Hill" will soon be verified. When such claims are put forth, and recreant judges found to sustain them, the North may well become alarmed for their own rights; they may soon expect to see plantations cultivated by slaves on the banks of the Hudson and the Merrimack. This is no less probable than what the slaveholders have, to their own surprise, accomplished, step by step, within a few years.

The allied war of the Slave power and the Administration upon the Free State men in Kansas, is so familiar to you all, that I need not relate its tragic history. A free State Senator, in the full interest of Slavery, declared but a few weeks since, from his seat in the Senate, that their would "subdue" the friends of freedom; and that threat is about to be executed in Kansas. The territory has been overrun with marauders armed with United States muskets, and murder, robbery, fire and the sword have driven the free State men from their own homes, and the territory is now in the hands of lawless and irresponsible invaders. Unfortunately for the peace of the territory, the rights of the settlers and of "popular sovereignty," a detachment of the United States army has been ordered by the President into Kansas, under the pretence of enforcing the laws of a self-styled legislature, well-known to have been elected by ruthless invaders from another State, who with deadly weapons drove the actual settlers and legal voters from the polls, and declared such men as they pleased to be elected. The lawless invaders of the territory have taken courage from the presence of the United States troops, whom they believe to have been sent there for their especial aid and protection, and this conviction was strengthened by the reply of the commander of the troops when appealed to by the citizens of Lawrence for protection against their enemies, that "he had no orders to protect them;" and for not protecting them he has been commended by the President, while the devoted city was sacked in ruins.

Another alarming encroachment of the slave power upon our free institutions and the rights of the people, is the late premeditated and preconcerted attack upon the Constitution of the country, the freedom of speech, and the independence of the Senate by an aggravated assault upon a distinguished Senator, avowedly for words spoken in debate, while another Senator is challenged for the same cause. These acts meet the approval, openly declared, or by the votes of nearly every member from the South, and many of their sympathetic friends from the North. This is doubtless a part of the machinery to be used to "subdue" freemen.

The great reasons of the uniform success of the slave power in their aggressions may be accounted for in their perfect unanimity on that subject among themselves, and their constant threats of withdrawing from the Union whenever any demand they put forth is not unhesitatingly granted. Their party ties remain as compact and powerful as ever, but the threat of dissolving the union has lost much of the potency of its charm.

The South dare not and the North will not dissolve the Union. There cannot be found in the whole free states a class of men sufficient in numbers to be called a party, who would in any way or manner infringe upon the rights of the South, or who are in favor of the dissolution of the Union, under any not absurdly supposable circumstances. No one at the North threatens it; no one speaks of it but to deprecate; no one presumes to "calculate its value;" and but very few could be found of any party who would not sacrifice themselves in defence of it. All the talk—all the threats—all the movements—designed or tending to a dissolution, are the political stock in trade of the Southern politicians, with here and there a partner at the North.

I am not aware there is any necessity for a long session of the Legislature. A State seldom suffers from a "masterly inactivity" in legislation. The calls that will be made on you for appropriations to complete public institutions already begun will admonish you of the necessity of a rigid economy in your disbursements. Coming as you do from every fraction al part of the state, and familiar, as you are, with the necessities and wants of your constituents, you are well prepared to discharge the high duties entrusted to you; and relying upon the favor of a merciful Providence, I trust we shall all endeavor to discharge our respective obligations in such a manner as to promote the best interests of the State.

Whalebone Skirts.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper, graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladie, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for April, will notice that E. & J. HOLMES have from actual experience been successful in producing this most desirable article, and that their IMPROVED SEAMLESS SKIRT meets the unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to the street and the crowd; are made in one piece or breadth, and in our opinion, and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have tried them, the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to introduce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and retail of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cotton, all starched goods, cannot be used satisfactorily, as they will not recover their place when pressed out of shape. We consider all as worthless, of whatever material made, unless there is something of sufficient stiffness and elasticity, and at the same time yielding and pliable, to keep the dress in proper shape below the bones. We will not recommend, we have our cord made under our own direction, and expressly for our goods, and from the only material that can be used that will recover its proper place when pressed out of shape, and are so twisted in manufacturing that they will not roll up when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with goods of all kinds, and put together without form or comeliness, or any other object but to sell, and of course are called Whalebone Skirts. Some imitators, in their efforts to profit by our reputation, have gone so far as to copy almost exactly our trade mark upon their goods.

Please Notice.—Every genuine article stamped, E & J. HOLMES'S IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRT, and may be found by the trade in many of the largest Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston, and at retail in the principal Dry Goods stores.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north, 350 miles, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the produce of the land to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a remarkable and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the old States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield a large crop. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed, and the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger part of the cultivated lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, or roads so as having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands are located, at $1.25 per acre are cheap good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vast lands may be found near the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
*Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained at Chicago, for Kaskaskia, Decatur, Bloomington, Pontiac, Kankakee, Dwight, Odell, Dixon, Freeport, Galena, Dunleith, Cairo, Mattoon, Tuscola, Gilman, Paxton, Fairbury, Pontiac, Chenoa, Lexington, Bloomington, Normal, Atlanta, Lincoln, Mt. From the Portland Transcript.

INDEPENDENCE vs. NEUTRALITY.

The Portland Transcript is our beau ideal of a Family paper,—only when it steps aside into the political arena! Last year it dabbled a little too much in the Neal Dow mania. When a paper professes neutrality in political matters, we want to see it carried out,—that's all.—Bath Times.

Thank you, Bro. Times, for the compliment contained in your paragraph, but you will allow us to say that the concluding portion of it betrays a sad confusion of ideas and misapprehension of facts. Let us set you right.

In the first place, the Transcript never professed to be a 'neutral' paper in the sense in which you evidently understood that term. A neutral paper as understood by the partizan press, is one that is afraid to utter an opinion of its own, that gives up the discussion of all great questions affecting the welfare of community to the perversion, misrepresentation and abuse of politicians without daring to set the truth before the people, whom they would mislead. Such a paper we would scorn to publish. Such a paper the Transcript under our management has never been, and while we control it, never will be. The word neutral never appeared in a prospectus of the Transcript.

If you will turn to the head of our paper you will find that it professes to be 'an independent family paper.' As such, it claims the right, while advocating the views of no party or sect, and standing independent of them all, to discuss all questions affecting the moral and social well being of society. This we regard not only as a right, but a duty. We sincerely believe that the best interests of our country urgently demand the building up of an independent press in the land—a press free from the control or parties, cliques or sects, and devoted only to the interest of the people.

The political press, from its very nature, is unreliable. It is the slave of party, and at its bidding perverts facts, misrepresents principles, suppresses or distorts the truth, and thus misleads the people. Until the non-partisan press of this country attain sufficient independence to stand by itself and speak the truth without fear or favor, it will never exert that influence for good which, from the important position it holds, the people have a right to expect from it.

It is a singular conceit the partizan press has taken into its head, that all questions which politicians choose to drag into the political arena, for the sake of making a little capital out of them, are thenceforth tabooed to all independent thinking papers or persons. The independent press and the independent pulpit are fast taking this conceit out of it, and teaching it that such tyranny of opinion, while it is odious as the tyranny of the bayonet, is deserving of as severe condemnation and contempt.

By your allusion to 'the Neal Dow mania' we presume you refer to the riot which occurred in this city a year since. We do not see what this lawless outbreak had to do with politics, unless, indeed, it was got up for party purposes, which we should be sorry to be compelled to believe. We spoke of it—as we had a right to speak of it—without reference to parties, as an outrages attempt to subject our city to mob rule. If it became a political matter, it was not our fault, but the fault of those who dragged it into politics for the sake of making capital of it. Under the same circumstances we should pursue the same course again.—Portland Transcript.

WHAT IS NOW THE LAW OF NEW-YORK?—We have addressed ourselves with some diligence to the enquiry, as to what is now the law in this State, on the subject of the traffic in intoxicating liquors. On the one hand, we have found enlightened lawyers who were of the opinion that there is no law whatever left. Others were of the opinion, that the License Laws were revived. Our inquiries, however, lead us to the belief that neither of these opinions is correct; but that a part of the Prohibitory Law, and a part also of the old Revised Statutes, now make up the law of the land. We are of the belief that Liquor Dealers will find to their surprise that the whole of the retail traffic is at this moment contrary to law, and that any person (out of four cities expressly excepted by the Excise Laws) selling liquor in less quantities than five gallons, may be proceeded against as a misdemeanor, incurring a penalty of not more than $250 fine, and not more than one year's imprisonment. He is liable also to the civil penalty of $25 for each offence. This would follow from the opinion of Judge James, of the Fourth Judicial District, (all the Bench concurring) and one of the Justices of the Court of Appeals has assured us that he had no doubt, that the same would be sustained by all the members of the latter Bench.—The ten-dollar or ten-day penalty for public drunkenness, stands, beyond all question.—We notice that the authorities of the village of Saratoga Springs, have met and granted Liquor Licenses to the 1st of May—a transaction wholly without authority. This glory at last still remains to New York—there is no man or set of men in the State, invested with power to grant a Liquor License; and to sell liquor by retail, is in the eyes of the law, a misdemeanor. We hope the friends of Temperance will put this immediately to the test.—Albany Prohibitionist.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1856.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, June 4, '56.

Dear Chronicle—Yesterday evening found me safely here. The city is very lively.—Trains come in filled with sturdy and noble New Hampshire men. "The three professions" all have an errand here this week. The lawyers and politicians, of course in the meeting of legislature;—the New Hampshire Medical Society convene and some eminent physicians come from other states to the meeting;—and the 'Pastoral Convention' assembles the ministry. The streets are full of what ladies and children call "gentlemen,"—some of them truly so. The sturdy yeomen from the potato fields, browned by their noble toil, and the obsequious politicians are grouped in side-walk caucusses, and for eloquent salutations.

The farmers, in their woolen coats, and stove-pipe hats, looked terribly warm about the streets yesterday. The State House enlargement plan, was carefully laid open to me by an inmate of one of the offices, and truly a most needful piece of work it is. The Records, Journals, treasure and Library of the State ought not to lie in such exposure. A good fire-proof building cannot too soon be added to that fine edifice the State House.

P. M.—A prompt, clear-voiced, active man is Mr. Rollins—chosen Speaker. The Chamber was crowded,—noble men and honest, (to look at;)—spectators, and fair ladies;—but no procession—no religious service, as of old. About 4 P. M. the House quietly adjourned. But little party temper is apparent.

In the Pastoral Convention, Essays occupied the morning, and in the afternoon Rev. Prof. Brown of Dartmouth, preached a long and finely written sermon,a part of which was a Careful "Tract for the times." This Convention does not call together a great many ministers, as the General Association has assumed most of the duties, (except the Election Sermon) formerly belonging to it.

Concord shows grandly just now. Its fine trees, new buildings, river, and mountains, and pure air charm the visitor. O if a tithe of its enterprise and vitality could be shot into the shrivelling limbs of our city; and a single one of its busy workshops, and the music of its hammers and mullets, be united to our far superior scenery and position;—we might be glad. N. L.

A CHAPTER OF VICE.—Somebody said, last winter, that drunkenness was a Vice, and not a Crime. If so, vice leads to crime, as we see in the following illustrative cases.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 4, in Boston, an Irish woman, strongly excited by liquor, jumped off the end of one of the wharves, but was rescued by the pilots from the boat Wm. Starky, and committed to the care of the police.

On the same day, in the same city, before the Police Court, Jerry F. Meacham was arraigned on a complaint charging him with making a felonious assault on the person of Mary E. Daniels, whose death was reported that day in the papers. The assault was in a house of ill fame, and the parties of course not total abstinents.

On the same day, in the same city, in the afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock, Michael Killilea, an Irishman residing at the corner of Cottage and Everett streets, East Boston, while under the influence of liquor struck his wife with a flatiron, inflicting a frightful and dangerous wound on her forehead. Officer Aiken was called to the spot by the cry of murder, and arrested the would-be murderer, but not without some difficulty, as Killilea made a desperate resistance. Several officers arrived soon after and carried the ruffian to the station house. Dr. Sawell F. Percher was called and dressed the wounds of the woman. He pronounces them to be dangerous, but has hopes of her recovery. About two years ago Killilea made a furious assault upon some officers in East Boston who were called to arrest him for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

Cities and towns that will have the drink, must have the drunkards, criminals and paupers.

CONNECTICUT.—James Dixon, American Republican, has been chosen United States Senator for six years from the 4th of March next, in place of Mr. Toucey.

He was not chosen by two votes as at first reported—Dixon had 115; Toucey 101; scat; 7. Hon. Charles J. McCurdy was elected Judge of the Supreme Court, he having on the final ballot 131 out of 224 votes. This was 2 or 3 majority; and probably gave rise to the report of the 2 votes in the other case.

The defeat of Mr. Toucey is a victory of freedom over slavery.

☞ We learn from the Christian Era that the Kennebunk Village church has invited Rev. E. Worth, late of Fisherville, N. H., to become their pastor.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—Buchanan was nominated for President on the 17th ballot, the other candidates having withdrawn.

Private despatches report that the name of Mr. Pierce was withdrawn this morning, by Mr. Hibbard of N. H. in favor of Mr. Douglas. After the sixteenth ballot the name of Mr. Douglas was withdrawn by his friends.

☞ Among the Boston Anniversaries, last week, the exercises of the Bible Society were observed on Monday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Frothingham presided, and Rev. Mr. Winslow, missionary in India, offered prayer. The congregation were addressed ably by Rev. William S. Studley, a Methodist clergyman of Concord, Rev. R. W. Clark of East Boston, and Rev. Dr. Peabody of Portsmouth.

THANKS.—The Portsmouth Journal gives us due credit for an early copy of the Governor's Message, which we transcribed from the original, before its delivery. We should state that we are under obligations to Gen. Abbott of the Manchester Daily American, and Maj. Waite of the Claremont Eagle, for valuable assistance, without which we could have done nothing in our endeavors to obtain an early copy of the document. The work of making a manuscript copy of the Message occupied five hours of steady writing.

COUNTY CONFERENCES.—The annual Conference of Churches for Rockingham county, will meet in Candia, the 10th inst.; Hillsborough Conference will meet at Mont Vernon on the 10th inst.; Cheshire at Walpole on the 11th inst.; Coos at Bethlehem on the 10th inst.; and Merrimack at West Boscawen, on Tuesday the 24th inst.

EASTERN HOTEL, BOSTON.—We would call attention to this new Hotel, on the European plan. Being situated in the immediate vicinity of the Maine, Lowell, and Fitchburg roads & directly opposite the EasternRailroad Depot, it affords superior inducements to business men staying in Boston. It is convenient, comfortable and in point of economy, preferable to any hotel in the city of Boston. We would confidently recommend our readers to try the Eastern Hotel, when in Boston. *

MECHANICS, MANUFACTURERS, ARTISTS, and inventors are referred to the advertisement of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics' Association, in this day's paper, of their Eighth Exhibition of American Manufactures and the Mechanic Arts, to be held in the city of Boston in September next.

EPISCOPAL STATE CONVENTION.—The annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in New Hampshire, which has just closed its session in Manchester, was a very interesting and harmonious one, exhibiting a prosperous condition of the church. The Missionary Sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Marble of Concord, who was also elected Secretary of the Convention. The annual Convention sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Burroughs of Portsmouth. St. Marks church, Holderness, was admitted into Union with the Convention. The standing committee, clerical and lay deputies to the General Convention, (which meets in Philadelphia in October next,) and other officers were elected as usual.

The Bishop delivered his address on the afternoon of Wednesday. After a full account of his labors, the Bishop alluded in passing to the fact that without any concert, and merely from the involuntary influence of the spirit which pervades our body—the love of the simple gospel of Christ—our ministers uniformly abstain from political harangues, and exciting topics of merely a secular character.—Manchester American.

KINDERHOOK, (N. Y.) June 4.—While ex-President Van Buren was riding through the village on horseback this morning, his horse took fright, throwing him on the ground. He is considerably injured about the head, but is not considered dangerous.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

THE GRAND ASCENSION.—We have been requested to state for the information of those living at a distance from town, that the young French lady, M'lle Louise, will make her grand ascension in this place to-day, June 7, at half past 1 o'clock precisely, immediately before the opening of Jim Myers great show. The lady will walk upon a single wire a distance of 200 feet, and to an elevation of 60 feet from the ground. M'lle Louise has repeatedly performed the same hazardous feat, walking across the widest streets in Paris on a single wire, one hundred feet from the pavement, without ever meeting with the slightest accident. †

DRAMATIC.—The Theatrical Company of Messrs. Bidwell & Marston, now performing at Saco, is spoken of everywhere, as uncommonly good. They will open at the Cameneum on Monday evening next. The Newburyport Herald says, "they are a far better company than has before been in this city;" and that the City Hall is seldom filled with so large and brilliant an audience as were present to witness their performances." See advertisement.

FOOT RACE.—We are informed that a couple of fleet-footed young gents in this city, are now in training, and will run a half mile heat, over Portsmouth Bridge, on Monday afternoon next, at 3 o'clock—for the fun of the thing and a purse of $100. The forfeit money is said to be deposited.

PEOPLE'S CONVENTION AT CONCORD.

We understand that a train will leave this city for Concord on the 10th of June at SIX A.M. (not at 7 as has been published) in season to accommodate those who desire to attend the convention on that day. Fare. one way, return ticket free.

The convention meets at Phœnix Hall in Concord, at 11 A. M. The stiring events of the day will afford abundant subjects to give interest to the meeting, and we have no doubt that a large gathering will take place of those who are willing to lay aside all former party divisions and go for the principles of LIBERTY.

CINCINNATI, June 5.—Geo. P. Buell, editor of the Democratic Review at Washington, while making a speech last night in front of the Burnet House, denouncing Know Nothingism and Abolitionism, was interrupted by an individual in the crowd, with whom he finally came to blows. In the melee Mr. Buell was stabbed in the back with a knife, which penetrated to the lungs, inflicting a dangerous wound. Mr. Buell's condition this morning was critical, bleeding inwardly having commenced.

Second Despatch.—The testimony in regard to the stabbing of Mr. Buell, shows that he was assailed by Democrats, who heard him call himself an American.

NEW ORLEANS, 3d.

ELECTION RIOTS.—At the election held in this city yesterday the American candidate for Mayor was elected by over 2000 majority. With the exception of two assistant Aldermen, the entire American ticket was elected.

In the first precinct Mr. Trepanier, Clerk of the First District Court, and two other persons, were stabbed, and Mr. Trepanier was shot several times by a band of Sicilians. In the 11th precinct three Sicilians were killed. There were several other fights in various parts of the city, shooting, stabbing, etc, but without fatal termination.

KANSAS AFFAIRS.

ST. LOUIS., June 4.—A letter from Topeka, May 28, to the Democrat, says 45 dragoons are stationed at Topeka and 130 at Lawrence.

It is reported that a party of Col. Buford's men, encamped near Ossawatamie, had committed many depredations upon the property of the squatters, who, becoming enraged, made an attack on the camp, killed five men and drove the remainder away. The Missouri pro-slavery men in that vicinity identified with the troubles in Kansas have been waited upon by the committee and ordered to pack up and move to Missouri instanter. Many families have complied with the demand, and the greatest excitement provails in that part of Kansas. Gov. Shannon has sent a detachment of troops there to preserve order.

The Investigating Commission adjourned from Leavenworth to Westport on the 31st ult. They will leave for Washington on the 19th inst.

A letter to the Republican dated Baptiste Paul, 30th May, says that thirteen persons implicated in the murder of the pro-slavery men at Ossawatamie have been arrested. Reports say that the murderers are fortified in a cave on the Mavias des Coygnes, and are securing reinforcements from Lawrence and elsewhere. The leader of the band is named Brown. Two of his sons are under arrest, one of whom feigns insanity. 100 Kansas militia and 15 United States dragoons are assembled to catch the murderers.

LATER FROM KANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—A letter to the Democrat, from Leavenworth, May 31, says a company of pro-slavery men, some days since, had waited on the Free State settlers, and commanded them to leave Kansas within a specified time, or suffer the consequences.

Mr. Shoemaker, a land receiver, and the only government officer in Kansas known to be a Free State man, is to be notified to leave.

The writer says the Free State men do not manifest sufficient nerve for the crisis, but thinks that if the reports are true, that the Free State settlers in the Southern part of the teritory are in arms, and compelling the pro-slavery men to retreat to Missouri, the effect will be good in the Northern part.

It is reporting that 500 men are marching from Wisconsin to Kansas, but it is probably without foundation.

The Kansas City Enterprise (pro slavery) issued an extra on the 2d inst., which is republished to-day in the Evening News. This extra says that J. M. Baynard left St. Bernard for Westport on Friday last, and, as he has not been heard from since, it is supposed that he has been murdered by the abolitionists. John W. Forman, H. Hamilton, and John Lux, who went out in search of Baynard, were taken by the Abolitionists, and threatened with hanging.

The extra further says:—

Marshal Donaldson and 7 men, on Friday night last, were fired upon him from Walford's house, near Lawrence, by a party of 50 Abolitionists. A short conflict ensued, which resulted in the wounding of several of the Marshal's posse.

H. H. Carty, just from the Territory, states that some men belonging to the same company with himself were attacked, and all seriously injured, by the Abolitionists. He came for men and horses, and 25 of Buford's party will immediately start to the rescue.

Capt. Pattis' company, numbering 45 men, went to Hickory Point to suppress the outrages in that vicinity, but were attacked by 150 Abolitionists, and 2 of his men killed. Another fight between the same parties occurred near Black Jack, in which 9 Abolitionists and 13 pro-slavery men were killed, among whom were Capt. Pattis and James McGee. Capt. Long's company of Wyandott Indians were united to Capt. Pattis' company.

THE next term of Mr. Pearson's Singing Class for young Misses, will commence On WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, June 11, at 3 o'clock, at EXCHANGE HALL; to be continued each Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

TERMS, $1 in advance, for the course. The Book used, (Baker's School Music Book,) may be had at the Hall.

While returning sincere thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him during his two years stay in Portsmouth,—the subscriber begs leave to draw the attention of parents who acknowledge the utility and value of musical knowledge, to the importance of early instruction in the art of Singing. In the absence of general lessons in music, which might well be given in all our public schools,—the juvenile singing school seems to be the best, if not the only available means of developing the young musical talent such, well merits of patronage.

This branch of the musical profession would seem to the appreciative teacher, to be one of the most attractive, agreeable and important, although one of the most arduous; and having the best accommodations for a large school, we shall be happy to meet all members of former classes, and as many others of the juveniles as would like the aid of the musical staff in their journey

BRIEF SKETCHES

JIM MYERS

Himself first saw the light in Providence, in 1829, and commenced his equestrian career with the veteran Aaron Turner, a manager, who has raised more distinguished performers than all the others in the profession put together.

DAVIS RICHARDS

Was born in Virginia in 1832, apprenticed to General Rufus Welch in 1841. Nine years after he made his first bow to a Philadelphia audience in the great act in which he has no equal.

W. W. NICHOLS

Claims North Adams, Mass., as his birth-place.—He commenced the study of the equestrian art with his brother, S. H. Nichols, in 1830, and is now the greatest backward somerset rider in the world.

AUGUSTE AND FRANCOIS SIEGRIST,

Twin brothers, look to the banks of the Rhine for their home, and when quite young were placed under the tutelage of Monsieur Tourniare, the elder, then the most accomplished teacher in Europe.

THOMAS WYATT,

M'LLE LOUISE.

The pupil of the celebrated Cook.

MRS. C. L. NIXON,

An American equestrienne, of whom it may be said with truth that she has few equals and no superior.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages for Patents, far superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof by him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that more is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, which, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting infringements and validity of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the practice and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. Commissioner of Patents.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, sheep, etc. will be rewarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that the lands located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of those lands one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are no good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses than those in Illinois, it is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands is carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to this extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for lands may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be broke under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rate. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expenses of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, finding in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," taken this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers of the Agency for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

Whalebone Skirts.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper, graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladies, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for April, will notice that E. & J. HOLMES have from actual experience been successful in producing the most desirable article, and that their IMPROVED SEAMLESS SKIRT meets the unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to the street and the crowd; are made in one piece or breadth, and in our opinion, and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have bought them, the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to introduce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and retail of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cord, and all starched goods, cannot be used satisfactorily, as they will not recover their place when pressed out of shape. We consider all as worthless, of whatever material made, unless there is something of sufficient stiffness and elasticity, and at the same time yielding and pliable, to keep the dress in proper shape below the bones. To accomplish this we have our cord made under our own direction, and expressly for our goods, and from the only material that can be used that will recover its proper place when pressed out of shape, and are so twisted in manufacturing that they will not roll or curl when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with goods of all kinds, and put together without form or comeliness, or any other object but to sell, and of course are called Whalebone Skirts. Some imitators, in their efforts to profit by our reputation, have gone so far as to copy almost exactly our trade mark upon their goods.
Please Notice—Every genuine article stamped, E & J. HOLMES'S IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRT, and may be found by the trade in many of the largest Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston, and at retail in the principal Dry Goods stores.
June 6, 1855. eo2m E. & J. HOLMES, Boston.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1856.

SACRIFICE OF THE LIVES OF SEAMEN.—We find in a recent number of the New York Times an editorial article of much interest, and which especially commends itself to those concerned in shipping. The writer refers to the large number of lives annually sacrificed in our merchant service, by the falling of seamen when engaged in reefing sail. Not less than a thousand seamen, he says, "fall from aloft on American ships every year while in the discharge of their duty, and perish unheelled, uncoffined and unknown." He proceeds as follows:—

Since the first of November last, 195 seamen have been reported lost in this manner, on the homeward voyage of ships that have arrived in the port of New York alone.—How many have been lost overboard who were not reported; how many have fallen on the outward voyage; how many from ships arriving at other ports; how many from whalers and fishermen in distant seas, we have no means of ascertaining. Fifteen ships arriving here in the month of November, reported losing nineteen men from aloft. Eighteen ships arriving in December reported twenty men. Seven ships arriving in January, reported seven men. Twelve ships arriving in March, reported twenty-three men.—Fifteen ships arriving in April, reported sixteen men.

The article concludes with some very just remarks in relation to the cause and the possibility of the prevention of this mortality.—Though it is confessed that bad seamanship has something to do with it, yet, it is said:

The landsmen are not the only ones that fall from aloft. Their more able messmates perish in the same way. The ship is short handed, and the crew is overworked. The watch below is constantly broken up by the cry that summons all hands on deck. The able seamen, completely worn out, mans the rigging in a dark night and a heavy gale.—He is too much exhausted to maintain his position on the yard. To fall into the sea is to be relieved from an agonizing struggle.—The yielding foot-rope slips from under him, and he is lost overboard!

It seems to us that the provisions for protecting seamen from these accidents are very trifling. The knotted foot-rope, that sways with the surgings of the ship, is a poor reliance for a man out on the jib-boom, or at the yard-arm, in a gale of wind. It is evident that there is something deficient in the present mode of rigging and handling our ships.—Provisions are needed to protect the lives of men in their hazardous duties aloft. What there should be, we are hardly prepared to say; but the subject is certainly worth the attention of all who are interested in the welfare of those who go down to the sea in ships; and it appeals so strongly to the self-interest of the underwriter as to the human sympathies of the philanthropist.

We do not know what protection there might be for men going aloft,—but there have been some expedients devised to avoid sending men aloft in gales of wind;—we refer to the Howes and Forbes Rig, in which, at a cost of about $300, and by the use of three extra topsail yards, the topsails can be reefed by the men on deck; and especially we refer to Foster's Reefing Gear, invented by Wm. H. Foster of this city. In Foster's Rig there are no extra yards;—but by a little rigging, costing only about $150 for a large ship, all the topsails can be reefed with ease and safety, by men on deck.

If the lives of 1000 seamen per year are worth anything, surely the experiment of saving some of them, is worth trying.

A GOOD NOTICE.—An editor of the Newburyport Herald pays Senator Wilson the following high compliment.

Hon Henry Wilson is now seeing the proudest day that can come in any man's life.—Without having particular regard to any party, he has, in the last twenty years, gone forward as self-reliant as though he formed every circumstance about him, and when necessary could change them at will. As he crossed the path of politicians, now they have cheered, and now they have denounced, and he has seemed equally uninfluenced by both. After the election, last year, a shout went up from his opponents as though he would never breathe again; — but to-day the mouths that cursed him are wide open with praise. The Boston Advertiser speaking of the Faneuil Hall meeting of Tuesday evening, says:

Mr. Wilson was introduced as a gentlemen who believed not only in the defence of freedom but in self-defence, and was cheered as we never heard a man cheered in Faneuil Hall before.

FOURTH OF JULY A DAY OF FASTING.—While the General Association of Illinois was in session on the 21st ult., at Ottaway, the news came of the sacking of Lawrence, which so affected the members that they devoted the evening following to a prayerful consideration of the subject. On Monday subsequent, they unanimously resolved to recommend to the churches the observance of the 4th of July next., to be observed as a day of public humiliation, fasting and prayer, in view of the present condition of our country,—a very timely recommendation. Unless God in mercy shall interpose to save the people of this land from rushing upon their own destruction, the time is not far distant when the anniversary of the birth of our liberties will need to be changed to that of their death. We wish all who have access to the Throne of Grace, would unite with their brethren of Illinois in holding a Concert of Prayer on the fourth of July, in behalf of our distracted and guilty nation.—Congregational Journal.

DR. CALVIN D. CARPENTER.

In September last, one Calvin D. Carpenter, surgeon dentist, left Deerfield, N. H., for the avowed purpose of going to Lowell to settle with Dr. Carlton, with whom he had formerly been in partnership, and who it is alleged, owed him some $300. He is traced to Lawrence, and there are persons in Lowell who say that at about the time spoken of he went to Lowell, to the American House, and that Dr. Carlton took him to his own residence. In February last, a notice of Dr. C. death appeared in the Manchester Democrat. It was alleged that he died in Georgia. It has been ascertained that this notice was without foundation—that no such peron died in Georgia—that the man whose name was appended to the nottice knew nothing of the affair. Dr. Carlton ran away from Lowell in February, and his whereabouts is not known. Dr. Carpenter is represented to have been a very respectable, steady man, had a wife and two children, and no reason whatever can be devised for thinking he ran away. He always appeared much attached to his family.

Mrs. Carpenter is now in Lowell seeking information of him, and a curious circumstance occurred there, June 3d, in connection with the matter. She was stopping at one of the hotels, and, on Monday, a fellow calling himself "Dr. S. Drew, a seventh son of a seventh son," whom the Brunswick (Me.) Telegraph publishes as a worthless character who does not pay his printer's and hotel bills, volunteered an acquaintance and told her that her husband was travelling in company with a Madame Young, and that some three months ago he was in jail in Bangor, where he saw him. He pretended to know all about him. Drew was visited by the police who became satisfied that no reliance could be placed in regard to him, although a letter has been dispatched to Bangor for information.

Mrs. Carpenter appears to be a very fine woman, and is in much distress over the matter. Any information that may tend to solve the mystery will be gratefully received by her.

Some who are now trembling for the 'freedom of debate,' we well remember, bore the shooting of Mr. Cilley, (simply for saying that James Watson Webb was not a gentleman,) with remarkable equanimity! There was very little fear for 'the freedom of debate' then! and very little sympathy for the death of one of the most estimable men who ever represented New England in the halls of Congress. Out upon such hypocrisy!—New Haven Register.

The inference or argument herein attempted, is weaker than dish-water. Cilley, (poor fellow,) was shot in a duel—not killed by an assassin who stole up to him and aimed the deadly blow. There is no parallel between his case and Sumner's. There would have been in Senator Wilson's, had he accepted Brooks' challenge, and fallen in a duel by his hand. Hear now, what the Boston Morning Post says in praise of Wilson.

The course of Senator Wilson, in declining to meet Mr. Brooks in deadly combat, and in reprobating this practice, is manly, and does him honor, and should receive the unqualified approbation of all who hold the practice of duelling in abhorrence.

If what the Boston Post here says be true, as we say it is, then the conduct of Mr. Cilley in accepting the challenge to fight the duel wherein he fell, was not manly and honorable, but merited disapprobation.

We say this to set history right;—not to defend ourselves—for we (Uncle Toby) reprobated the Graves and Cilley duel as decidedly as we do Brooks's assault on Sumner.

But the cases, as we suggest above, are so utterly different almost every way, as to give no color of plausibility to the remarks of the Register.

USELESS SERVILITY.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post narrates the following occurrence, which shows that the servility, manifested by some of the Massachusetts office holders, in sitting at the same festive board with a man who had so grossly insulted the State by outraging the person of one of its Senators, does not gain for them the regard nor respect of the very man they thought to flatter and conciliate:—

Brooks, during the past winter, had roomed at Willard's, next door to Comins, a Massachusetts representative, with whom he had formed a friendly intimacy. After the assault, Brooks extended his hand, which Comins hesitated to take. Brooks looked a little provoked at first, but after a moment's reflection, said, with manifest feeling: "Ah, Comins, you don't mean anything personal in that, do you? You're right in it; I should do just as you do."

A large number of exceptions.

We are justified in saying that the recent outrage at Washington is condemned as it deserves by all high minded and honorable men at the South—that the general feeling is one of disapproval.—Eastern Argus.

When the members of congress get back into their places, and vote on the subject, we shall see how many of them, north and south, are "high minded and honorable," on this construction of the Argus.

☞ Large numbers of our readers will probably attend the Mass Convention to be holden at Concord, tomorrow. To those who have no personal friends in that city, we take the liberty to suggest, that the Phenix Hotel is one of the best Hotels in the State, and the landlord, S. H. Dumas, one of the most agreeable of men. The table is always supplied with the luxuries of the season, and the attendance is good. The headquarters of Gov. Metcalf is at the Phenix.

PROGRESS.—A gentleman who has been for twenty years in the dry goods business, informs us that whereas eight yards was a full pattern for a lady's dress, when he first began to measure chints and silk, full twenty is now required for flounces and all. The change has been constantly to increase, till the dear creatures seem to have spread all the sail they can well carry. What next? will they take a reef, or run out studding sails?

☞ The recent great demand for Manilla rope is likely to affect the market, and cause an advance in the price. Large quantities are now used by the ladies in the manufacture of skir—bird cages.

ACCIDENT. — At Worcester, Ms., on the evening of June 6, cannon were fired in honor of Mr. Buchanan's nomination; and by a premature discharge, Lawrence McCleary was instantly killed, and a son of Edson Williams was badly wounded. Capt. Isaac Bartlett, the veteran cannoneer, lost a thumb by the accident.

M'Cleary, the man who was killed, was ramming down the charge when it suddenly went off, passing entirely through his body, tearing off one arm and mutilating him in a horrible manner. He was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a family.

EDUCATION IN MARYLAND.—The Baltimore Patriot, speaking of education in Maryland, says:

The head of every third family can neither read nor write. More than ten thousand men exercise the right of suffrage in Maryland who are utterly unable even to read the names of the candidates for whom they vote.

Owing to the success that has attended the Era since it was started, it becomes important, and almost necessary that two gentlemen should be associated in its publication. Some active young man capable of managing the financial interests would be preferred. Apply by letter, or otherwise.

APOSTOLIC BLOWS.—The St. Albans (Vt.) Journal of the 16th inst., relates that the Roman Catholic Bishop of Vermont recently visited High-gate for the purpose of obtaining the title to the church lately built there, and the land upon which it stands; but four Irishmen refusing to deed to him their interest in the church, he excommunicated them, and then sent for an axe and crowbar and tore the four pews up and threw them out of the ed fice.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it: if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

Thursday evening, the Appropriation bill was passed in the Board of Aldermen, after amending, by increasing the appropriation for streets $800—making $2000 in all; And by reducing the amount for schools $600—making $10,400.

FRIDAY evening, June 6.

Common Council.—The Appropriation Bill, came down from the Board of Aldermen, for concurrence in amendments. The Council concurred in the amendment in the item for streets, and non concurred in that for Schools.—Sent up.

Message received from Aldermen, that they adhered to their amendments.

Voted that the Council do not recede from their disagreement, and asked for a Committee of Conference.

The resolution appropriating $500 for celebrating independence, was read a second time and passed.

Aldermen.—Message from the Council received that they had concurred in one amendment and non-concurred in another.

Voted, that the Aldermen adhere to their amendment, and notified the Council.

Resolution appropriating $500 for the 4th, received and laid on the table.

Adjourned to Monday evening.

AN ANCIENT WELL.—The Messrs. Eldredge, who occupy the most northerly store in Merchants' Row, have been troubled, for a year or more, with water, which sometimes trickled through the wall next to Market St., and rose through the lower floor of their store, in some instances damaging the corn there deposited. They had tried in vain, to find the source of the trouble; until Saturday, morning last, when, as they were making repairs, they discovered a stone arch, high enough to admit a man upright, extending westwardly from the lower story of their store, about 10 feet under Market street, securely and thoroughly built and covered with stone. At the western extremity of this arch is a well, dug, nobody knows when or by whom, and very neatly stoned. Of the existence of this well, probably no person now living ever heard.

Workmen were busy on Saturday, in clearing out from the well a great accumulation of mud, which had been gathering there for no one knows how long.

The owner of the store has given the well to the city,—which will use it as a reservoir, in case of fire in that vicinity.

☞ The lime schooner Emerald, which was sunk in Piscataqua river a few weeks ago, has been raised and brought up to the wharf.—Mr. Christian Johnson agreed with the owner, Capt. Small, to raise her for $50; but expended that amount without starting the hulk. Rather than invest more money in the submarine craft, Capt. Small sold her as she lay, for $100, to Mr. Johnson, who has succeeded in getting his purchase where he can tell better whether he or the vessel has been the most "sold." Capt. Small requests us to return his sincere thanks to those citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity, who so liberally contributed of their means, to lighten the burden of his loss; especially to Messrs. J. M. Davis and A. J. Fitts, who interested themselves so successfully in his behalf.

CAMENEUM.—Bidwell & Marston's Dramatic Company open this evening, with a good bill. The press all round speaks highly of the company, as citizens and in their professional capacity; and from the opportunity we have had of judging, we should deem them the most meritorious company that has visited our city for a long time. In Newburyport the Herald says their audience were composed of the most respectable citizens. The Cameneum has been thoroughly cleansed, and is one of the best halls anywhere for seeing and hearing; and under the management of this Company, we doubt not, will regain much of its old popularity.

MRS BARROW, who was greeted with crowded houses in New-York last week, as she is everywhere, is to read or recite a finely selected programme of choice poems, at the Temple to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. All who appreciate true poetry and good elocution should be there.

SUCH IS FAME.—Gen. La Fayette visited Portsmouth in 1824. The coach which came first in the procession, from Newburyport to Portsmouth, and which has for some years been owned in Hampton, was sold at auction on Saturday, by G. W. Towle, for the humiliating sum of $18. Our friend Farwell of the Kennebunk stage-line, was the purchaser;—so passengers can imitate that devotee of freedom by riding in this coach, full as nearly as very many of his successors in America do in their political principles.—Capt. Towle also sold the carriage formerly used by the Peak Family bell-ringers, for $13; and an old chaise, which might have been made before the Revolution, sold for $7— not more than half the value of its experience.

PEOPLE'S CONVENTION AT CONCORD.

We understand that a train will leave this city for Concord on the 10th of June at SIX A.M. (not at 7 as has been published) in season to accommodate those who desire to attend the convention on that day. Fare, one way, return ticket free.

The convention meets at Phœnix Hall in Concord, at 11 A. M. The stirring events of the day will afford abundant subjects to give interest to the meeting, and we have no doubt that a large gathering will take place of those who are willing to lay aside all former party divisions and go for the principles of LIBERTY.

☞ The Rockingham County Conference of Congregational Churches will hold its annual meeting in the Congregational Church (Rev. W. T. Herrick's) in Candia, commencing on Tuesday, June 10th, at 10 o'clock A. M., and continuing two days.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

June 6, continued.—After the adjournment the Missouri delegation waited on the Illinois delegation, when Mr. Shields of Missouri presented to Richardson of Illinois a hickory stick, sent him as a gift from Stringfellow of Kansas.

Afternoon Session.—At the afternoon session a resolution pledging all the constitutional powers of the government to the construction of a road to the Pacific was adopted—yeas 205, nays 85.

First Ballot—Breckenridge of Kentucky 55, Quitmau 59, Boyd 33, Fitzpatrick 11, Brown 29, Herschel Johnson 31, Rusk 2, Bayard 31, Polk of Maine 5, John C. Dobbin 13.

HEROISM.—A barn belonging to James C. Loomis, Esq., at Bridgeport, Ct., was burned down on Tuesday evening, 1st inst. The Standard says:—

"A noble instance of presence of mind and courage was displayed by an Irish girl, in the employ of Mr. Loomis, who, when she discovered the fire, procured a knife—rushed to the stable, (the roof of which was enveloped in flames,) took off her apron, and placing it over the eyes of the horse, cut the halter by which he was fastened, and led him out.—The horse secured, she returned for the cow, returned again and succeeded in saving two carriages, which she rolled out and placed on the opposite side of the street; all this time neglecting her own trunk, which lay in an apartment of the building, but which, we are happy to know, was removed by some firemen, in a perfectly safe condition.

The fire was undoubtedly caused by the carelessness of a man, who, during the afternoon, had been employed in the building, and who had been seen smoking a pipe in the vicinity of the hay loft.

LEGISLATIVE TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of this Society was held on Wednesday evening, June 4, in the Representatives' Hall, Concord, at 7 o'clock. The following officers were elected for the present year;

Executive Committee—J. W. Ray, Derry;—G. M. Herring, Farmington; C. M. Dinsmore, Rindge; S. F. Buffum, Winchester;—M. C. Burleigh, Great Falls.

E. W. JACKSON, Secretary.

GEO. C. HUBBARD, Treasurer.

It was then—Resolved, To hold meetings of the Society on each Wednesday evening during the session, and that Hon G. M. Herring, J. W. Ray, and Samuel Upton, Esqs., be the speakers for the next meeting. Adjourned. E. W. JACKSON, Secretary.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—A trial term of this Court convened in Newport on Tuesday last, and adjourned sine die on Wednesday morning. The Grand Jury came into Court on Wednesday morning, and informed Judge Fowler, that after a session of one day, they had done no business themselves, and none for the county. Nobody had approached them with a single complaint. They were then discharged, as were also the petit jurors, after a few remarks from the Judge, congratulating them upon the moral and law-abiding spirit thus indicated. May not this favorable state of things be very justly attributable to our new and excellent temperance law?—Claremont Advocate.

A GOOD SIGN.—The Jail in Dover, which usually has a good supply of tenants, we are informed has been entirely empty for several weeks past. This speaks well for Strafford and Carroll counties, and also for the salutary effects of the new liquor law.—Dover Enquirer.

A good choir (and by the term 'choir' we do not mean a quartet, but a company of from forty to fifty singers, as the case may be, who statedly lead or perform the music of the church) is essential to the permanent continuance of good music in our churches, and those who talk of disbanding or dismissing the choir, and depending solely upon the congregation for the singing, are either entirely ignorant of the whole subject, or else are too indolent to take the necessary steps for the advancement of this part of worship.—Wm. B. Bradbury.

JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL.

THE next term of Mr. Pearson's Singing Class for young Misses, will commence On WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, June 11, at 3 o'clock, at EXCHANGE HALL, to be continued each Wednesday and Saturday afternoon. TERMS, $1 in advance, for the course. The Book used, (Baker's School Music Book,) may be had at the Hall.

While returning sincere thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him during his two years stay in Portsmouth,—the subscriber begs leave to draw the attention of parents who acknowledge the utility and value of musical knowledge, to the importance of early instruction in the art of Singing. In the absence of general lessons in music, which might well be given in all our public schools,—the juvenile singing school seems to be the best, if not the only available means of developing the young musical idea, and as such, well worthy of patronage.

This branch of the musical profession would seem to the appreciative teacher, to be one of the most attractive, agreeable and important, although one of the most arduous; and having the best accommodations for a large school, we shall be happy to meet all members of former classes, and as many others of the juveniles as would like the aid of the musical staff in their journey

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantageous inducements to Patentees superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be demanded by him in the case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof by him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, and ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies or claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY.
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the more capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OVER TWO MILLION ACRES

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the Southern portion of Illinois, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the new Prairies, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the product of these lands to a distance of hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at higher prices.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses by a distance, the market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands must be carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received for lands.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road at cost.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,

A SLAVE PURCHASED IN PLYMOUTH CHURCH, BROOKLYNN.—At the conclusion of the sermon yesterday morning, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher announced to his congregation that he was about to perform an action of a most extraordinary nature, which he would preface by reading a portion of the 12th chapter of Matthew. He accordingly read the 10th, 11th and 12th verses of that chapter, after which he proceeded to give a sketch of the later history of a slave girl, Sarah by name, an appeal in whose behalf he had lately received. She was, he said, the daughter of a Southern planter, acknowledged by himself as his own offspring, and reared in his own family until his other daughters growing up, had treated her so cruelly that—she attempted to escape. She was captured and taken back to her paternal master, who made immediate preparations to sell her to the extreme South, refusing to dispose of her to any one who would permit her to remain in the neighborhood. Many persons in the vicinity, knowing her to be a most faithful, efficient, and therefore valuable piece of "property," were anxious to purchase her, but the owner utterly refused to sell to them, his object being to have her removed to so great a distance that her near relation to the others of his children could occasion them no further mortification. She was accordingly, sold to a Southern man who held her at $1500—but who finally consented to part with her for $1200. A slaveholder in Washington, pitying the girl, bought her for the latter sum, immediately, however, setting on foot a subscription to enable her to purchase freedom,—he himself contributing $100, another man, also a slaveholder, gave $100, and $700 were finally obtained. "At this juncture," said Mr. Beecher, "I received a letter asking if we could do anything toward making up the rest of the money, to which I replied, that I would promise nothing unless we could see her here."

The reverend gentleman here stepped from his desk, and with an encouraging "Come up, Sarah," he led upon the platform a young intelligent-looking mulatto girl, whom he presented to the crowded audience as the slave girl in question.

She is apparently about 23 years old, probably three-quarters white, of very pleasing and modest appearance. Mr. Beecher seated her in a chair by his side, while he continued his remarks. She was here, he said, on her parole of honor. She had promised to go back, and she must return, either with or without the five hundred dollars which were yet necessary to make her a free woman. A collection would be taken up, and the result would show the verdict.

By this time there was hardly a dry eye in the whole immense congregation of nearly 3000 people. Men wept, and women sobbed not shamefacedly, but openly and without any attempt at concealment. All seemed to be touched to the very heart. The like scene has never been witnessed in the world. In a Christian land, on a Christian Sabbath, in the pulpit of a Christian Church, by the lips of a Christian minister, a trembling, shrinking girl begged from a christian people, money to save herself from a life of slavery and compulsory prostitution.

One gentleman here arose and announced that the money should be forthcoming to make her free, and that if necessary he would be personally responsible for the entire amount. This announcement was received with hearty and long continued applause, the audience being no longer able to restrain their feelings, and Mr. Beecher expressing his approval of the jubilant demonstration. Sarah, the slave girl, had, up to this time, preserved a tolerable composure—but when the certainty was declared that she should not go back to a life of slavery, she buried her face in her handkerchief and wept aloud. As the collectors passed among the audience, the plates were actually heaped up with the tokens of substantial sympathy, one lady even took the jewelry from her person and cast it into the fund. The amount collected on the spot was $784, which besides completing the sum necessary for the purchase of Sarah, will also rescue her child, a boy of four years, who is now in bondage.

DECREASE OF THE POPULATION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The population in the agricultural towns of New Hampshire is gradually decreasing. The fact appears from the last census, as compared with the census taken for the preceding decades up to 1800. By a careful examination of the chapter on County Officers in the New Hampshire Register, we learn that there are 107 towns in the State, whose population in 1850, amounted to 16,821 less than formerly.—These towns are distributed among the several counties as follows: In Rockingham 14 towns, decrease of population, 1,439; in Strafford, 6 towns, decrease, 1,176; in Belknap, 4 towns, decrease 799; in Carroll, 4 towns, decrease, 175; in Merrimack, 14 towns, decrease, 1,767; in Hillsboro', 19 towns, decrease, 3,908; in Cheshire, 12 towns, decrease, 2,857; in Sullivan 12 towns, decrease, 1,864; in Grafton, 21 towns, decrease, 2,510; and in Coos, 4 towns, decrease, 102.

The population of these towns in 1850, is severally compared with the largest population reported in any one previous decade.—In many of the agricultural towns the population was larger half a century ago, than it is now. In all of them, as a class, it was probably the largest in 1830, and has diminished the most rapidly since 1840. The causes of this decrease are well understood to be emigration, both to the manufacturing villages and cities of New England and to the West. The tide of emigration is now flowing towards the setting sun, and will sweep off, we predict, a larger number of our rural population, than at any former period.—Cong. Journal.

HAND ORGAN STATISTICS.—Robinson has been figuring up the statistics of hand-organs in New York. He concludes, after a patient investigation, that 4382 of those dulcet instruments are daily ground in the streets of New York,

He estimates that Casta Diva is performed upwards of twenty five thousand times per diem in the aggregate, and Old Dog Tray (that barcarole as John Brougham calls it,) over fifty thousand. The latter is the most popular one with the grinders, because it is the most profitable. "Grief cannot drive him away," but a shilling can, and most folks pay it cheerfully to have him move on.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber, late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by the subscriber, (instead of two-thirds as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials herewith given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on all legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, on the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from these to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a deep black, rich mould, from six to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken prairie, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one acre a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of those lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses than the Illinois Central, yet the cost of every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others yearly thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German. JOHN WILSON,

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co., Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a3 6m

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and that Lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. J. H. McFARLAND,

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH, May 23, 1856.

Dear F——, I addressed to you a long letter from Lawrence on the 12th inst., since which I have been over a considerable portion of this territory, and can safely say it is one of the finest tracts of land on this earth. I left Lawrence for Leavenworth on the 12th inst., and on the following morning started with a company of seven, on the Fort Riley road. Our conveyance consisted of a stout baggage wagon drawn by two yoke of strong oxen.—We carried a breaking up plough, hoes, shovels, spades, camping utensils, and two large tents, all purchased at Leavenworth.

We camped before sundown in the midst of a severe hail storm, which rattled on our tents "like peas on a shovel;" afterwards a heavy shower of rain fell, and, as our camp was on the side of a hill, we were in some danger of an inundation, but escaped with wet blankets and clothes. It rained nearly all night, and, as I was forced to sit up most of the time to look after the cattle, (who are very apt to take French leave at the first camp,) you may imagine my first impression of a border life was not very pleasant. However, we were all up with the sun, and after a hearty breakfast on ham and bread sliced with bowie knives, and washed down with coffee, drank from a pint dipper, without milk, we started again on our travels.

We made a long day's march and camped that night at Hartsville, which had a tavern, grocery, and about a dozen log cabins. One month ago there was not a house in the place.

Our tents were pitched on a grassy knoll, and the cattle turned loose to graze. One of our party piled logs before the tents and the fire blazed cheerfully. Having appointed a cook, he became very busy with coffee-pot and camp kettle.

A party of Englishmen were encamped at a short distance, and, by the noise, we judged they were pretty well charged with 'old rye;' but I will say nothing against them, for they came to our aid when we were up to the hub away up yonder on the prairie, and helped us out. I there learned my first lesson of 'putting my shoulder to the wheel,' for I 'toted' an oak rail on my back half a mile, and after hoisting out the team, took it back again.

A little episode in our camp life occurred that night. Some time after dark, a stranger lounged into our camp; and here let us say that when strangers meet they are not apt to be over communicative, in this country. After the usual salutations had passed, then not much was said, excepting guarded questions were put and parried alternately, until we learned that both were sound on the Question; then we ascertained that each had supposed the other party to be "Border Ruffians." The stranger proved to be a surveyor and a very fine gentleman. He was joined by others of his party, and we lingered until late around our camp fire, talking politics and 'spinning yarns'—we parted with regrets.

We reached Rock Creek the next night, after a ten miles march over the prarie, in a drenching rain, for in this section we must reach timber and water before halting. We enjoyed ourselves over a roasting fire, with a mug of steaming coffee in one hand and bacon and bread in the other.

The following morning we left the government road and struck across the country, piloted by a Mr. Wade, who harnessed his horses and conveyed us to a town site and mill privilege, he with others had located recently. It was about thirty miles from his 'claim.'—After a tiresome march we reached the spot, and I can truly say that I was doubly paid for the effort. Could I do justice to the place, I would describe it, but I cannot, it beggars description. Wood of all kinds abounds, black walnut, hackberry, maple, and what I saw at no other place, cedar. Adjoining is a tract of prairie, containing at least three thousand acres, as level as a floor, and hemming it in from the higher prairie is a splendid stone quarry. Here we were obliged to leave two of our party to prospect, and returned to this city for provisions. Shall return to them next week. We are now camped about two miles from Leavenworth.

A large grey wolf cantered directly by our tents, this morning, within gun shot, and disappeared in the timber—unfortunately our guns were stowed away in the wagon. We started after him, but he escaped.

Lawrence was attacked day before yesterday and the hotel destroyed—two men were killed; but as the reports are contradictory I will not now write more on the subject.

I write this on the grass in front of my tent, and, as it is now dark, will add no more.

Yours truly.

F. H. B.

BROOKS AND WEBB.—It is said that Brooks and Webb, have dined together at Washington, by special invitation of a mutual friend, and that they were on perfectly good terms together, no cause of offence existing.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

EXETER, June 9.

Messrs. Editors.:—The people of Exeter are not wholly deprived of public amusements, although, of late, they have been few and far between. On Wednesday evening last we attended the unrolling of the panorama illustrating Bunyan's matchless allegory of Pilgrim's Progress, and, although somewhat prejudiced against paintings of this kind, we have seldom passed a more pleasant or profitable evening in a public hall, than this proved to be. The train of thought, alone, awakened in one's mind, must have produced good in the case of all save the idle and foolish.—Many of the scenes were remarkably fine, and some particularly so.

Although a heavy thunder-shower commenced just previous to the opening of the doors, a good audience was present. During this shower, a large elm standing between two houses and within a few feet of each, on the Plains, was struck with lightning, but the fluid passed into the ground, doing no damage further than stripping off a narrow piece of bark from the tree.

Goodwin is again in the field, with another great and useful invention. This time he has "Goodwin's Grand Tobaccojuice and Quintessence of Quicksilver, the great American remedy for the Clinex Sectularius—G. G. T. & Q. of Q." Although he deals in tobacco of all kinds, he seems to entertain no very exalted idea of its benefits to man.—The muse is invoked, and she states that only three animals use tobacco, viz. man, the African rock goat, and the tobacco worm.

"The first is man, who snuffs, and smokes and chews,
What even swine with anger will refuse;
Yet does not he, who on it most doth dote,
Dare let a particle go down his throat,
But from his mouth its poison juice ejects,—

[The G. G. T. & Q. of Q. is a bed-bug poison.]

The cause of humanity must surely be progressing. On Saturday afternoon fifty heavy rounds were fired, and the bells rang a merry peal in honor of the nomination of Buchanan & Breckenridge, and not of the election of Gov. Metcalf, as the News Letter erroneously states.* On the same night an effigy, labelled "Brooks the Assassin" was suspended from a tree on the common, and after remaining there through Sunday, was taken down last evening.

We understand that active preparations are being made for the celebration of the Fourth of July, but have been unable to ascertain what will be the order of the exercises, further than that there will be an orator, and that a company of "Fantastics" consisting of one hundred and fifty members will parade in the morning.

Rev. Mr. Lassell, having accepted the invitation of the First Congregational Society of this place to become their pastor, will be installed on Thursday afternoon, June 19th.

G. P.

[*The News-Letter only coupled the events together, without stating any connexion.—Eds. Chron.]

DISGRACEFUL.—The only comment which the N. H. Statesman has to offer in regard to the infamous effigy outrage, is the following:

It is sad to know that our country and its institutions have been so wronged by men in power as to produce that state of feeling amongst an injured people which vents itself in such displays as the one here recorded.

This is utterly disgraceful. It is not only a virtual approval and justification of the infamous transaction, but it recognizes it as the work of the people—"an injured people"—meaning thereby the opponents of the Democracy.—N. H. Daily Patriot.

When the account first came of the cowardly attack on Sumner at Washington, the Patriot used nearly the same language in regard to that matter, as the Statesmrn now uses in regard to the effigies. This language of the Patriot we here copy for the purpose of comparison:

But while we say and feel this, we must also say that Sumner's speech was of such a character as to provoke the result which has followed, and it seems to have been designed for that purpose. * * * The natural result followed; and while we cannot too severely denounce the assault, it is proper at the same time to denounce the provocation with equal severity.

The Patriot claims that it does not 'justify' that brutal assault, in this language. But if this does not justify it, will the reader be so kind as to see whether the Statesman justifies any body?—A short memory is very convenient for some people.

A DISCOVERY.—Late heavy rains at Jamaica have washed up an instrument of torture made of iron hoops and screws, so constructed as to fit the largest or smallest person;—attached to it are manacles for the hands.—The inside of the knee bars and the resting places for the soles of the feet are studded with spikes. When found, the perfect skeleton of a negress was enclosed in the instrument.

This is indeed the discovery of a relic. If some deeds of our day could be buried, as was this machine, they would surprise the men who should dig them up an hundred years hence. Our deeds, however, cannot be buried, but the record and example of them will go down to posterity for evil or for good.

Drunkenness, so common in cold countries, is a rare vice among the Greeks; they are great drinkers, but water drinkers. They would have scruples about passing a fountain without drinking at it, but if they enter a tavern, it is to chatter. The coffee houses are full of people, at all hours; but the customers do not take strong liquors—they ask for a cup of coffee at a penny a cup, a glass of water, light a cigar, and with a newspaper and dominoes, they have enough to keep themselves occupied all day.

MELANCHOLY DEATH.—Wednesday night last, Mrs Mary Cooper, wife of Edward Cooper, in Andover, Mass., got up during the night in a somnambulistic state, took a tub, a pail and washboard, and went to a pond in the rear of the house, where her dead body was subsequently found. In the early part of the night she awoke and said she had been dreaming of working hard.

The late John M. Niles of Hartford left $20,000 for the use of the poor of that city, one-half the income to be applied to the purchase of fuel and the other half to the payment of rents. The judge left $70,000 in all, and his executor is Gideon Welles.

SEIZURE.—The Brig Bremen, from New York, which cleared for St. Thomas, was seized in the Bay, on suspicion of being a slaver: her crew and two Portuguese pasengeres found on board, are in custody. She was commanded by A. E. Delano, Jr., but had a crew of Portuguese.

An editor out West says:—"If we have offended any man in the short but brilliant course of our career, let him send us a new hat and say nothing about it."

We say amen! to that,
So does our shocking hat.

LOCAL.

SINGING.—It will be seen that Mr. Pearson commences a term of his Juvenile Singing School this (Wednesday) afternoon; and all who have the welfare of the youngsters at heart, will do well to improve the opportunity. Now is the best season of the year, and this the only school of the sort we have had in the city for a long time, we believe. It will hardly be questioned, we take it, that a more general dissemination of musical knowledge—at least so far as would enable all or most to read common church music—would be of beneficial tendency; and we know of no better way of doing this, than to fill the juvenile singing schools—not one quarter, or one year, but continually and successively, as in other ordinary schools.

Why may not all children learn to sing, as well as to read, write or cipher? we believe they can be taught the one as successfully as the other. But whether or not they can all appreciate musical instruction,—it is certain that some of them can; and the more singers we have, the better. We believe there are far less singers in Portsmouth to-day than there were twenty years ago—and this, not for want of interest in musical matters, but because of the discontinuance of the Parish singing-schools, and the falling off in the attendance on other singing schools more recently—and perhaps, also, the unfortunate want of union of action in some of our musical teachers, may have contributed something to this effect. Whatever the cause, we regret it very much, and should be glad to see every available means for improving this state of things made the most of. That there is not less interest in music than formerly, is proved by the fact that vastly more money is now invested in pianos, books, instruction, &c., than was deemed necessary a few years ago. But don't let us have less singers or poorer singing, on any account.

Mr. Pearson has continued his Juvenile School for about two years—more from the desire to increase the number of singers, than from pecuniary consideration—for any except very large schools must be less profitable than other branches of the musical profession. And parents and children have been fully satisfied with his method of instruction. He has the best facilities for accommodating and instructing a large school—and ought to have at least one hundred scholars. There are certainly three or four hundred children in Portsmouth, who would be benefited by receiving musical instruction in some such school. Mr. Pearson has ever shown himself ready, able and willing to aid any movement in his line, public or private, whenever called upon; and has done much here to create an interest in music. For one, he is eminently worthy of the confidence and patronage of the musical public—and we are glad to know he has both in no small degree. See his advertisement,—and count out the children for this afternoon.

"POOR OLD HORSE."—We were much astonished, a day or two since, (as no doubt many of our readers will be,) to hear that the old bay horse 'Billy,' once and long the stylish and serviceable family horse of the late James Rundlett, Esq., — that we supposed had long since gone to the shades of horses—'still lives;' and this not in any imaginary or 'spiritual' sense, but as of old, only a deal thinner, and not quite so good looking.—Twenty-four years ago he was purchased in Boston, by Mr. Rundlett, for a lady's saddle-horse—he being then, it was thought, about 20, and sufficiently experienced to be steady and safe. For many years he served as the family horse of his owner, and will be remembered by many of our citizens, but of late years, having been supplanted by a younger rival, he has done but little. A grandson of his first owner here, (and grandson also to the prime of the old horse) has driven him a few times during the past winter; but 'his work is now most done'—soon all that will be left of old Billy, will be the memory of his faithfulness and long service. Billy is thought by his owner, to be forty years old or upwards—horses being like men, (or rather women) in this respect at least, that when they reach old age, it is no disgrace or disparagement to allow them their full years.

☞ The ancient well in Market street, in front of the Messrs. Eldredge's store, belonged to the House of Capt. Robert Parker, who lived on that spot before the great fire of 1802.—Its existence, we find, was known to some persons, though not to the owners or occupants of the store.

FOURTH OF JULY, it appears, is to be postponed again this year. Our Board of Aldermen, on Monday evening, refused to concur with the Common Council, in appropriating $500 for celebrating the Fourth—so all we shall have, probably, will be the bells and guns. There has been but little spirit manifested here in this matter, since our unapproached 'Sons' celebration in 1853; and this year there seems to be less than ever. There is, perhaps a sort of general conviction that most anything else we could do would compare unfavorably with the great turn-out, while some 'fanatics' would sooner toll all the bells and hoist the flags at half-mast, than make any demonstration of joy, on the 4th of July,—considering that it is by no means a sure thing that America is a free country.—So the mountain may go to Mahomet this time—and we can all help our Exeter friends enjoy their celebration, if they have one—concerning which see our correspondent's letter.

P. S.—Since the above was written, we are requested to state that a meeting of citizens in favor of publicly celebrating the Fourth of July, will be held at the City Missionary room on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All interested are invited.

MASS CONVENTION AT CONCORD.

Agreeably to an announcement, we have published in the papers, a very large number of the citizens of New Hampshire assembled at Concord, to select delegates to the National Convention to be holden at Philadelphia on the 17th inst.

The meeting was organized by choosing Geo. W. Nesmith, of Franklin, President.

Ten Vice Presidents, one from each county, and three Secretaries were also chosen.

The President, on taking the chair, briefly addressed the meeting, stating the objects of the gathering, and urging the necessity, at this time of a bold protest against the aggressions of the slave power, by the people of this State.

The meeting was addressed by Hon. Amos Tuck, James W. Emery, Esq., Joel Eastman, Esq., Hon. John P. Hale, Jesse Mann of Bath, Mr. James of Deerfield, and Prentiss of Keene.

The resolutions were then unanimously adopted, as reported by the committee except the last, which was amended, on motion of Mr. Emery, by the addition of the words "And we hereby" &c.

This last resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That we recognize in the heroic and patriotic achievements of Col. John C. Fremont, the man for the hour; and, in behalf of New Hampshire, we hereby present his name to the country, as one eminently fitted to rally the united vote of a united people, and to bring back the government to the policy of the fathers. And we hereby recommend to the delegates this day chosen, to use all honorable means to procure the adoption by other conventions and political organizations of the nomination of Mr. Fremont to that high office; hereby pledging ourselves to the support of any man who may be elected by the National Convention at Philadelphia as the candidate of the great body of those opposed to the extension of slavery.

At noon the convention adjourned, to meet in the afternoon in the State House Yard.

In the afternoon, the vast concourse was addressed by Mr Stowell and Dr. Cutter, both recently from Kansas, in behalf of the persecuted settlers in that territory. Their appeal to the sympathy of the audience for substantial aid was liberally answered.

The meeting was further addressed by Ex-Gov. Kent of Maine, Gen. Nye of New York, Hon. John P. Hale, and Hon. M. W. Tappan, who was speaking when the train left, at which time the list of delegates had not been reported.

The meeting was very large and exceedingly spirited. Every man present seemed fully impressed with the responsibility resting on him to prevent the further aggressions of slavery.

KANSAS NEWS.

CHICAGO, June 9th.—The latest dates confirm the intelligence of a fresh outbreak of hostilities. Capt. Pattis's company having been overpowered by a force of the free state men, Gen. Whitfield had left Westport on the night of the 2d, at the head of one hundred men in pursuit. They were supposed to be about forty miles from Westport on the Santa Fe road. Col. Sumner also left for the scene of disturbance with eight companies of dragoons.

The Chicago Tribune has a letter dated Lawrence, May 31, which states that the free state settlers are in imminent peril; that forces from Missouri are again invading the territory, and the farmers have been obliged to organize companies to guard their property against bands of marauders.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—The accounts taken from an extra of the Kansas City Enterprise (pro-slavery) and telegraphed from here, that 9 Abolitionists and 3 pro-slavery men were killed in an encounter between a band of 150 Abolitionists and Capt. Pattis's company; proves to be an exaggeration. Capt. Pattis and McGee, reported dead, are alive, and but two or three persons were killed in all. Capt. Pattis's company was captured, the free state party being greatly superior in numbers.—Gen. Whitfield with one hundred men has gone to their rescue.

CIVIL WAR IN KANSAS.—Lawrence, June 5. An open field battle took place at Palmyra on the 2d, P M. Parties nearly equal. The pro-slavery men were a roving band under Capt Patte, correspondent of the Missouri Republican. Five of his men surrendered, with 25 horses and mules, arms and ammunition, two drums, and a large quantity of articles stolen at the sacking of Lawrence.

The U S troops knew of the battle, but did not interfere. The free state settlers clustered to Palmyra, and 100 got there after the battle was over. The U States troops went down next day to disperse the free state men and release the prisoners.

Another attack was made on Franklin, where the Missourians had assembled in force, with a cannon and ammunition. Only one of their companies got there, and they were short about fifteen men. After twenty minutes, the small party retreated.

Civil war exists here. The troops are here in force, but have done nothing yet but help Gov. Shannon to get Sharpe's rifles. Judge Lecompton has failed to go to Lecompton to examine the prisoners on their plea for bail.

JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL.

THE next term of Mr. Pearson's Singing Class for young Misses, will commence ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, June 11, at 3 o'clock, at EXCHANGE HALL; to be continued each Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

TERMS, $1 in advance, for the course. The Book used, (Baker's School Music Book,) may be had at the Hall.

While returning sincere thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him during his two years stay in Portsmouth,—the subscriber begs leave to draw the attention of parents who acknowledge the utility and value of musical knowledge, to the importance of early instruction in the art of Singing. In the absence of regular lessons in music, which might well be given in all our public schools,—the juvenile singing school seems to be the best, if not the only available means of developing the young musical idea, and as such, well worthy of patronage.

This branch of the musical profession would seem to the appreciative teacher, to be one of the most attractive, agreeable and important, although one of the most arduous; and having the best accommodations for a large school, we shall be happy to meet all members of former classes, and as many others of the juveniles as would like the aid of the musical staff in their journey

DEALERS in our lead are cautioned against buying the following brand for "Jewett & Son's perfectly pure lead,"

"JEWETT & SONS' pure lead ground by J. M. WHITTIER, warranted pure, 4 Long Wharf, Boston."

An article branded as above has been analyzed by Professor Chitten of New York, who reports it largely adulterated. But the pure lead is marked

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF LOTTERIES, BALTIMORE, Oct 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north-east, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lying within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, in gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly-broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses in Kansas to market is far greater, and every hundred miles of intervening lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted navigation communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the form which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $6 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

MR. DOUGLAS'S PLATFORM.—The Platform adopted by the late convention in Cincinnati, is sufficiently pro-slavery to suit Mr. Douglas, the chief engineer of the Nebraska iniquity and folly. He endorsed it in a dispatch from Washington, June 5,—thus:

"I have just read so much of the platform as relates to the Nebraska bill and slavery question. The adoption of that noble resolution by the unanimous vote of all the States accomplishes all the objects I had in view in permitting my name to be used before the Convention.

Will the readers, in New Hampshire and Maine, please to remember that this same man was the mover of the act to repeal the Missouri compromise—and that his object is the extension of slavery.

Hear him further:

At a democratic meeting to ratify the nomination of Buchanan, held at Washington Saturday evening, Mr. Douglas made a speech in the course of which he eulogized the patriotism and firmness of the President on the leading issues of the day, and claimed for him a bright page in his country's history.—He rejoiced that "his own course on the Kansas and Nebraska question had been endorsed by the noble resolves of the Convention.—The democracy, he said, throughout our widely extended Union, would go to work in the good cause."

Who should understand the resolves better than Mr. Douglas himself? And who should better understand his own course?

He understands that the platform, its nominee, and all the men who vote for it and him; endorse Douglas and the Nebraska swindle, though they have dropped President Pierce, without whose aid Douglas and his bill would have stuck fast in the mud.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Boston Bee states, that Hazen Dorr, of Boston, a student at Harvard College, and a member of the Sophomore class, was found dead on the floor of his room, Saturday morning. On Friday evening some of his classmates visited him, and found him in his usual good health, though somewhat fatigued by severe exercise at rowing during the morning. They left him at 11 1-2 P. M., and a classmate calling Saturday morning, for the purpose of accompanying him to morning prayers, found him stretched upon the floor, with his coat off, apparently lifeless. The indications were that he had died some three hours previously, probably from congestion of the brain. The family of the deceased reside in Mt. Vernon street. He was but 18, and is represented as a young man of much promise. The Bee remarks, "It is sad that some of the 'college customs' should lead to results like this."—We suppose the reference here made, is to convivial habits; leading to intemperance.—These, joined with severe exercise, under undue excitement, are enough to lead to fatal results.

PRESIDENT LORD.—A "Student" of Dartmouth College writes that, "several of the Abolition prints have been set in quite a flutter by the story that Dr. Lord is about to resign his position as President of Dartmouth College. They are very jubilant over what they consider a good riddance, and take fresh occasion to heap abuse upon this estimable man. Now for their especial comfort, I am able to say, on perfectly reliable authority, the story is utterly false. I know, too, that the President was never more popular among the students than he is to-day. Some of his opinions are not accepted, but as a college officer and a man, he has the full respect ...

POLITICAL INTIMIDATION. Under this head, we find in the Newburyport Herald, the following excellent article, which we suppose, from its tone as well as its signature, was written by the Rev. Dr. Withington.

Some people can hardly believe that the recent outrage on Charles Sumner is a part of a fixed scheme of political intimidation on the part of the South. They are rather disposed to regard it as an incident, enormous because it is singular and disgraceful to Brooks, and a real misfortune to his party. It is an ebullition of personal violence. We have reasons for holding a different view. We believe it has been for years a part of their fixed policy. It is certainly no new thing. Fifty years ago, we heard a very respectable Senator from Connecticut complain that he was constantly met by this attempted intimidation. He was a clergyman's son, and had received a Puritan education, and of course was no duellist. He found himself therefore in some difficulty. He took precisely the same ground which General Wilson has taken; he was prepared to refuse a challenge; and he wore pistols, prepared to encounter the bully who should meet him with the cane. Mr. Clay's conduct to Dr. Milner,—when he was in Congress, before taking orders—is related in the life of the latter. It was an excessive instance of intimidation. We remember to have heard our townsman, Mr. Cushing, say, some thirty years ago, that some Curtius was needed from the North to leap into this horrid gulf. Such was his consciousness of the evil, and such was his expression. Now when we read the language of a majority—may we not say!—of Southern leaders on the recent outage, can we doubt that it is part of a system? It arises from the nature of the case. It is not individualism, but systematic aggression. It is a part of the policy of the most of that section of the Democrats who come from the South. Hotspur cannot reason—he is ready to fight.

L. W.

PIERCE, DOUGLAS AND BUCHANAN.—The ratification procession at Washington, on Friday night last, went to the White House to carry the agreeable tidings of Buchanan's nomination. President Pierce congratulated the democracy that they were to have a better president, and said:—

My friends will have duties to perform in the canvass which my position alone prevent me from attempting to fulfil in person. It is never to be forgotten by me that in 1852, older and better soldiers (cries from the multitude, "not better") than myself, Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Cass, men, who had been faithful and tried leaders through many years of labor and conflict, were passed by, to call me from the retirement which I had sought, and to which I shall return without regret. May I not add, gentlemen, if life be spared, I shall go back to the State of my birth with a consciousness of having adopted no single measure of public policy during my administration which I did not believe to be demanded by the best interests of my country, nor one which does not to-night command the approbation of my judgment and my conscience.

The conduct of those older and better soldiers of whom I have spoken, and of the younger, but nevertheless better soldier, Judge Douglas, who I am glad to see standing by the great and good man, General Cass, who for so many years has had not merely my confidence and respect, but my affection, will never cease to be gratefully remembered by me. They were all in the field, not merely to encourage and direct, but actually to lead the columns.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

The amount of business transacted by the General Court on Tuesday, was small. A short session only, was held on that day, on account of the Mass Convention, which a majority of the members wished to attend.

In the Senate an Address for the removal of John H. George from the office of County Solicitor, passed—8 to 3.

In the House numerous petitions and notices of intention to offer bills, were read; among them, a Bill entitled, "An act to amend sec. 9, Chap. 25, of the compiled Statutes, prohibiting students at colleges, academies and other literary institutions, from the exercise of the elective franchise."

This bill was referred to the Com. on the Judiciary. The other business transacted was of but little consequence.

PROPHETIC!—An opinion from the Lowell Advertiser of March 11th, 1856:

An Opinion.—That President Pierce will be re-nominated at the Cincinnati Convention on the first ballot, that HE will be re-elected, carrying every state in the Union except Massachusetts, with more than one chance in three of carrying that. Such are the present prospects. Let all black republicans, know nothings, traitors, look over the field and howl!

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Loring Cushing, a highly esteemed citizen of Hingham, 77 years of age, died instantly while sitting in his pew in the "old meeting house," in that town, at the commencement of the religious services on Sunday afternoon.

RETURNING.—The Newburyport Herald says:—

We learn that some of the Kansas emigrants from this section are about to return home. A letter dated Topeka, May 21st, says, that Mr. Enoch Chase had sold his claim for that purpose, for $800; and Capt. Jacob B. Chase was about to sell. They say things look dark in Kansas—robberies and murders are common. The Missourians had shot down Eastern settlers in the roads, and threaten to burn the place. Whether the people would defend it was not then certain.

FROM KANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—An extra of the Westport Times of the 5th says that reliable news has been received of the burning of the town of Bernard by the free state forces, on the night of the 3d inst., and the destruction of from $12,000 to $15,000 worth of property.

A company of six men had arrived at Westport, stating that at 3 o'clock on the morning of the 4th, the Abolitionists attacked and captured Franklin. They numbered 300, and were opposed by only 12 or 15 pro-slavery men. Mr. Fishmaker and two others are reported killed. The men who made the report belonged to Capt. Fleming's company of emigrants, who, they say, fought against the Abolitionists for an hour, but, being outnumbered, fled when the town was taken.

The Independence, Mo., correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing under date of June 5, says:—

"Marshal Donaldson and four men who had been discharged from official duty, were killed near Hickory Point on the 3d inst. The Marshal was in the act of arresting some of the men who had attacked Capt. Patti's Company.

After the surrender of Capt. Patti's company, the Free Soilers commenced the work of destroying the houses, and driving men, women and children from their houses near Hull Creek. 150 men, under Capt. Reed, left Santa Fe in pursuit of the marauders, but Col. Sumner arrived at Black Jack in time to prevent a conflict.

It is reported that Franklin was not taken, though attacked by a large party of Abolitionists.

Governor Shannon issued a proclamation on the 14th, commanding all persons belonging to military companies unauthorised by law to disperse, otherwise they would be dispersed by force of the United States troops.—The proclamation requires all civil officers of the government to be vigilant in enforcing the laws against offenders, and protecting the property and persons of all law abiding citizens. The proclamation further says that all aggressive parties from outside the territory will be repulsed; that the military force under control of the Executive is ample to enforce the laws and protect the rights of citizens. The proclamation of President Pierce of Feb. 11 is appended, and notice given that it will be strictly enforced.

A requisition has been made on Col. Sumner for a sufficient force to insure obedience to the proclamation.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A party of pro-slavery men, including a son of Gov. Shannon, made a night attack on the house of Captain, Walker, five miles from Lecompton Battery, were repulsed, and young Shannon taken prisoner. He was released the following day, after which Shannon took a company of United States Dragoons, and spent two days in searching the houses of Free State men, taking possession of all the arms, ammunition, &c., which could be found.

A man who arrived here this afternoon, from Kansas City, says a general rendezvous of pro-slavery men is appointed at Bull Creek, preparatory to another attack on Lawrence. Gen. Whitfield is to command. They expect to concentrate 600 men before starting. The men are mostly furnished with United States muskets. The Free State men are deficient in arms and provisions.

THE ORGAN QUESTION IN SCOTLAND.—The Scotch Presbyterian Synod has recently discussed the question of allowing the use of organs in its churches on a petition from a congregation in Glasgow. Several motions were made, but the following, proposed by Dr. Thomson of Edinburgh, was carried by a large majority:

That inasmuch as the use of instrumental music in public worship is contrary to the uniform practice of this church, and of the other presbyterian churches of this country, and would seriously disturb the peace of the churches under the inspection of this synod, the synod refuses the petition of the memorialists, and at the same time enjoin sessions to employ all judicious measures for the improvement of vocal psalmody.

FACTS.—Mr. Peck, editor of the Portland Journal, lately visited Belfast, and thus:

The trial of Brown of Isleboro, for the murder of his wife, had just been concluded when we arrived here. The verdict of the jury is,—guilty of murder in the first degree. A plea of insanity was set up by Brown's counsel, Hon. Geo. Evans, Attorney General for the State, who we are told made a very able argument. This, as many of our readers know, was a most cold blooded murder. And how shall we account for its perpetration? Rum! This tells the story. Who ever knew a murder without rum as the cause? It is known that Brown spent many hours about the grog shops of Belfast, that he took home a quart of rum the day he committed the crime; and that a short time prior to the deed, he drank a large quantity of the maddening fluid.—Brown, then, is not alone the guilty party.—The rumseller of Belfast who sold him that "distilled damnation" is a guilty participant in this heaven-daring crime. But our State now licenses the traffic! Murder may henceforth be committed according to law. Let the temperance fanatics hereafter keep silent! The traffic that manufactures three fourths of the crime and pauperism of the State is now a legal business!

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—Coroner Binney of Weymouth, held an inquest on the body of Thomas Toobill on Sunday last.—The deceased, in company with three other persons, went on Monday, the 2d inst., in a boat down Fore river, as far as Quincy Point, where they procured some liquor, and after drinking pretty freely, undertook to row back, but being unacquainted with boating, they found some difficulty in doing so, and in an attempt to land, the deceased slipped into the water and was drowned. He leaves a wife and one child. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Very common facts they are, and very sad.

Thomas D'Arcy McGee, editor of the Celt, wrote a letter to the President of the Cincinnati Convention, demanding the expulsion of the murderer Herbert, of California. Herbert was one of the delegates; and no notice was taken of McGee's letter.

EXPLOSION.—Montreal, June 10th.—The steamboat of the Grand Trunk Co. exploded at Longueuil to-day.

The explosion occurred about half past 1 o'clock, and the boat is a complete wreck.—Her boiler has blown an immense distance. The wharf and everything in the neighborhood is completely shattered. The works of the boat were entirely new, and were under the charge of the builders and engineer at the time. The train had just arrived, filled with passengers, who had been transferred to the boat.

Passengers who were on board, state that the number killed must be upwards of 20, and the wounded not less than 30 or 40.

Immediately after the explosion, the boat sunk.

NEW YORK, June 11th.—The Washington correspondent to the Tribune says: Senator Crittenden's proposition to send Gen. Scott to Kansas, produces considerable sensation, as it is looked upon as a southern protest against slavery outrages. An amendment is under consideration, declaring the territorial enactments void.

We have an important rumor that Mr. Fillmore declines, and avows himself in favor of a Northern candidate, conservative on slavery.

The Tribune says Padre Vijil, the Nicaraguan Envoy, has determined to leave the country, and will take passage in the steamer of the 20th.

"If you are Coming, Why do you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every loud motive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family. "If you are coming, why don't you come along?" It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred ways. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons as the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along." Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?" If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from
Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,
Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.
It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the sole that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

Both Boards adjourned to Thursday evening, 19th.

PRESENTATION.—On Wednesday evening, 11th inst., Benj. F. Chandler, Esq., Engineer at the Navy Yard, was agreeably surprised by a presentation visit (at his home in this city) from a deputation of the mechanics on the Yard; who, through Mr. Henry Whittemore, tendered him the most gratifying assurances of their confidence and esteem—as a token of which they desired his acceptance of a handsome Silver Cup. Mr. Whittemore accompanied the presentation with a very neat speech in behalf of the men; and Mr. Chandler, who was taken entirely by surprise, replied impromptu in the happiest manner.

CARD.—The undersigned returns his sincere thanks to those "employed in the Engineer's department on the Navy Yard," for the beautiful peice of silver plate presented to him on the evening of the 11th inst., and for the expressions of regard and confidence with which it was accompanied. B. F. CHANDLER.

Portsmouth, June 12, 1856.

MRS. BARROW'S readings or recitations at the Temple on Tuesday evening, received the fullest approval and highest encomiums of a large and appreciative audience. Her varied and difficult programme was gone through with in a scholarly manner—everything being rendered appropriately, without the over-acting usual with less talented or less experienced readers.—It will be seen by our advertising columns, that another opportunity of hearing her, (and seeing her in the costume of Minnehaha,) will be afforded at the Temple this (Thursday) evening. The portions of Hiawatha recited by her were selected by the author, and in their presentation she has won the applause of thousands.

☞ All who wish to celebrate the Fourth of July, should attend the meeting at the City Mission Room, over R. K. Oxford's store, State street, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

☞ Bidwell & Marston's Dramatic Company at the Cameneum, is said to be the best that has visited Portsmouth for many years. See bill for to-night.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June 10.

SENATE. — Mr. Crittenden of Kentucky submitted a resolution requesting the President, in view of the difficulties existing in Kansas, and the employment of military force for the restoration of law, peace, and harmony there, to send Gen. Scott to take command of those forces.

In the course of his remarks he said that Gen. Scott carried in his left hand the sword, and in his right hand, peace, gentle peace, and, by his voice, trumpet-toned, will do more than a thousand bayonets. His (Crittenden's) object was to put an end to war and anarchy in Kansas.

Mr. Mason of Virginia was not now prepared to vote either for or against the resolution, and asked that it might lie over until to-morrow. While entertaining the highest respect for the patriotism and judgment of the Senator from Kentucky, he did not think the condition of things in Kansas called for the course proposed.

Mr. Crittenden replied, that, as Gen. Scott was an old man, the President might feel some reluctance in ordering him on that distant service; but, in his opinion, the Senate ought to endeavor to contribute to the promotion of peace in Kansas.

Mr. Seward was in favor of sending Gen. Scott there, but thought it would be as well to do it by joint resolution. He also suggested that the preamble to Mr. Crittenden's proposition be omitted, as the facts therein set forth are well known to the President and the country.

Further consideration of the resolution was postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Foster offered a resolution, directing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into expediency of authorizing the issue of a register to the British built bark Resolute, which was abandoned by that government, and found derelict in the Arctic Ocean, by the American whaleship George Henry, and by her brought into the port of New London, where she is now lying, all claim to said vessel by the British government having been relinquished to the sailors.

Mr. Mason proposed that the vessel be purchased by government, re-fitted, and sent back to the British government as a present.

Mr. Foster of Connecticut expressed gratifaction at this suggestion, and in order that it might be carried out, he withdrew his resolution. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Burlingame presented the resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature, concerning the assault on Senator Sumner.—Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

121 members were present, but as many had paired off with absentees, the House adjourned.

THURSDAY, 11th.

The Massachusetts resolutions on the Sumner assault was laid before the Senate, upon which Mr. Butler had a few words to say.—He called them a foregone conclusion, an insulting mockery, and finally moved they be laid on the table and printed. Agreed to.

HOUSE.—In the House, a message was received from the President, in reply to a question, touching the action of the Peace Conference on the privateering question. The President says he has received no official information on the subject.

DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA.—At the Mass Convention held at Concord on Tuesday the Committee on Delegates reported the following list:—At large, Amos Tuck, William M. Weed, Dan'l Clark, Benjamin Pettengill, Levi Chamberlain, and Daniel Blaisdell. District 1, James W. Emery, Geo. B. Folsom, H. A. Spear; 2, Geo. G. Fogg, Charles H. Gage of Nashua, Austin F. Pike; 3, John H. White, Alvah Smith, Greenleaf Cummings.

WHEREAS the old issues upon which parties formerly divided have become merged, for the time, in the greater issue of the predominance of Slave Labor and Slave Institutions over Free Labor and Free Institutions, in all the vast Territories belonging to our Union; and whereas recent events in our National Legislature, and in the conventional action of the party which supports the present National Administration, evince a determination to make this the controlling issue in the approaching Presidential election;—therfore—

Resolved, That the State of New Hampshire, by her early history, and the recorded sentiments of her Revolutionary patriots; by her support of the Jeffersonian Ordinance of 1787; by her solemn Legislative Protest against the admission of Missouri as a Slave State in 1820; by her unanimous support of the Wilmot Proviso, at a later period; by her Republican principles, institutions and instincts; by her love of liberty, justice and human progress, and her hatred of tyranny and wrong — stands immovably committed against the extension of Slave Labor and Slave Institutions over the Free Territories of this Continent.

Resolved, That the policy of the present National Administration and its supporters is at war with, and subversive of all the well established principles of the founders of our Republic; and that unless that policy is speedily arrested by the strong arm of a free people, our government must soon become a consolidated despotism, inspired by the single idea of devotion to human slavery.

Resolved, That in the crimes and outrages recently and now being committed by the upholders of the Slave Power in Kansas, we see the legitimate results of that act which repealed the Missouri Restriction, and the patriotic foresight of our fathers, who provided that in all that vast and fertile region "slavery and involuntary servitude should be forever prohibited."

Resolved, That the only obvious and certain remedy for the evils and wrongs that now afflict the people of that Territory, and threaten to involve our whole country in the horrors of civil war, is a change of the National government and the speedy admission of Kansas, as a free state, into the Union.

Resolved, That in the recent and flagrant outrages at the Federal Metropolis, by one of which a Senator of the United States was brutally beaten and stricken down in his seat, while sitting unarmed and, unsuspicious of danger, we see new evidence of the arrogance of the Slave power, and its determination to concede no rights to its adversaries but such as their right arms shall vindicate and uphold; and we exhort our Senators and Representatives to stand firmly by their principles and their convictions, and to realize that the disgrace of acts of barbarism rests on those who perpetrate, and not on those who suffer by them.

Resolved, That in organizing effective resistance to the falsely called Democratic party, and in rallying, as a united people, irrespective of former political associations, to oppose the nefarious and treasonable designs of revolutionizing the government our fathers established, and in our determination to resist, to every extremity, the extension of slavery into territory heretofore free, we recognize the propriety of selecting a Presidential candidate as free from all just exception as our organization is free from all partizan objection.

Resolved, That we recognize in the heroic and patriotic achievements of Col. John C. Fremont, the man for the hour; and, in behalf of New Hampshire, we hereby present his name to the country, as one eminently fitted to rally the united vote of a united people, and to bring back the government to the policy of the fathers. And we hereby recommend to the delegates this day chosen, to use all honorable means to procure the adoption by other conventions and political organizations of the nomination of Mr. Fremont to that high office; hereby pledging ourselves to the support of any man who may be elected by the National Convention at Philadelphia as the candidate of the great body of those opposed to the extension of slavery.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening, as the quarter past 7 train from Boston on the Eastern Railroad, was starting from the Lowell Railroad crossing, near the gas-house, in Salem, Mr. Jacob K. Christian of Salem, in attempting to get on board, made a miss-step and fell between the cars, which cut off the left arm near the shoulder, the left leg near the hip, and broke the same leg near the ankle, also cutting off or breaking the right leg, besides lacerating the flesh from the same. He died about 12 P. M.

The shipping interest continues in a very depressed state. Cotton freights are low—the East India business is dull—and the Deal trade is the only direction showing animation. There are large numbers of ships, barques and brigs now in northern and southern ports, waiting for paying business.—Newburyport Herald.

See you waving field, now ready to yield
And there waves o'er the plain, the bright golden grain,
Or which each man on earth is a lover.
The Scythe you will find,
The Snaith to your mind,
And Rifle of very best grit;
The Fork that's not fickle,
The finely formed Sickle,
And the Rake that all stubbles will fit;

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, Md 23, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. Whalebone Skirts.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper, graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladies, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for April, will notice that E. & J. HOLMES have from actual experience been successful in producing this most desirable article, and that their IMPROVED SEAMLESS SKIRT meets the unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to the street and the crowd; are made in one piece or breadth, and in our opinion, and the opinion of thousands of ladies who have bought them, the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to introduce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and retail of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cord, and all starched goods, cannot be used satisfactorily, as they will not recover their place when pressed out of shape. We consider all as worthless, of whatever material made, unless there is something of sufficient stiffness and elasticity, and at the same time yielding and pliable, to keep the dress in a proper shape below the bones. To accomplish this we have our cord made under our own direction, and expressly for our goods, and from the only material that can be used that will recover its proper place when pressed out of shape, and are so twisted in manufacturing that they will not roll or curl when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with goods of all kinds, and put together without form or comeliness, or any other object but to sell, and of course are called Whalebone Skirts. Some imitators, in their efforts to profit by our reputation, have gone so far as to copy almost exactly our trade mark upon their goods.

Please Notice.—Every genuine article stamped. E & J. HOLMES'S IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRT, and may be found by the trade in many of the largest Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston, and at retail in the principal Dry Goods stores.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for its produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one acre per day, two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first year, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern market. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, lie along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to avoid the purchase of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or uninterrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settler, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual instalments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen, and will cost complete $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contractors, and other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Morning Chronicle.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.—The City Marshal will report to the City Government, to morrow evening, upwards of one hundred names of persons who own or let buildings for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this city. We hear that it is the intention to present a large number of liquor-sellers before the grand jury for indictment the present month, while our very efficient district attorney expresses his determination to prosecute every in fraction that is brought before him.—Lowell News, 9th.

ELOPEMENT IN HIGH LIFE.—A beautiful girl, about 17 years of age, daughter of a wealthy and prominent gentleman of N. York recently eloped to Europe with an officer in the late war with Mexico, in which he distinguished himself by his bravery and heroism. He is a man of large fortune, and before leaving provided bountifully for his family which he left behind. The parents and family friends of the erring girl are plunged into the deepest distress in consequence of her conduct.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE FOURTH GENERATION.—Among the speakers at the indignation meeting in Quincy last week, young John Quincy Adams, the eldest son of Charles Francis Adams, grandson of John Quincy Adams, and great grandson of John Adams, made an eloquent speech in behalf of the rights of Freedom. It is a gratifying fact to record in these columns that we have not yet seen 'the last of the Adamses.' It is a glorious name, and we hope it will ever be a prominent one whenever the liberty of man is assailed.

DEATHS FROM CAMPHENE.—Mr. E. Merriam, the great thermometer man and weather-wise philosopher of Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., has kept a record of the agonizing and excruciating deaths from the use of camphene since 1850, by which it appears that in the six years up to May, 1856, there were 169 killed and 279 wounded by the explosive compound, making a total of 448. This should serve as a warning against its use. Mr. M. says: that "The season of the year has now arrived when the heat acts upon all burning fluids, and renders their use increasingly dangerous."

THE CROPS.—The weather has been favorable for the growing crops. We hear complaints of the 'stand' of cotton, and in some places of injury from lice, but to no unusual extent. The wheat crops in Upper Georgia, East Tennessee, and Western Virginia, as we learn from letters, and by persons who have recently passed through those sections, are very unpromising.—Savannah Republican, June 6.

A FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—During a severe thunder storm, a few days ago, the lightning came down upon a pasture of Charles Titcomb, Esq., of Kensington, N. H., descending perpendicularly into the earth for about thirty feet, so as to form a good well of water. The hole is about as big as a barrel, and it was formed without throwing out any earth.—Newburyport Herald.

FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1856.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—The following table exhibits the composition of the Electoral College, upon the vote of which is to be decided the next Presidential election:

ELECTORAL VOTES.

Free States.	Rep.	Slave States.	Rep.
Maine,	6	Delaware,	1
New Hampshire	3	Maryland,	6
Vermont,	5	Virginia,	15
Massachusetts,	11	North Carolina,	8
Rhode Island,	2	South Carolina,	6
Connecticut,	4	Georgia,	8
New York,	33	Alabama,	7
New Jersey,	5	Mississippi,	5
Pennsylvania,	25	Louisiana,	4
Ohio,	21	Arkansas,	2
Michigan,	4	Tennessee,	10
Indiana,	11	Kentucky,	10
Illinois,	9	Missouri,	7
Iowa,	2	Florida,	1
Wisconsin,	3	Texas,	2
California,	2
	144		90
Senators (16 free States,)	32	Senators (15 slave States,)	30
	176		120

The North, or free States, have a majority of 56 votes in the Electoral College. To illustrate this, if the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention should receive next November, the electoral vote of all the Slave States, together with that of Pennsylvania, and any one of the Free States, he will be the next President of the United States.—Saco, (Me.) Democrat.

Will not every freeman in Maine and New Hampshire, be good enough to ask himself, Why is it, that I, being a democrat, a professed lover of freedom, should find myself voting for a man or a ticket, which expects to get all the slave votes, and only hopes to get one or two free States? The reader need not answer aloud, nor publish his answer in a paper—but to his own conscience.

Once more, will the reader just look at the inequality of representation in this table.—Slavery holds, in the Senate, as many votes, within two, as freedom. But in the House the Free States have 54 majority.

HOW MANY?—The Concord Daily Patriot of Wednesday, in giving an account of the American Republican Mass Meeting begins thus:

The long-talked-of gathering of all the elements opposed to the Democracy came off in this city on Tuesday, and was quite a large one. We have heard no estimate of the number present, but we should think there were three thousand, in the afternoon, including citizens, Democrats, women and children.

Now stick a pin here, and read the closing sentence, thus:

It was much smaller than we anticipated, and as an effective demonstration will not be found to have amounted to much.

Don't laugh! the italics are ours, but the words are the Patriot's. Put the two things together,—and the meeting, which in itself was quite large, was also much smaller than the Patriot expected.

ROCKINGHAM CONFERENCE.—The Rockingham Co. Conference of Churches was held in the Congregational Meeting-House in Candia, on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 10 and 11.

Rev. Jesse Page of Atkinson was moderator, and Rev. Winthrop Fifield secretary.—30 churches belong to the conference, of which 25 have pastors or stated preachers supplying their pulpits. About 20 clergymen were present, and the lay delegates were about equal in number.—The weather was fine, and the house well filled, with an attentive audience, through all the public exercises.

These exercises were: the opening sermon, on Tuesday morning; an account of each church, in the afternoon; Reports on several benevolent societies and objects, on Wednesday morning; and a closing sermon, with the Lord's Supper, on Wednesday P.M.

The Conference prepared and adopted a brief address to christians, on the present state of affairs in our country—which address is to be published in the Congregational Journal, and 1000 copies in a tract for distribution.—This address takes distinct and decided ground in favor of christian freedom.

A Pastoral Letter was taken of the death of the venerable Mr. Prentiss of Northwood.

A very large Sunday School was present on Wednesday afternoon, to listen to the addresses on that subject, and a good choir furnished the music. The thankful acknowledgement, and pleasant farewell at the close, were gracefully pronounced by the Pastor of the Church in Candia, Rev. Mr. Herrick.

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

The annual meeting of the State Temperance Convention will be held in Dover on the 27th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. Ex-Gov. Morrill and Hon. Neal Dow of Maine, John B. Gough, Rev. Lyman Whiting of Portsmouth, and others have been invited to be present. Will clergymen be so kind as to give this notice from their pulpits, and thus serve the cause. E. W. JACKSON, Cor. Sec'y of State Temp. Committee.

Concord, June 12th, 1856.

GRAND RATIFICATION MEETING.—The N. H. Daily Patriot of the 12th gives notice that the Democrats of Concord and vicinity, and the Democratic members of the Legislature, will assemble at Depot Hall, in Concord on Tuesday, June 17th, at 1 1-2 o'clock P. M., to respond to the nomination of Buchanan and Breckinridge, the committee (among whom are Messrs. Marcy and Jenkins of this city,) invite the Democracy to "hear the report of their Delegates to the National Convention, to ratify their doings and to exchange congratulations upon the brilliant prospects for a Glorious Victory!"

Trains will be run over the several railroads terminating in Concord, at half fare.

KANSAS.—The Kansas correspondent of the Tribune gives account of the skirmish at Palmyra, confirmatory of telegraphic dispatches:

Five pro-slavery men are wounded, three of them, mortally. The pro-slavery men were completely routed. 21 prisoners were taken, including the correspondent of the Missouri Republican, who was acting as officer with them. Several fled, including Coleman, the murderer of Dow. The Free State men got some 25 horses, several of which had been stolen from them.

Eight Sharp's rifles were taken, and 20 or 30 Colt's revolvers, bowie knives, etc.; arms and ammunition of all kinds, together with wagons, tents and provisions. The Free State party had two man wounded. A Free State man was mortally wounded, but he was shot by his friends. He been in the camp of the enemy a prisoner, and with two other Free State men, who were also prisoners, he was placed by the pro-slavery men in front of the engagement without arms.

MR. SUMNER.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says, unde date of the 8th inst:—

Mr. Sumner continues to improve slowly. He does not sit up more than an hour a day, and even this effort is a great fatigue to him. He has been very anxious to take a short carriage ride, but Dr. Lindsley, his physician, does not consider his system in a condition to warrant it for some days come.

READINGS.—By the Boston papers it appears that Mr. D. K. Ford proposes to give two evenings to the reading of extracts from Charles Sumner's speech in Congress, the first of which will be on the evening of the 16th inst., at the Tremont Temple. Tickets may be had at the low price of 25 cents. Rather a novelty, but very likely it will take.

BURNING OF A STEAMER.—The steamboat City of Newark, while on her way from Newark, N. J., to New York, on Tuesday morning, was burnt to the water's edge. There was a large number of passengers on board, who became, as usual on such appalling occasions, exceedingly terrified, and much excitement and confusion ensued. The steamboat Thomas Hunt was within sufficient distance to run down to the burning boat before she became entirely enveloped in flames. The captain ran the bows of his boat to the stern of the Newark, and took off many of the passengers, keeping his vessel in that position as long as possible without endangering the boat. He then got out his small boat and commenced taking off the remainder; but in the confusion it is supposed that three ladies were drowned. Besides the passengers there was alarge quantity of freight on board the Newark, the whole of which was burnt. Finally, the steam-tug Commodore arrived at the scene of conflagration, got a rope fast to the burning vessel, and towed her on the flats, where she continued to burning till entirely destroyed. The accident was caused, as is supposed, by extensive heat and efforts to drive the vessel, and hasten the passge to the city. The scene was exciting and painful beyond discription. Mr. Max Maretzek, who was on board the Thomas Hunt, asserts positively that he saw a boat capsized, and two men and one woman were thrown into the water, and probably drowned. There was an infant preserved on board the Hunt, for whom no parents could be found. The child is about 3 years old, and apparently a German.

The New York Courier and Enquirer, say that "so far as regards slavery, the succession under Mr. Buchanan would be just as truly a sequel of the present Presidential term, as would be a second term of Franklin Pierce;" and it adds that in respect to our affairs, he is to be even less trusted, citing his participation in the Ostend Conference as an evidence of his unfitness to be trusted with the reins of government.

BADLY THRASHED.—A young man, belonging to one of the most prominent families of Boston, with a friend, a law student at Cambridge, and one of the representatives of Southern chivalry, received a merciless pounding at the hands of a mechanic whom they grossly insulted in Boston on Saturday evening last. The assailants evidently mistook their man. They were so badly whipped, that the life of one of them was despaired of for some hours. The law student will probably never forget his reminiscences with a Boston. mechanic—Transcript.

The London Times complains that genuine brandy cannot be had. The dealers buy up the genuine second-hand casks at a great price, and fill them with a manufactured article that is little less than poisonous. The practice is not congned to England. Brandy casks of the best brands bring as high as $8 and $10 in New York.

CONNECTICUT.—The snarl in the Legislature of Connecticut, about who should be Senator and who Judge, is at length straightened out, and Hon James Dixon is to be Senator and ex-Governor Dutton is to be Judge.

ST. LOUIS, 11th.—Marshal Donaldson is alive and well. Col. Sumner, with the U. S. troops, was dispersing all bands of both parties, and a prospect of peace now prevails.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along!"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It need to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

FOURTH OF JULY.

We are to have a celebration of the day in this city.

A meeting of citizens was held on Thursday evening, pursuant to notice—and a committee of four appointed to solicit subscriptions to defray the expenses of a Floral Procession, Parade of Fire Companies, Continentallers, &c. This Committee consists of Wm. R. Preston, Chas. T. Emery, Wm. P. Walker, and John E. Rider.

A committee of arrangements will be announced hereafter.

BIDWELL & MARSTON'S DRAMATIC COMPANY.—Theatricals have been at a rather low ebb in Portsmouth, for the last 25 years.—There are many among our citizens, who enjoy dramatic representations, but prefer to visit Boston occasionally, and witness a play effectually put upon the stage, rather than patronize companies such as usually appear among us, here at home. We have not often been favored with a series of really good dramatic representations in this city, and people hesitate to patronize a travelling theatre.

The Cameneum is really a nice little Hall, and with its Boxes, Gallery and Parquette, looks quite theatre-like. There is stage room enough to give effect to any ordinary play.—It would seem, then, that nothing was wanting to insure success, but a good corps of performers, good scenery, suitable dresses, appurtenances and effects.

Messrs. Bidwell & Marston have been performing during this week, at the Cameneum, and have convinced us, and all who have attended their exhibitions, of the great superiority of their company, as a whole, over any that has appeared before our people for many years.

"Yankee Addams" always was a favorite here, but he has been in the habit of visiting Portsmouth with a handful of poor actors to fill up the unimportant parts, while he himself was the only attractive feature of the entertainment. But here we have a company of professional actors, ladies and gentlemen of decided talent, all of whom have made the stage their profession for many years, and some of whose faces were familiar to us a dozen years ago, in the theatres of Boston.—Some of our readers will scoff at the idea of finding respectable acting among travelling actors, but let those who doubt, witness the representation of Shakespeare's tragedy of Hamlet, this evening, and they will thank us for saying thus much in the way of calling their attention to the very excellent performances of this company. Those who have had in contemplation a visit to the Cameneum, during the stay of this company, must do so at once, as Saturday evening concludes their engagement in this place; they being advertised to open at the new Town Hall in Exeter on Monday next. *

THE NEWS.—It will be seen that Mr. R. B. Marsh has taken part of the store of J. Buzzell & Co., in Daniel Street; and will mak his news headquarters there, as well as in Deer street. Mr. Marsh is prompt, obliging and faithful; and will supply the daily, weekly or monthly publications, to suit.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Gilman of New Market, it was ordered that the committee on the Judiciary inquire as to providing by law, that surviving partners in trade, or business of any kind, shall give bond, with sufficient sureties to the acceptance of the Judge of Probate for his county, before disposing of any of the property, or collecting any debts of the firm.

On motion of Mr. Hubbard of Sullivan, the use of the Hall of the House was granted to the Legislative Temperance Society to-morrow evening, and on each succeeding Wednesday evening, unless the Hall is wanted for the use of the House.

The Message from the Senate relative to the removal, by address, of John H. George from the office of County Solicitor, was, on motion of Mr. Stevens of Nashua, laid on the table.

The committee on Finance, to whom was referred the report of the State Treasurer, reported a resolve for the appointment of a joint select committee of three on the part of the House, to audit the same.

The report was adopted, and Messrs. Tullock of Portsmouth, Varney of Dover and Carpenter of Chichester were appointed the committee.

On motion of Mr. Bellows of Concord, it was ordered that the Hall of the House of Representatives be granted to the New Hampshire Historical Society next Monday evening.

The report of the Commissioners of the House of Reformation, with a plan, was received from the Governor, and on motion of Mr. Upton of Manchester, they were laid on the table and the Clerk was instructed to procure the usual number of printed copies for the use of the House.

The Report of J. L. Foster, Esq., with estimates and plans for the alteration of the State House, was also received, and on motion of Mr. Jenkins of Portsmouth, a committee of three was ordered to be appointed to whom it should be referred.

The bills and resolves from the last Legislature, were, on motion of Mr. Goodwin of Portsmouth, referred to the Committee on Unfinished Business.

Adjourned.

ARRIVAL OF THE DANIEL WEBSTER.

NEW ORLEANS, June 11.

Steamship Daniel Webster has arrived, from Aspinwall, 4th, with California dates to May 20.

Great excitement existed at San Francisco in consequence of the assassination of James King, editor of the Bulletin, in the streets, by a man named Cassy. The affair occurred on the 14th, and King died on the 16th. Casey was arrested and committed to jail; the citizens had become very much excited in the matter, and a meeting of the Vigilance Committee was called. Placards of an inflammatory nature were posted, calling upon the citizens to take the law into their own hands.

On the 18th, 3000 citizens, organized into companies, and armed with muskets, marched from the committee rooms, and, taking possession of the jail, took thence Cassy, together with Cora, murderer of Gen. Richardson, and carried them to the committee room.—Here they were kept strongly guarded up to the time of the steamer; it is supposed they would both be hung by the mob.

The whole city was draped in mourning for the death of Mr. King, who was highly esteemed. Casey was formerly an inmate of Sing Sing Prison, a statement of which fact in King's paper led to the difficulty.

The Vigilance Committee had fully organized, and are determined to drive all the gamblers from the State.

Gen. Walker's positio in Nicaragua was unchanged. The cholera, black vomit, &c., were raging among the troops.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, June 11.

The Senate further debated the resolution requesting the President to send Gen. Scott to Kansas to restore order there.

Mr. Bell of Tennessee remarked that it was not known but that a majority of the Senate were in favor of the resolution. He would ask the Senator from Mississippi, (Brown) who had said there were no such serious proceedings in Kansas as would justify this course, whether he did not credit the accounts lately received from both sides relative to existing difficulties, riots and bloodshed? In view of these things, no Senator can doubt they demand immediate consideration.

Mr. Brown replied that to a very limited extent he credited the telegraphic accounts relative to the disturbances in Kansas. He believed the greater part of them were manufactured for the occasion. It has been so heretofore and was very likely to be so now. He was not prepared to cast censure upon the President; but the adoption of the resolution would be understood by the country as an expression of the Senate that the President had not performed his duty as he ought to have done.

Mr. Toucey opposed, also Messrs. Mallory, Mason and Reid. While Messrs. Clayton and Crittenden spoke in its favor.

Mr. Seward said the question to take up the resolution was a question on the adoption of the resolution itself. He thought he foresaw, although he might be mistaken, that a vote to take up the resolution was not equivalent to its passage, yet a vote not to take it up would be equivelant to its rejection.—About the 70th year of the Republic, and after a career of conquest and dominion such as Rome, France, Great Britain and other Empires, we have reached a crisis of new forms of difficulties, requiring a new responsibility—that of civil war. After alluding to the state of things in Kansas, he said:—"If you give the rights of American citizens, full and ample as are enjoyed in the organized states, to the citizens of Kansas, you may expect peace, tranquility and prosperity in the territory. But if, on the other hand, you say to them they shall submit to tyranny, usurpation, and be disfranchised and subjected by force to obey laws which are unjust and tyranical, founded in usurpation, then you have reached the time when you will not see peace and harmony throughout the Republic. To settle this question under the form of the Constitution, has been my earnest hope;—and, as to soothe and quiet the public mind, and arrest the increasing dangers of civil war, is the simple object of this resolution, I shall give my vote to take it up."

ST. LOUIS.—The result of the recent municipal election in St. Louis is of more than usual importance. John How,—a Benton Democrat, who opposed the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and who declared publicly that he would not pledge himself to support the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention, — has been elected mayor by a majority of 2500 over all others, and his friends have carried eight of the ten wards of the city. This triumph was won against the opposition of Know Nothings, Atchison nullifiers, and federal office holders. The St. Louis Democrat says it is "a triumph far transcending all former victories."

NAVAL.—The surveying steamer Jefferson Davis, (new,) Lieut. R. M. McArran, U. S. N., commanding, which left the Capes of Delaware at 9 A. M., on the 27th ult., via Halifax, aarived at Quebec at 5 A. M., on Saturday, June 7, having made the run in 10 days and 20 hours.

The new steam frigate Colorado will be launched at the Gosport Navy Yard, on Thursday, the 19th inst.

The U. S. steamer Saranac, Commander Long, arrived at Genoa 19th ult., and was to leave in the course of a week for the United States.

The U. S. sloop-of-war Vincennes may be expected to reach New York in August, or early in September. She was to leave Honolulu on the 24th of March, touching at Tahiti. She left Norfolk in June, 1853.

A man who has figured largely as Col. Johnson among the border ruffians led by Atchison and Stringfellow, and who aided Sheriff Jones in the sack of Lawrence, has just been recognized as a person named Ambler, who about six months ago, absconded from Batesville, Arkansas, to avoid an arrest for forging $3000 worth of land warrants. He has been secured and taken back to Arkansas.

Abundance of red top, and herds grass and clover; (en grain,
And there waves o'er the plain, the bright gold-
Or which each man on earth is a lover.
The Scythe you will find,
The Snaith to your mind,
And Rifle of very best grit;
The Fork that's not fickle,
The finely formed Sickle,
And the Rake that all stubbles will fit;
These things may be found
By Farmers all round,
At BLAISDELL'S, on old Market street;
And the keeper you'll find,
Good natured and kind;
To deal with him must be a rich treat. j10

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF LOTTERIES. BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, is doing his utmost daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," taken this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be managers of Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses from this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

Whalebone Skirts.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper, graceful outline form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladies, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for April, will notice that E. & J. HOLMES have from annual experience been successful in producing this most desirable article, and that their IMPROVED SEAMLESS SKIRT meets the unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to Street and Evening dress; are made in one piece or breadth, and in our opinion, and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have bought them, the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to introduce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and retail of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cord, and all starched goods, cannot be used satisfactorily, as they will not recover their place when pressed out of shape. We consider all as worthless, of whatever material made, unless there is something of extreme stiffness and elasticity, and at the same time yielding and pliable, to keep the dress in proper shape below the bones. To accomplish this we have our cord made under our own direction, and expressly for our goods, and from the elastic nature of the wire used, they will recover its proper place when pressed out of shape, and are so twisted in manufacturing that they will not roll or curl when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with goods of all kinds, and put together without form or comeliness, or any other object but to sell, and of course are called Whalebone Skirts. Some imitators, in their efforts to profit by our reputation, have gone so far as to copy almost exactly our trade mark upon their goods.

Please Notice.—Every genuine article stamped E & J. HOLMES'S IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRT, and may be found by the trade in many of the largest Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston, and at retail in the principal Dry Goods stores.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $2.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to the market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles adds to the cost of the produce carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent prevents the income from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be bro't under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received in cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—showing the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

NO FAILURE.

The Rev. Ebenezer Fisher, of Dedham, Mass., in a late essay, says:

Men who love liquors and hate the Law, are continually crying out that there is a failure. Now, in the mercantile world, there are, as persons of this class may know, two kinds of failures, one where the insolvent fails for lack of money, and the other where he fails to make money and comes out brighter than ever. They will find their reported failures of the Maine Law to be of this last sort.

We do not acknowledge failure, and they will find us all the stronger for these slight reverses. In Illinois the law has been rejected by the people; the same happened to a modified form of it in Pennsylvania.—In New York it has been in part nullified by judicial decisions. Yet we cannot believe that the people of New York will allow their purpose to be thus defeated. We have police returns before us from this state which demonstrate the good effect of the law.

We will mention one or two instances, taking equal periods of time before the law, and under the law. In Albany Watch House the commitments were, before the law, 1974; under the law in the same time, 1278; difference in favor of the law, 696. Rochester—before the law, 1552; under the law, 740; difference, 812. Utica, (4 mos.) before the law, 165; under the law, 80; difference, 85. The resulting total of all these researches and returns is: Commitments before the law, 4960; under the law in the same time, 2866; difference in favor of the law, 2068.

With remarkable uniformity we find that in all inquiries on this topic, wherever made, have presented the same species of results, viz., a uniform decrease in crime. This can only be caused by a decrease in drinking, therefore it seems beyond doubt that the law is effectual to check drinking. It is idle then to say that it is without effect. 'But it does not stop all drinking, and therefore is a failure.' Your head is out of order, my friend, to reason thus.—Ploughs, cultivators, hoes, and fingers are used to destroy weeds, yet weeds continue to grow and flourish in spite of them all; nay they all loosen the soil, and scatter the seeds of the noxious pests, and thus increase their growth. Are ploughs, hoes, cultivators and human fingers, therefore, in this respect, a failure? Not so; they keep the weeds down and permit the crops to grow; so too the law keeps down the weeds and is no failure.

Who are the people who profess so much dissatisfaction with the law on account of its alleged inefficiency? Are they the men who at first desired the law? Are the men who wish that the liquor traffic should be stopped? By no means; that class of men are well satisfied with the law, and desire its continuance. To be sure these men who clamor against the law think it expedient to profess great regard for the cause of temperance, and like ancient waiting maids tricked out in the cast off finery of their mistresses, you will always find them wearing some antiquated livery of the temperance cause. Just now their powerful testimony is given with pathetic earnestness in favor of moral suasion. Its arguments beseem them as gracefully as the cast off regimentals of the British officer did the aspiring savage, who strutted abroad with his arms stuck through the legs of the whilom breeches, and the waistband buttoned around his neck.

These men are remarkable for their devotion to Temperance doctrines, but to no one in particular. That is most to their liking which will lend them the most plausible cover for an attack on the efficient temperance measures of the time.—Hence their pious hatred of the law as injuring a good and holy cause. Whenever we see Satan appearing as an angel of light, the thoughtless may be edified by the spectacle of his unwonted piety, but the wise will be very likely to inquire into the object. The clamors of this class of persons only prove their likes and dislikes.

FRAUD.—A stupendous fraud, involving about $100,00 worth of property, was perpetrated in New York recently. It appears from the statements that Mr. James Garvie, an aged gentleman of Glen Cove, L. I., was induced to visit Wm. Hanna, a poor carpenter, who was an old acquaintance, residing at 103 Lewis street, N. Y. While there, Hanna is charged with having got Garvie intoxicated, and kept him so for four weeks, during which he obtained from him a power of attorney, under which he collected moneys, and obtained bills of sales and titles for $100,000 worth of property. Garvie, while so deranged, was also induced to make a will, bequeathing all his property to Hanna's daughter (making Hanna his executor) and then promised to go to sea. He was by some mistake, permitted to get sober, the transaction alarmed him, and he appealed to the Courts. Hanna has been arrested and committed to jail in default of $5000 bail.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1856.

THE HON. MR. BROOKS.—Who is he?—What has he done?—He is a South Carolina Representative in Congress, and he was the person selected by Mr. Bennett of Mississippi, to take his notes to Mr. Damrell of Massachusetts, interrogating that gentleman in regard to some allusions to Mississippi repudiation, in his speech to the House of Representatives.

On the 19th of February, 1856, Brooks wrote a letter to one Slider, of South Carolina, which has since been published, in which he argues with all his might in favor of the re-nomination of President Pierce, and in support of the proposition that South Carolina, contrary to her custom, should be represented in the Cincinnati Convention. He urges this departure from the old Calhoun and nullifying course, on the ground of services to the South, that is to slavery. He says: "The opinions hitherto expressed by me in relation to the sending of delegates from South Carolina to the convention of Democrats at Cincinnati are not only unchanged, but they have been strengthened by repeated conferences with leading Southern gentlemen, and confirmed by the two last and glorious messages of the President. If the entire South fails to endorse, sustain, and to demand the re-election of Gen. Pierce, it will be guilty of suicidal ingratitude."

"General Pierce," he says elsewhere in his letter, "I believe, is more exceptable to our people than any man now living. I prefer him to anybody.

Lastly, the Hon. Mr. Brooks tried to crush out Senator Sumner's free speech by beating out his brains.

Now let us see how Brooks and others have changed front. Under the head of—"Brooks in 1854 versus Brooks in 1856,—"the Boston Transcript says:

It has been repeatedly said that the present administration has acted toward Kansas as Brooks acted toward Sumner. It will be seen by the following extracts from the Congressional Globe, how swiftly men, as well as governments, can become depraved. Reeder and Lane, who were good "Pierce and Douglas Democrats" of 1854, only appear abolitionists because they have not altered for the better or worse. But Mr. Brooks and the Administration have made break-neck descents into baseness and villany in the short space of two years.

Brooks, in his speech in the House, March 15, 1854, delivers himself thus:

Should aught of intemperance of language escape me in the remarks I am about to make, I trust that it may be regarded as directed to principles and positions, and not to the persons from whom they proceed.

I have lived long enough to learn, that to do justice to the opinions and even prejudices of others, is the surest way to secure a just consideration of my own.

Nor, sir, does it jump with my humor or my appreciation of honor to assail those who, in obedience to a local sentiment, are averse to a resort, but too common in a warmer latitude. It is a cheap display of chivalry to insult where no risk is incurred; and, for my own part, I would prefer the condition of him who bears the wound than of him by whom it is, under such circumstances needlessly inflicted.

June 21, 1854, in reference to the dispute between Churchill and Cullom, he introduced a series of resolves, from which we extract two:

Resolved, That any member who brings into the House a concealed weapon shall be expelled by a two thirds vote.

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms shall cause to be erected a rack in the rotunda, where members who are addicted to the carrying of concealed weapons shall be required to place them before entering the hall, and that they shall be exposed to the inspection of the curious as long as the men are employed in legislation.

MR. FILLMORE.—A Washington dispatch of the 12th, says:

Mr. Fillmore's letter, accepting the nomination for the Presidency, appears in the American Organ to-day. The letter is lengthy, occupying several columns.

"In estimating the party, both in its present position and future destiny, I freely adopt its leading principles, as announced in the recent declaration of the National Council at Philadelphia, holding them to be just and liberal to every true interest of the country."

That is, he stands on the South American platform, against which nearly all the delegates of New England protested.

Among the Vice Presidents are the following from the New England States:—J. S. Sayward, of Maine; Anthony Colby, of New Hampshire; A. A. Richmond, of Mass.; Lucius G. Peck, of Connecticut. Vermont not represented.

John Prince, of Boston, Mass., is one of the Secretaries.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Delegates the the Republican Convention at Philadelphia continue to reach this city from the east, and they are bringing all their influence to bear upon the delegates to the American Convention, to prevent a nomination before the assembling of the Philadelphia Convention.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE OF N. H.—The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in the State of New Hampshire, met at Concord on Tuesday last. The following officers were elected for the current year;—

Alfred Greeley, Nashua, G. M.
Geo. H. Hubbard, Manchester, D. G. M.
Moses Paul, Dover, G. S. W.
Aaron P. Hughes, Nashua, G. J. W.
John Knowlton, Portsmouth, G. T.
Horace Chase, Hopkinton, G. S.

The Grand Lodge voted to accept the invitation from the Commissioners, to lay the corner stone of the State Reform School edifice, at Manchester, with Masonic ceremonies, on the Fourth of July next.

NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCES OF THE M. E. CHURCH.—Intelligence has been received from the General Conference at Indianapolis, that sessions of Conferences of the M. E. Church will be held this year as follows:—New Hampshire, at Littleton, June 18th; Vermont, at Newbury, June 27th; Maine, at Gardner, July 2d; East Maine, Rucksport, July 2d.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY, June 12.

SENATE. — Reports of Committees. — Mr. Burns, from the committee on the Judiciary, reported a resolution to indefinitely postpone the bill for the more equal distribution of the property of insolvent debtors. Agreed to.

HOUSE.—Petitions presented and referred.—By Mr. Kimball of Fitzwilliam, of the Cheshire Common School Association, for the establishment of a Normal School in the State; Remonstrances of Wm. Manahan of Deering and others, against the removal of the courts from Amherst to Nashua.

Bills Introduced.—By Mr. Huntress of Somersworth, bill to establish the city of Somersworth. Read twice and referred.

By Mr. Jenkins of Portsmouth, bill relating to the police court of the city of Portsmouth. Read twice and referred.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting a communication from the Third Auditor of the Treasury Department of the U. S., requesting the adjustment of a claim of $10,839 95, alleged to be due the U. S. by the State of New Hampshire, and to which he says the attention of the Governor of this State was called in Nov. 1826. Referred.

On motion of Mr Edwards of Keene, it was ordered that the inventories for 1855 and 1856, and the abstracts thereof be referred to a committee of twenty—two from each county, to report at the earliest convenient time the footings or amounts of the inventories of the several counties, with a bill to establish a new proportion for the assessment of public taxes.

In Convention.—Lemuel N. Pattee was elected Secretary of State; William Berry, State Treasurer: and Amos Hadley, State Printer.

House.—The address for the removal of John H. George, Solicitor for the county of Merrimack, passed 160 to 146.

FROM KANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, May 12.—A letter to the Democrat, dated Lawrence, May 6th, says that Mr. Upton, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Kansas territory commission, while going from Westport to Lawrence, was taken prisoner by a party of Buford's men, but through the influence of his office, he was released after a day's detention.

Gen. Whitfield is said to have command of about 300 men, who are encamped near Prairie city, 12 miles south of Lawrence, engaged in stopping and searching travellers.—Col. Sumner went to Prairie city with a company of troops, and commanded Whitfield's company to disperse, which they did; but after going about 5 miles, they encamped again and commenced committing depredations on the property of settlers. When Col. Sumner learned that Whitfield's company had not dispersed, he sent to the fort for troops, and went to make them do so. 300 free state men were encamped near Whitfield's company, watching his movements and ready to give him battle. The presence of Col. Sumner's company up to the present time has prevented a fight.

CHICAGO, 12th.—The Chicago Tribune has a letter from Camp Coal Creek, Kansas, June 5, stating that 200 Missourians crossed the river on the Sunday previous, and a battle was expected next day; but the report that Col. Lane, with a large force, was one day's march from Lawrence, so terrified the guerrilla party, that they instantly recrossed the river to Platte county.

Col. Sumner was stationed at Lawrence for the purpose of dispersing any gatherings of armed men.

The Independence correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says, the Missourians will not long endure the Investigating Commission; that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

A FAITHFUL WIFE.—Caroline Howard, the wife of Howard who was put on the chain-gang for four months, last week, for pocket picking, though only sixteen, evinces towards her husband a touching fidelity. At the time Howard was condemned, she implored Judge Pruden to send her to jail with him. Failing to obtain that favor, she has taken lodgings at a house in the jail-yard, that she may have an opportunity morning and evening, of exchanging a few words of affection with the object of her solicitude.—[St. Louis Sun.

A very spirited indignation meeting has been held in Claremont, and resolutions embodying the feelings of freemen, unanimously adopted. Cheshire County is well posted up, and will speak, so as to be heard, at the ballot box, the first opportunity.—Keene Sentinel.

IMPRISONMENT FOR SEDUCTION.—Wm. A. Greatrake, convicted of the seduction, under promise of marriage, of Miss Mary S. Murray, a young woman employed as a compositor on one of the daily papers in Pittsburgh, Pa., has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The universal satisfaction which the these Pills have given, where they have been introduced, is truly astonishing; the numerous and valuable testimonials which Dr. Hayden has received from physicians and other professional men, together with the vast number of certificates from private sources, is truly gratifying, and is a sufficient proof of their virtues; though we are aware that the public have been imposed upon so often with medicines which have been highly extolled, but which on trial possessed no real virtues, that they have lost all confidence in any medicine which is advertised.

To those who may be induced to give these Pills a trial, they will find that the truth has not yet become entirely extinct. In conclusion, we would ask those who are suffering from disease, to read the certificates published in our columns. They are from persons who have been benefitted by their use, and who will at any time be happy to recommend them to others.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: If you wish any person to see anything, show it; If you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone!

LOCAL.

WHAT HE SAW.—One day this week Uncle Toby saw a young man who seemed to have weak knees, kindly led or lifted along from the place where he had been drinking, to a comfortable lodging on the straw in a stable.

Turning away from this sight, he looked toward the hills of New Hampshire, and made a little excursion into the country. But before he took his seat in the railway train, he was invited to look on a platform car, where lay a young man of 20 to 25 years, dead drunk; he had been brought there by companions not quite so drunk, but by no means sober, one of whom took a seat in a car. Arrived at a station near where the young man lived, some of the railroad men dashed water on the drunken sleeper, which roused and angered him. He essayed to fight with everybody—but no sober man would accommodate him with a quarrel. His drunken friend however did not so, and the two battered each other until four or five stout sober men pulled them apart.

Here were the proper effects of the grog-shop institution: but once out of the region of such shops, no more such sights or fights were to be seen.—The green fields, the busy farmer, the large, earnest, intelligent assembly, the high moral tone of public instruction and public discussion—presented better thoughts, better sights, better deeds.

TOPOGRAPHICAL MAP AND DIRECTORY OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.—Messrs. Smith & Coffin, publishers and proprietors of the map of this county, are about canvassing and correcting the Surveys for the City of Portsmouth, which will be done by Mr. Bumstead from Boston, who has just completed the Surveys of the towns and cities of Middlesex County.

We hope the property holders, merchants, and inhabitants generally, will give their united assistance in this enterprise, as it is a work of immense labor and expense to the publishers, showing as it does, the roads, dwelling houses, rivers, rail roads, stores, &c. Even the names of the owners of property are put down where the property is located. There will be a City Directory on the margin of the map, if the inhabitants are interested in the same as they have been in other cities. As these maps will not be thrown into the stores for sale, like other maps and books, it is hoped the citizens of Portsmouth will avail themselves of this opportunity of securing a copy of the whole county, embracing 38 county towns and the City of Portsmouth.—The price will be $5,00 per copy, not paid for until delivered.

REV. MADISON GASKINS, formerly a slave in Virginia, where he has a son in slavery, is desirous of aid in the purchase of his freedom. The price asked is one thousand dollars, more than half of which he has already obtained. He will call upon our citizens, for any such sums as they may be disposed to give. He has formerly purchased the freedom of his wife and three little children. He brings with him certificates of the most indubitable character, attesting the genuineness of his mission.

Among the documents we see the certificate of Rev. Geo. W. Sampson, pastor of a Baptist Church in Washington, that he aided Mr. Gaskins in getting license as a preacher. Also a certificate of his freedom, and his good character, from the family who gave his freedom. He has also the most satisfactory papers from officers of the Colonization Society, from the editor of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, from Rev. Mr. Barnabee of Newburyport, and Rev. Mr. Lamson of this city.—Those who approve of his object, may aid him without any misgiving as to his being upright and trustworthy.

AUCTION SALES.—A large amount of property, real and personal, will be offered for sale at Auction to-day. The Steam Factory Company propose to sell several lots of Real Estate in the neighborhood of their Mill, some of which is very valuable. H. F. Wendell Auctioneer.

Mr. Wendell, also, is selling at his sales room a lot of Ready Made Clothing, Watches, Jewelry, &c.

Geo. W. Towle, Auctioneer, at 9 o'clock offers a great variety of articles, at his store. At 12 o'clock, will sell a two story house and land on Pleasant street. See Auction Columns.

☞ An attractive bill is presented to the lovers of the Drama, at the Cameneum, this evening. This is positively the last performance in this city, by this company.

INFORMATION WANTED.—George Hall, of this State, served during the last war at Portsmouth, and his widow, now residing at Berne, N. Y., is anxious to know under whom he served, so as to secure his bounty land. If any body can put us in the way of getting the information, they will confer a favor upon a poor widow.—Keene Sentinel.

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE ERICSSON.

SANDY HOOK, June 13.—The Ericsson is coming up. She brings Liverpool dates to the 28th ult.

The Italian question is still unsettled. It is stated that the Pope proposes the meeting at Rome of a Congress of Italian Sovereigns with Plenipotentiaries from Austria and France.

Denmark is putting her fleet into an effective state.

The Earl of Elgin moved in the House of Lords, for despatches relative to the troops for Canada. A discussion ensued, when Lord Clarendon expressed a good feeling towards the United States, but declined to recall Mr. Crampton. No new fact was elicited respecting the state of affairs with the United States.

Liverpool Market, May 28th.—Cotton dull and a trifle lower. Breadstuffs—The weather had been very favorable for the crops, and the prices were weak and transactions small.—Flour a fraction lower; Western Canal 32 a 34s; Baltimore and Ohio 35 to 37s.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, June 12.

In the Senate Mr. Hamlin rose and asked to be excused from serving as chairman of the Committee on Commerce. He said:—For the nine years he had held a seat in the Senate, he had almost been a silent member upon the subject that had so much agitated the country—he had barely uttered a word. He loved his country more than he loved any party—more than any thing that could agitate or disturb its harmony. Although he believed the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was a great moral and political wrong, unequalled in the annals of the legislation of this country, still, with a desire to promote harmony, concord, and brotherly feeling, he sat quietly amid all the exciting debate which led to the fatal result, and opposed it, not by his voice, but by consistent, steady and uniform vote, not only in accordance with his own convictions, but in accordance with the instructions of his Legislature, passed by almost a unanimous vote; but the thing was done in violation of the principles of that party with whom he had always acted, and in violation of the solemn pledges of the President of the United States in his inaugural address. Since, however, that wrong had been sanctioned by the Cincinnati Convention, in its consummation and in its results, he felt it his duty to declare that he could no longer maintain party associations with any party that insisted upon such doctrines, and could support no man for President who avowed and recognized these doctrines, and with whatever power God had endowed him with, it should be used in coming contest in opposition to that party.

The motion to excuse was agreed to.

Mr. Butler then proceeded to reply to Mr. Sumner's speech. The galleries were much crowded.

Mr. Butler noticed Mr. Sumner's charge of the shameful imbecility of South Carolina during the revolutionary war in consequence of slavery, and denied but for Northern aid the South could not have sustained itself in that struggle South Carolina sent Massachusetts bread and seventy barrels of wine; the Maine law was not then in operation. (Laughter.). The very powder used by Massachusetts after the battle of Bunker Hill was furnished by South Carolina, which in the revolution poured out hogsheads of blood were Massachusetts shed but gallons.

He (Butler) characterized the remarks of Mr Sumner as applied to him as indecent and utterly unfit to be uttered, as they were in the presence of a gallery of ladies. Mr. Butler strongly condemned the resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature, relative to the assault on Mr. Sumner and said that Mr. Brooks had been indicted on mere newspaper rumor, and with a precipitancy incompatible with legislative dignity and justice.

Mr. Brooks could not go into a drawing-room or to a public place, after Sumner's speech was delivered, without the question being asked—Has the South Carolina chivalry escaped, and is there to be tame submission to such insults? He felt as if he could not look his constituents in the face and be counted with dishonor. The Senate had before been profaned by the Senator. He (Butler) would take ten blows rather than endure the gas of the rhetorician, pouring out calumnies upon his state. Something therefore must be pardoned to the sensibility of a man acting under the dictates of manhood and honor.

Without concluding, Mr. Butler yielded the floor to an adjournment.

The House met and adjourned, no quorum being present.

DENTITION, NATURAL AND ARTIFICIAL.—From the cluster of eager spectators which we noticed the other day around a door in Tremont street, Boston, opposite the Museum, we were led to imagine that some one might have started an opposition to that popular establishment. A nearer inspection showed that the curious were intently examining the show-case of Drs. Cummings & Flagg, of 25 Tremont street, Surgeon Dentists; and probably nothing in the larger museum opposite, is more deserving of admiration. Amidst a number of highly finished sets of artificial teeth, of full and miniature size, the Doctors have placed two sets of natural human jaws, so prepared as to illustrate not only the location and structure of the teeth, but the arrangement of the nerves and blood vessels with which they are supplied, and the mode of dentition. It may well be said that these two dumb skeleton mouths speak volumes. They are certainly equal to a good lecture.

And if, by these and the artificial teeth exhibited in the elegant case, the spectator should be induced to make proof of the Doctors' skill in practical dentistry, he will by no means find himself disappointed. Long practice and a progressive spirit have led them to several valuable improvements in their art, among which perhaps not the least is their successful method of securing the adhesion of plates without the clasps, which are found so injurious to the other teeth to which they are applied. Hundreds of persons can testify to the value and comfort of this improvement as applied by them. And Drs. Cummings & Flagg, we are happy to say, are no less distinguished for their gentlemanly urbanity, than for ingenuity, tact, and assiduity in their profession. In the hands of such dentists, the most disagreeable operations of the art become quite tolerable.—Boston Sat. Eve'g Gazette.

m21 ALBERT LAIGHTON.

On Wednesday evening last, Mr. Edward Glennon, a butcher, was shot while crossing the Niagara Suspension Bridge, from Elgin, (C. W.) to the American side in his buggy.—It appears that he was about leaving the country for California, and when about half way across the bridge was met by a former partnamed James Flynn, who demanded payment of a debt. Glennon then came out of the buggy in which he was crossing, and tried to make Flynn let the horse go, whereupon the latter drew a pistol and shot Glennon through the body, the ball passing about an inch above the heart. He expired shortly after.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fitted for wheat, sod under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is found in several places along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vast lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual instalments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of stock, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by actual contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Whalebone Skirts.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper, graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladies, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for April, will notice that E. & J. HOLMES have from actual experience been successful in producing this most desirable article, and that their IMPROVED SEAMLESS SKIRT meets the unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to the street and the crowd; are made in one piece of a breadth, and in our opinion, and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have bought them, the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to introduce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and retail of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cord, and all starched goods, cannot be used satisfactorily, as they will not recover their place when pressed out of shape. We consider all as worthless, of whatever material made, unless there is something of sufficient stiffness and elasticity, and at the same time yielding and pliable, to keep the dress in proper shape below the bones. To accomplish this we have our cord made under our own direction, and expressly for our goods, and from the only material that can be used that will recover its proper place when pressed out of shape, and are so twisted in manufacturing that they will not roll or curl when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with goods of all kinds, and put together without form or comeliness, or any other object but to sell, and of course are called Whalebone Skirts. Some imitators, in their efforts to profit by our reputation, have gone so far as to copy almost exactly our trade mark upon their goods.

Please Notice.—Every genuine article stamped, E & J. HOLMES'S IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRT, and may be found by the trade in many of the largest Jobbing Houses in New York and Boston, and at retail in the principal Dry Goods stores.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, Md. April 18, 1856.
THE undersigned, Commissioners of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawing of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.
RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 1856.

EXETER, June 14.

Messrs. Editors.—We are inclined to think that you hardly treat us fairly in your remarks concerning the guns and the News Letter. The item in that paper to which we referred was the following:—

The news of Gov. Ralph Metcalf's re-election was received in Exeter on Friday last.—The next day one hundred guns were fired, and the bells rung merrily.

Now if the editor of the News Letter did not intend to imply, by 'coupling the events together' in that manner, the cause and effect, what did he intend to imply? We are charitable enough to suppose that the editor really thought that the two events were connected, and that when he discovers his mistake, he will so state it.—By the way, speaking of the guns, the sentence to the effect that 'the cause of humanity was progressing,' was intended as a part of the preceding paragraph. We do not know that the firing over a political nomination has much to do with progress, at the present time.

Having seen, in the newspapers, a paragraph headed 'a freak of lightning,' and stating that during a severe thunder-storm, recently, the lightning came down upon a pasture of Chas. Titcomb, Esq., of Kensington, descending perpendicularly into the earth about 30 feet, so as to form a good well of water, we concluded to go over and see what we considered would prove the wonder of 1856. Accordingly on Wednesday afternoon last, we started, the place being about four miles distant. Not a single living biped did we meet, except a few geese and goslings.—One of the latter is endeavoring to get out of the way fell down flat directly under the horse's feet, but managed to scramble off towards the embankment, down which he turned a complete somersault. This little circumstance pleased us more than the 'freak' did, and we thought that Barnum might stand a good chance of retrieving his fortunes if said goose (i. e. if he didn't break his neck in the fall—we did not stop to see) would be willing to go through the same performance every afternoon and evening, Sundays excepted, at 25 cts per head. It would be better than Joice Heths or Fejee Mermaids.

But that has nothing to do with that well. We soon came to Mr. T's and told him our errand. His face lengthened and ours, ditto. Then came the cold water: "Oh! it's a mistake," said he. However, he cheered us up a little as he said, "I will tell you how it was. The lightning came down in the pasture and made a hole, which was, when we first found it, from 20 to 25 feet deep, and 12 or 18 inches wide at the top, but it has since been slowly filling up." We asked him if he would point out the spot to us, and he kindly offered to go down with us. The "hole" is in a swampy ground, and at present is about twelve feet deep, being at the top two and a half or three feet wide; the earth has since caved in somewhat. A living spring of water is situated some ten feet off, and when the water in the hole is agitated by a pole being thrust into it, the spring soon commences to throw up thick, muddy water—showing that the two are connected. No one saw the lightning strike, and it was not discovered, probably, till a couple of days after the hole was made, and we are inclined to the opinion that water had as much to do with it as any one of the four elements of nature.

On Friday morning a meeting of the citizens was held, at which Prof. J. G. Hoyt was chosen Chairman, and S. Dana Wingate, Esq., Secretary. After considerable discussion a committee of twenty-five was chosen to make all necessary arrangements for celebrating the coming Fourth of July in a manmanner worthy of the town. It was, at this meeting, stated that the committee of the American order, after making some of their arrangements, engaging a band, &c., had reported that it would be inexpedient to make a celebration, as many citizens supposed that it was to be a one-sided, political affair, and thus would not enter into it, but that it would be better to have a general celebration, in which all could join. This meeting was therefore called. Tho' many opposed it, including the Chairman, the young men seemed determined to do something, and accordingly intend to go ahead. The committee chosen are to make all necessary arrangements, solicit subscriptions, and conduct the celebration in such a manner, and with such exercises, as may seem to them best. Our Portsmouth friends probably will not come up into the country, as you are to have a celebration of your own.

G. P.

THE CAPITAL.—In the House of Representatives at Washington, on the 10th, Mr. Edwards gave notice of a bill for the removal of the seat of Government of the United States from the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, to some point within five miles of the city of Cincinnati, and for other purposes.

KANSAS OUTRAGES.—The following is the telegraphic despatch from the President to Col. Sumner, in answer to the letter of the latter, inquiring whether he should use his forces to protect the settlers from the ruffians.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 23, '56.

"Since my telegraph of this morning was sent, the Secretary of War has laid before me Col. Sumner's letter to you of the 12th inst. This suggestion strikes me as wise and prudent, and I hope that before this reaches you decisive measures will have been taken to have the process in the hands of the marshal quietly executed. My knowledge of the facts is imperfect, but with the force of Col. Sumner at hand, I perceive no occasion for the posse, armed or unarmed, which the marshal is said to have assembled at Lecompton. The instructions issued to yourself and Col. Sumner, during your last visit to this city, must be efficiently executed. Sufficient power was committed to you, and you must use it.—Obedience to the laws and consequent security of the citizens of Kansas are primary objects. You must repress lawless violence in the territory, in what ever form it may manifest itself." (Signed) FRANKLIN PIERCE.

Read the above dispatch carefully—and you will see,—

1. That President Pierce does not defend the posse of rascals who carried out as far as they could, the purposes of Atchison and Stringfellow: and

2. That he does not, after all, give Col. Sumner any discretionary power, but leaves the discretion in the hands of the drunken and debased Shannon, the mere tool of the principal ruffians.

CHICAGO, June 13.—From Kansas.—Persons just arrived from Kansas city, on Monday evening, state that Col. Sumner ordered Gen. Whitfield's army to leave the territory on Saturday, when the whole number, 400, left and went to Westport where they were reinforced by 150 Missourians, and returned on Sunday, threatening to hang Sumner if they caught him. A collision between the United States troops and Whitfield's party was expected, unless the latter changed their purpose.

NORTH AMERICAN CONVENTION.—New York, June 13th.—The American convention was fully attended to-day. In the afternoon, speeches were made by Messrs. Richmond of Massachusetts, Andrews and Schaffer of New York, and ex-Governor Ford of Ohio.—When the name of Fremont was mentioned by ex-Governor Ford, the enthusiasm was tremendous, many of the delegates leaping upon the seats, waving their hats, and unmistakably indicating the preference of the Convention.

The committee on the proposition presented by the callers of the Republican Convention will report in favor of an informal ballot, merely expressing the preference of the Convention.

On Friday evening, a caucus was held, to arrange for a combination with the Republican Convention. It seems an understanding has been arrived at to prolong the session until the Philadelphia Convention meets, and then make a simultaneous nomination, and on Wednesday, at an appointed hour, the Philadelphia and New York Conventions will nominate John C. Fremont for the Presidency.

The Fillmore K. Ns. held a private caucus at the St. Nicholas, for the purpose of endeavoring to effect some sort of compromise with the North Americans.

New York, June 14th.—Third Day.—On the assembling, the Committee, to whom was referred the communication of the committee of the Republican Party, reported that they highly appreciate the necessity for the concerted action of the elements of opposition to the present administration, and therefore suggest a course of action calculation to remove all cause of difference among the friends of freedom, and which, at the same time, would preserve the distinctive character and principles of the great American party which we represent. The committee therefore unanimously recommend the passage of a series of resolutions expressive of these sentiments, and fully accepting the Republican proposition.

☞ As a coal loaded team, drawn by three horses, was passing down Pipe-stave Hill, in Newburyport, on Friday afternoon, one of the horses commenced kicking, which drew the reins from the driver's hands, when the horses started upon the run, and finally landed by the side of a stone wall, breaking the tongue of the cart; by which the coal was thrown upon one of them, breaking his back. The horse was valued at $200, and owned by Mr. William Porter.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Abington Standard mentions the sudden death in that town, of Mr. David Humble, 2d, a workman in the shoe manufactory of J. L. Nash & Co., induced from eating a large quantity of skimmed milk cheese.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—At the session of the Court in Newburyport, on Friday last, sentences were passed upon several individuals for violations of the Liquor Law. Dennett, who figured so largely at Ipswich a few months since, was sentenced to the House of Correction for three months. Holbrook, Burroughs, Mary J. March, William O. Pearson, Sarah C. Burrill, Francis P. Buckley, Richard Larkin, Wm. Morrison, were each sent to the House of Correction for adultery.—Amesbury Villger.

Ten German editors, issuing 70,000 papers weekly, met in Cincinnati on Monday, and resolved to act with the Republicans against the extension of slavery.

From the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate, their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and roseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY.—Wet your shaving brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only 50 cents.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The universal satisfaction which the these Pills have given, where they have been introduced, is truly astonishing; the numerous and valuable testimonials which Dr. Hayden has received from physicians and other professional men, together with the vast number of certificates from private sources, is truly gratifying, and is a sufficient proof of their virtues; though we are aware that the public have been imposed upon so often with medicines which have been highly extolled, but which on trial possessed no real virtues, that they have lost all confidence in any medicine which is advertised.

To those who may be induced to give these Pills a trial, they will find that the truth has not yet become entirely extinct. In conclusion, we would ask those who are suffering from disease, to read the certificates published in our columns. They are from persons who have been benefitted by their use, and who will at any time be happy to recommend them to others.

THE COST IS TRIFLING.

The smallest size bottle of Dyer's Healing Embrocation can be bought for 12½ cents. This is generally sufficient for a trial of this wonderful preparation; a saving can then be made in buying larger sized bottles. A person who has once used this valuable external and internal remedy will never suffer themselves to be without it.

FOURTH OF JULY.—We hope our citzens will respond with liberality to the call which will be made upon them to-day, by the committee who were appointed to raise subscriptions necessary to defray the expenses of a good Celebration of the day in this city. As we have had no celebration for two years, and the city government has appropriated money only to ring the bells and fire a salute, we trust the Committee will meet a generous encouragement. We are informed it is the intention of the committee to have a boat race on the river, together with floral procession, parade of fire companies, continentallers, &c., if the subscriptions are large enough. ***

SPALDING & ROGERS' NEW RAIL ROAD CIRCUS IS COMING.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column that this famous establishment will be in our city on Monday, June 30th, at 2 and 7 P M. This company is universally acknowledged by all that have had the pleasure of seeing it and by the press, where ever they have appeard, to surpass everything of the kind in the United States. The greatest of living riders, James Robinson, who won the prize at Washington in April last, as the best bare back rider, is attached to this company, also the renowned Levater Lee troupe, the American Brothers, and the three clowns, Horner, Burt and little Steve Lee, second to none that ever tried to drive dull care away by there infinite wit and original jests. A sufficient gauntee of its superiority over all other circuses is to know that the king of all Buglers, Ned Kendall, and his monster brass band of eighteen members, constitude the orchestra, and at each exhibition the visitors will have an opportunity of hearing Kendall play some of his beautiful solos on that silver bugle presented to him while in Europe by her Majesty, Queen Victoria. Take it all in all it will be the richest treat of the season, and we already hear many expressing their anxiety for its arrival. There novel mode of travelling by rail road is also a new feature in the circus business. Be ready in time, they are on the way. *

☞ Persons wishing to attend the Democratic Ratification Meeting at Concord on Tuesday next, can go up and back by paying fare one way only. Train will leave Portsmouth for Concord at 11:50 A. M. connecting with Boston & Maine Railroad at Newmarket Junction—Returning, leave Concord about 9 o'clock in the evening, after fireworks.

It is stated that a declaration, to the effect that slavery exists by the constitution in all the territories of the United States was only lost in the committee of the Cincinnati convention by a single vote.—Boston Chronicle.

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Steamer Arabia, Capt. Judkins, from Liverpool on Saturday, at 5.30 o'clock, P. M., on the 31st ult, arrived this evening. She has $20,000 in specie on board, and 113 passengers. Amongst them the Baron Osten Sacken and Countess Cornwall.

The recognition of Father Vijil as Minister from Nicaragua has not tended to diminish the anxiety respecting relations with the United States. The London Times, after saying that it really seemed as if demands on the one side and concessions on the other had reached their utmost limit, suggests that the United States send to London a special Ambassador, or accredit the present Minister with plenipotentiary powers, to settle the dispute amicably. There is to-day a rumor that Lord Elgin is to be sent as Plenipotentiary to Washington to endeavor to arrange matters. Another rumor says that Sir E. L. Bulwer will be the envoy.

Spain is fitting out a fleet to demand reparation from Mexico for alleged outrages.

On the 29th the Bank of England reduced its minimum rate of discount to 5 per cent., with a very limited trade demand.

Sir John Jarvis, the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, will be raised to the Peerage for life, and be replaced by Sir Frederick Thesiger.

The arrangements for the British Deputation to the Czar's coronation at Moscow are now complete. Earl Granville is to go as the head of the embassy.

Mr. Dallas and lady, and Mr. Philip Dallas, attended the Queen's drawing-room.

A letter from Berlin in the Manchester Guardian says there is a strong party in Prussia which is desirous that the government, instead of following the example of Russia, Sweden and Oldenburg, in regard to the capitalization of the Sound Dues, should abstain from any present decision, and should eventually take the same course as the U States has.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY, June 13.

In the House, Mr. Edwards, from the Special Committee on the Outrages of the Slave Power, reported a series of ten Resolutions condemnatory of Border Ruffianism in Kansas and Washington.

They were laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Harvey, of Epping, offered some resolutions laudatory of President Pierce's foreign policy—which were disposed of two or three different ways, and finally referred to a select committee.

A message was announced from the Governor, covering reports of the Overseers, Trustees, Treasurer, Superintendent, Auditor and Building Committee of the Asylum for the Insane,—which were ordered to be printed.

The Speaker appointed the following Committee on Alterations of the State House—Messrs. Jenkins of Portsmouth, Burleigh of Somersworth, Morrison of Gilford, Nute of Wolfboro', Bellows of Concord, Gould of Manchester, Haile of Hinsdale, Beard of Unity, Hadley of Orange, and Stiles of Gorham.

On the Apportionment of Taxes—Messrs. Tullock of Portsmouth, Webster of Kingston, Rollins of Somersworth, Mathes of Lee, Lang of Meredith, Morrison of Alton, Pitman of Bartlett, Cram of Conway, Bean of Concord, Dresser of Sutton, Atwood of Pelham, Converse of Marlborough, Comings of Swanzey, Winkley of Plainfield, Thompson of Newport, Hutchins of Bath, Merrill of Warren, Brown of Lancaster, and Forest of Berlin.

The House adjourned to Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, June 13.

SENATE.—Mr. Butler resumed his remarks from yesterday, and, in further apology for Brooks's attack on Mr. Sumner, said:—When the Legislature of Massachusetts says the gentleman's attack was cowardly, let him try him in any way they choose. [Applause.]

Mr. Stuart of Michigan said the proprieties and amenities of the Senate were too often thus violated by applause, and if the galleries could not be occupied by gentlemen, they should be cleared.

The chair inquired whether the gentleman from Michigan moved that the galleries be cleared.

Mr. Stuart said he did not.

Mr. Fessenden, in justice to the galleries, said the applause came from the floor of the Senate.

Mr. Butler said he would go on in such a way that no one would applaud again.—[Laughter.] Mr. Brooks, he continued, assaulted Mr. Sumner with no other purpose than to disgrace him. Mr Brooks was one of the best tempered fellows he ever knew, though impetuous, no doubt, and quick at resentment. Mr. Sumner received two flesh wounds, and, being rather handsome, did not expose himself. If he had been in the army, and had not gone out the next day after the fracas, he would have deserved to have been cashiered. [Laughter.] Mr. Butler thought, that on some accounts, it was fortunate he was not here at the time, for he did not know what he might have done. To be sure, it was thirty or forty years since he had been engaged in personal conflicts, and his hand was out of practice,—[laughter]—but he did not know but he might have a trial at him.—One thing he had no doubt of, namely, if he (Butler) were a young man, he would have left him (Sumner) in a worse condition than he now is. The New England papers, continued Mr. Butler, call this a specimen of Southern violence and Southern ruffianism, but the first Congressional fight, since the foundation of the government, took place between two New England men, Matthew Lyon and Roger Griswold. That did not take place outside of the House, but they fought with hickory sticks, spit-boxes, and tongs, all over the House of Representatives—[laughter]—when it is in session, too; but the House did not turn them out. They said—let them both go—they are disgraced enough already.

Mr. Butler then proceeded to review Mr. Sumner's speech, closing by claiming that he had convicted Mr. Sumner of proclivity to error, calumny, and misrepresentation, thus effectually turning the guns which he (Mr. Sumner) had pointed at him.

Mr. Wilson replied in an able manner:—after which Mr. Evans obtained the floor, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.

NEW YORK, June 13.

She has nearly $2,000,000.

The brig Quadratus went ashore at Goose Bay May 4. Mr. Simpson of San Francisco, and Mrs. McDonald and child were drowned in attempting to reach the shore.

The steamer Golden Age, with the New York passengers of April 20, had not arrived at San Francisco. She was six days overdue, and fears were entertained that she had met with an accident.

San Francisco market very dull. Business houses closed on the afternoon of the 20th in consequence of the excitement caused by the murder of Mr. King. Haxall Flour $14 50; Gallego do. Mess Beef $18 50; Hams 14;—Bacon, extra clear sides 16 1 2; Butter 45; Lard 17 1-2.

The attack of the Vigilance Committee upon the jail was made with military order. A force of 2500 men, armed, surrounded the prison, a brass 18 pounder was pointed at the door, and, when all was ready for the assault, the Committee made a formal demand upon the Sheriff for the surrender of the jail. The Sheriff, being totally unprepared for resistance, surrendered immediately, and the prisoners, Casey and Cora, were taken by the Committee and carried to headquarters, where they remained. The excitement in the city was intense.

As soon as the death of Mr. King was announced, the bells were tolled, stores closed, all business suspended, and the fronts of all the buildings along the thoroughfares draped in mourning.

Cora and Casey had both been tried before a revolutionary tribunal of twenty-nine jurors, and sentenced to be hung. They were to be executed on the day following the funeral of King. The excitement extended throughout the state, and thousands of armed men in the interior were ready to hasten to the assistance of the revolutionists in the city.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof by him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed, and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in advising inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more energetic in prosecuting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

OF

IN NOW PREPARED TO SELL

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

When sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois, over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is found in several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $150 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to pay the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of raising them; and hence Government lands thus situated at the river ports are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, and although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses, the distance to market is far greater, and every mile and mile the produce of those lands are carried either by wagon or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course of their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall annually be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing, the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

NEW LAW FIRM.—The Boston Traveller says that Nathaniel Richardson and Matthew Hale Smith, Esqrs., have formed a connection, under the style of Richardson & Smith, for the purpose of practicing law in the city of New York, and have taken an office at Nos. 119 and 121 Nassau Street.

On this the Providence Transcript says:—

But we should like to know where this said Matthew Hale Smith came from, and whether if we need his services in the law, he would not be off before we could reach the city even by the earliest express. The last we heard of him was that he had become connected with the Episcopal Church in the State of New York, and receiving ordination of the Bishop in that State, had entered upon his duties as a Minister in a new denomination. Now we hear of him adopting again the profession of the law. It would be an interesting item to put on record the number of times Mr. Smith has changed his profession since he entered public life.

We copy the above, chiefly for the purpose of correcting an error.—We have been informed that Mr. M. H. Smith has not been ordained in New York, nor put into the Ministry of the Episcopal Church there or elsewhere,—but that he applied and was rejected.

A similar rejection met him a year or two ago, when he applied for re-admission into one of the Suffolk (Congregational) Associations, of which he was formerly a member—and his application was unanimously rejected.

REV. PROFESSOR HUNTINGTON AND THE STUDENTS AT HARVARD COLLEGE.—Our readers will remember that a student in Harvard College, named Hazen Dorr, was found dead last week in his room. On Sabbath last, Rev. Mr. Huntington preached a sermon in the Chapel, suggested by this death. In the course of the sermon he refered in strong and earnest language to the dissipation of College life; and in applying the subject, alluded to the death of Dorr. Some of the students were offended, and held a meeting and passed a resolution of censure against the preacher. They will find it a little more difficult than they imagine to frighten Dr. Huntington. They cannot turn him the tenth part of a hair from any course of duty which he may have marked out. It is quite time that some one spoke out against the dissipation of College life. Dr. Huntington should be honored for his manly words against the iniquities which are known to be carried on within the walls of the University.—Boston Telegraph.

A ROMAN CATHOLIC SPECTACLE.—A strange ceremony was performed in the Roman Catholic church at Hoboken, N. J., on Sunday; one which indeed partakes of the character of a farce, even through the actors in it were grave eclesiastical dignitaries, and the performance was conducted with all the pomp and solemnity which usually attends the rites of the Roman church. This ceremony was the enshrinement, or, as it is termed, the "translation" of the relics of a certain Saint Quietus, who is said to have lived about seventeen hundred years ago, and who died at the mature age of five years and two months. The relics consisted of two pieces of bone about four inches long, and a small quantity of a dry red substance represented to be blood.

POETS AND PROPHETS.—The poet and prophet were near of kin to each other in the early days of the world. In this latter age no example is, we believe on record of a poetic prophecy at all comparable to the following lines, written several years ago by the late Lady Lovelace, Lord Byron's Ada, as the concluding stanza of a "Portrait from Life" of Miss Florence Nightingale:

In future years, in distant climes,
Should war's dread strife its victims claim,
Should pestilence, unchecked betimes,
Strike more than sword, than cannon maim,
He who then reads these truthful rhymes,
Will trace her progress to undying fame.

There is a great deal of trouble in New Orleans because the liquor sellers persist in selling rum to slaves. A hundred blacks got together in Baronne street, a little while ago, and drank and gambled to the extent that the city press is alarmed for the supremacy of the white race.

Received PREMIUMS for the best specimens of Dentistry exhibited at Rockingham (N. H.) and York (Me.) County Fairs in 1855.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1856.

MR. BUCHANAN.

We give a selection of opinions, or speculations, on the nomination. We begin with the N. H. Daily Patriot, as one of the most important.

The nomination of Mr. Buchanan will be heartily and cordially responded to by the Democracy of New Hampshire. Although they preferred, for obvious reasons, the re-nomination of President Pierce, and will very naturally feel disappointed that he did not receive it, still they have the most unlimited confidence in Mr. Buchanan, and will support him with the same zeal, energy and enthusiasm that they would have exhibited in support of their own distinguished fellow citizen. There is not a Democrat in the State who will not support the nomination, and there is no doubt that it will be sustained by a majority of five thousand in the popular vote of New Hampshire.

Time will show; but so far as we can juge, at present there is no probability whatever, that he can get the vote of New Hampshire. The Patriot was very sure of a working majority in the House in 1854—quite sure of carrying the State in '55—and pretty sure of success in '56;—but it came out minus. Now it has "no doubts," as above suggested—but we doubt and disbelieve it.

Next, the Boston Courier says:

The Democrats of our city and state, and of all the New England states, including New Hampshire, receive the nomination of Mr. Buchanan for the office of President, with the most exulting exhibitions of joy and satisfaction. This course of action is not very complimentary to Mr. Pierce, whose whole Presidential and political course, from the time that he was made chief magistrate of the nation, has indicated an insane desire for a renomination,—and a renomination, in the divided state of the opposition, has been held tantamount to a re-election. Mr. Pierce would have been nominated if the Democrats had considered that they had the least chance of electing him, but they knew that they could not do it, and therefore they forbore to make that experiment upon the feelings of the American people.

Thirdly, the Charleston, (Ms.) Advertiser says:

It is conceded by all who carefully scan the political horizon, that Buchanan cannot carry a single Northern or Western State, not even Pennsylvania, and some of the Southern States are very doubtful.

The Bee says:

Hon. James Buchanan, the democratic nominee for the Presidency, was born in Franklin County, Pa., April 13, 1791, being therefore in his sixty-sixth year, but looks even older than most men do at that age. He is a bachelor, but not, we should say, in the matrimonial market. Ladies who are ambitious of presiding over the White House need not make any extra exertions, for there are two very strong arguments against them. The first is, Mr. Buchanan won't marry; and the second, he never will be President!

The New York Herald anticipates "one of the most exciting, tumultuous and revolutionary political contests in all the history of the republic," and says:

"Many of our hopeful democratic fellow citizens affect to believe that there will hardly be a fight—that Mr. Buchanan with scarcely a show of resistance, will walk over the course. We have only to say, looking calmly over the whole field, that for all such as entertain the belief that there will be no struggle, the doors of some lunatic asylum had better be opened at once. We have no doubt of the fact that a vast majority of the American people, in the present distracted condition of the country, are opposed to the democratic party, as debauched and demoralized under the malign influence of this Pierce administration; and we believe that there would still exist a majority of the American people opposed to the ratification of the debaucheries of this corrupted party, even if they should nominate for their representative an angel from heaven. This is our conviction and our belief."

Buchanan stands upon the Pierce and Douglas platform, and goes all lengths with the slave propagandists. He says in a recent speech:

"That in the repeal of the act known as the Missouri Compromise act, and the passages of the act organizing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska, the last Congress performed a work of patriotic sacrifice in meeting the demands of sectional excitement, by unshaken adherence to the fundamental law."

HAMLIN AND BUTLER.—Senator Hamlin of Maine, has declined to support Mr. Buchanan, because the latter stands on the Douglass platform.—Senator Butler, in his speech on Friday, shows himself in his true colors—a fit companion of Brooks and Herbert, a worthy representative of drunken chivalry. He cites the instance of an old fight in Congress,—there have been several much like it. But they were real fights, sudden, and violent,—not premeditated, and plotted assaults, with a cowardly set of abettors, who skulked round for two days.

Hon. Lot M. Morrill, of Augusta, Chairman of the Maine Democratic State Committee, and President of the present State Senate, has notified his colleagues that he cannot support either Buchanan or the platform on which he stands.—Boston Atlas.

RUM ROWDYISM.—On Sunday afternoon, the police of the third station, Boston, found Dennis and Morgan Sweeny, brothers, drunk and noisy, in Lowell street. The officer who arrested them received some pretty severe blows, but he retained his hold and conveyed them to the station house.

The Methodist Episcopal Conference, at their session in Indianapolis, refused by a vote of 121 to 94, to alter the clause in the discipline which forbids the buying and selling of slaves.

There is some truth in the paragraph,—and yet it may convey to most readers, an erroneous impression.

The clause on slavery, now forbids buying and selling slaves. It was desired to add a clause that members of the church should not hold slaves.

To make this addition, a two thirds vote was needful, being required by the constitution of the Church.

A majority was obtained for the change, but not two thirds,—and therefore the change is not made.—But it will be, in time.

REV. MR. JEWETT.—The Boston Courier says, the many friends of the Rev. Geo. B. Jewett, who, with his wife, were terribly mutilated at the railroad crossing in Nashua several weeks ago, and their only child killed, will be glad to know that Mr. and Mrs. Jewett are getting along quite comfortably, and are gradually gaining strength. A few weeks after the accident, Mr. Jewett was compelled to submit to a second amputation of the right leg, the first operation not doing so well as was desired. He is now able to move about his room, although with considerable difficulty. Mrs. Jewett can sit up a portion of he day. It will be remembered that a portion of her left hand was amputated, and, besides other serious injuries, both were very much bruised and strained.

☞ Rev. Asa Cummings, D. D., aged 66, died on board the steamship George Law, on her late passage from Panama to New York. Mr. Cummings was for many years, and until recently, editor of the Christian Mirror, published at Portland. He was also the writer of a Life of Payson, and the editor of his works:—and was widely known and highly esteemed. We knew him well; and have seldom found a more genial companion for an hour.

He was on his return voyage from Panama, whither he had been to visit a daughter, and who, we believe, was accompanying him home. The particulars of his decease have not been received: his body was committed to the great deep, there to rest until "the sea shall give up its dead.'

☞ Somebody has been circulating bogus petitions to Congress, for dissolving the Union,—to be sent to Wilson, Hale, Wade, &c. The petitions are the work of some opponent of these Senators, who wishes to make capital, and don't know how.

THE WANDERERS—a Tale of Life's Vicissitudes.—A new book with the above title is shortly to be published by C. D. Long, 121 Nassau street, New York. It is by the author of "The Watchman,"—of which popular work the publishers have sold 40,000 copies. The new book will be in one volume, cloth, price $1.

NEW MUSIC.—"My Sailor Brother's Grave," a capital Song and Chorus, composed by S. B. Ball, of Boston; "Mother's Smile," a pleasing song, by Jos. Sieboth; and "Mother's dead and gone," a Ballad, written and composed by H. S. Thompson, the incomparable singer, in the pleasing and popular style of Lilly Dale and his other compositions,—are just received from the publishers, G. P. Reed & Co., Boston, through their agents in this city, Messrs. J. S. Harvey & Son,—on whose counters will always be found the latest issues in the musical line.

THE OLD VICARAGE—is the title of a delightful novel, by Mrs. Hubback. It is just published, in a finely executed volume of 430 pages, by Fetridge & Co., Boston and New York, and is for sale in this city by Mr. J. F. Shores, jr.

It will pot only sell, but be read, again and again.

☞ The Wife's Trials; a Novel,—by the author of the Jealous Wife, is just published by Fetridge & Co., Boston and New York,—and is for sale by J. F. Shores, jr., Portsmouth.

MR. SUMNER'S HEALTH.—We have reliable accounts from Mr. Sumner up to Thursday evening, at which date his brother, George Sumner, Esq., wrote the following statement to a gentleman of Boston:

"Matters go on slowly,—the patient is very weak, and the first experiment to take him out for a drive has resulted so poorly, that I almost fear to renew the experiment. Yesterday (Monday) he was in a state of complete prostration, unable to rise from his bed. When strong enough to be driven seven miles, I shall drive him into the country, at Mr. Blair's, where the fresher air cannot fail to do him good."—Transcript.

☞ Rev. Rufus W. Clark, of East Boston, has received a unanimous call from the New England Congregational Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., to become their pastor.

DOVER, N. H., June 16.—Hon. John P. Hale was presented by Mayor Peirce, in the City Hall, on Saturday evening, with an elegant silver salver from the citizens of Dover, for his exertions in behalf of Freedom. Mr. Hale replied in an eloquent speech.

Padre Vijil was nearly suffocated on Saturday night in New York, having gone to bed in his room at the Metropolitan with the gas escaping. Not being used to that sort of light, on retiring he blew out the gas, and in a short time his chamber was full of the fluid. When the servant broke open the door, he was greatly prostrated, but medical assistance soon brought him to.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A verdict of guilty was last night rendered in the case of the negro Wilson, charged with murder on board schooner Endora Imogene. The prisoner was immediately sentenced to death.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The universal satisfaction which the these Pills have given, where they have been introduced, is truly astonishing; the numerous and valuable testimonials which Dr. Hayden has received from physicians and other professional men, together with the vast number of certificates from private sources, is truly gratifying, and is a sufficient proof of their virtues; though we are aware that the public have been imposed upon so often with medicines which have been highly extolled, but which on trial possessed no real virtues, that they have lost all confidence in any medicine which is advertised.

To those who may be induced to give these Pills a trial, they will find that the truth has not yet become entirely extinct. In conclusion, we would ask those who are suffering from disease, to read the certificates published in our columns. They are from persons who have been benefitted by their use, and who will at any time be happy to recommend them to others.

THE COST IS TRIFLING.

The smallest size bottle of Dyer's Healing Embrocation can be bought for 12½ cents. This is generally sufficient for a trial of this wonderful preparation; a saving can then be made in buying larger sized bottles. A person who has once used this valuable external and internal remedy will never suffer themselves to be without it.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along!"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

THE GYMNASIUM AGAIN.

Mr. Editor—I see in the columns of your paper for June 10th, an article signed "x," purporting to be a reply to my question as to the feasibility of establishing a gymnasium in this place; but which digresses greatly from the subject.

First, J objects to a gymnasium on the score of its being in a 'hall.' Now there is no earthly reason why it should be; four corner posts and a roof would answer all purposes.

Second. Why not one for females as well as males? No reason; ladies need exercise as much as the sterner sex: we favor one for each.

Third. The reasons why a gymnasium is not so likely to become connected with vice as a bowling alley, are, because of its being a sort of corporation, where one pays by the he year and comes and goes as he likes, so that no person is constantly to be there, to whom it would be an object to deal out poisonous drinks; and one is no more apt to be contaminated by the persons whom he sees here, than by those he sees while enjoying a swimming bath, where also he would meet all grades.

Fourthly, he says, "In sedentary pursuits it is the mind that is tasked, while the body is paralized." That's 'pat' to this subject, and one of the strongest reasons why there should be a gymnasium!

In his fifth he advocates making observations, on the scenery, &c.; deeds of benevolence and exercise of the soul, as being 'like narrow to the bones and health to all the flesh;' but is the man in his sane mind who will say that these, although of the highest order of action, are calculated to preserve the health and strength of the body?

Sixth. He fears a too great development of the animal faculties, but this I have never seen, except where such exercise would be the very mode to reduce such a defect.

Seventh. He recommends a walk of from 2 to 10 miles, into the country. A gymnasium is especially for the benefit of those who do not have time for such a walk in the sunlight; and if they take it after the night sets in, they will not be able to see 'the right sort of gymnasium' of which he speaks. I am myself in favor of walking, and as often as possible make a jaunt of 10 or even 20 miles, and dare say I am as much entranced with the silent praise which Nature offers, as he or any other.

We do not see the fitness of his eighth, in regard to commons, as we lamented the lack of them in our city.

His ninth and last advises a 'spirit of unbounded benevolence and a ceaseless activity in doing good works,' when, he says, 'we shall not need any better gymnasium.'

I maintain that such would not be the case; should we neglect the athletic sports still more than at present, notwithstanding charity (and 'charity covereth a multitude of sins,') we should be anything but a beautiful race of people. God made man in his own image but how much the likeness is abused! No one would ever think of calling a round-shouldered, weak-backed, spider-legged man, God-like.

Soundness of mind, and soundness of body are both to be desired: and the latter greatly aids the former. H. M. J.

☞ A public religious service, in connection with a meeting of ministers, will be held in the North Church to-day, (Tuesday,) at 3 o'clock P. M. Rev. Mr. Steele, of Stratham, will preach the Sermon.

☞ Persons wishing to attend the Democratic Ratification Meeting at Concord to-day, can go up and back by paying fare one way only. Train will leave Portsmouth for Concord at 11:50 A. M. connecting with Boston & Maine Railroad at Newmarket Junction.—Returning, leave Concord about 9 o'clock in the evening, after fireworks.

SALE AT AUCTION.—The House and Lot of Land No. 40 Pleasant street, was sold at Auction by Geo. W. Towle, for $1425, to B. F. Webster, on Saturday last.

THE POST ERECT—THE CITY FLOORED. In the case City of Portsmouth vs. Charles Robinson, charged with obstructing Pleasant street, tried in the Police Court yesterday forenoon, Justice Odell decided that the post complained of, was no obstruction, and dismissed the complaint. The city of course pays costs.

In the same court, in the afternoon, Officers Grant and Foote were convicted of assault and false imprisonment of Kelley and Donovan, and ordered $5,00 each and costs, from which judgment they appealed. The city must pay the bills in this case too, as the officers obeyed orders. No appropriation has been made to carry on this war by our "retrenching" administration.—Ballot.

Officers Grant and Foote acted under orders of Street Commissioner Jones—who was also fined with them.

☞ An effigy labelled "Preston S. Brooks of South Carolina," was found on Tuesday morning, suspended by the neck, by a rope attached to the tops of trees in front of the old Davenport and McClintock houses, on State street in this city. It was dressed in dark sack coat, light pants, and black slouched hat; and hung about twenty feet above the middle of the street.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, June 14.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, Messrs. Dean of Connecticut, Thurston of Rhode Island, and Trafton of Massachusetts, severally presented resolutions from those States, relative to the recent occurrences in Kansas and Congress.

Adjourned to Wednesday.

MONDAY, 16th.

SENATE.—The Senate adopted a resolution calling for the correspondence between this country and England on the maritime law that free ship make free goods.

Mr Clayton offered a proposition for reinstating harmony, justice and peace, to Kansas which he introduced with a few conciliatory remarks.

WASHINGTON, Sunday evening, June 15th.—Secretary Marcy has formally signified to the Danish Minister the purpose of the President not to make forcible resistance to the collection of the Sound dues at Elsinore, for one year from the 14th inst.;—thus virtually bequeathing this question to the next administration. Meantime the dues will be paid under protest, never to be recovered, of course, by our merchants.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—[Tribune Correspondence.]—Great embarrassment is created here by the violent course of the pro-slavery faction in Kansas. A proclamation to meet the case, is talked of.

NORTH AMER. CONVENTION.—On Saturday, at New York, three informal ballotings were had. The first, after correction, stood as follows:

HALIFAX, June 14.—Loss of Ship Pallas.—The ship Pallas, Capt. Spillane, from Cork, for Quebec, with 120 passengers, sighted the coast at Cape Breton, on the morning of the 30th of May.

In the afternoon, the captain discovered that his compasses varied from one another, and shaped his course between Cape North and St. Paul's Island, when at 10 P. M. the ship struck the breakers off St. Paul's and bilged. The sea washed over the vessel, and the greatest consternation ensued. The panic-stricken passengers rushed into the boats and swamped them, and seventy-two were thus drowned.

FRESHET AT HAYTI.—Capt. Jordan, of brig Hobart, from Jackmel, Hayti, reports on the night of May 21, in consequence of rain having fallen in torrents for three days, the stream Orange overflowed and submerged a part of Jackmel. From twenty to twenty-five houses were carried away, and many of the occupants drowned, while others were saved by small boats. Many of the inhabitants are left without a home, clothes, or any common necessaries of life. It is almost impossible to describe the damage, not only in the town and vicinity, but also in the interior. All of the banana trees were rooted up and washed into the river, with a great number of animals, etc. The high roads to the capital and elsewhere became impracticable. The storm appears to have been prevalent throughout the island, therefore bad accounts are to be apprehended. A great deal of coffee washed away out of the stores of the speculators.

FINAL INTERMENT OF MADAME SONTAG.—In the Heraldo, a paper published in Mexico, of May 18, there is an acknowledgement from the editor, of the reception of a letter dated at Brussels, from Count Rossi, the husband of the late lamented Henrietta Sontag, inclosing two lithographic portraits of her. In the letter he says:—

"On the 2d of May, my valued friend, we fulfilled the mournful ceremony of interring the remains of my dear Henrietta in the convent of Marientchel, near Dresden, in which her younger sister is a nun, and where they now repose in the tomb that those good ladies were kind enough to offer me, reserving for me a place by their side. In this sad act, my four children, the mother of the dear deceased, and her brother, Capt. Sontag, accompanied me. I did not wish my numerous friends to attend as they desired, believing that the grief of her family would appear to her a more agreeable homage than the pomp of a vain demonstration. Our tears and our prayers followed her to her grave, and her memory will be for ever treasured in our hearts. Requiescat in Pace."

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO ARISTOCRACIES.—An exchange calls attention to the fact that Herbert, the democratic representative from California, glides gently through the masses of Washington law, and whenever an opening sufficiently large presents itself, will slip out entirely. Lord Ferrers, an English Earl, for shooting his servant in a similar fit of passion, was hanged at Tyburn, like any other felon. But then Lord Ferrers was not an administration democrat, nor a slaveholder. He was only an English peer. It is a woful fact, that our southern nabobs, of whom Herbert has always been one, form a more lawless and dangerous aristocracy than any in the constitutional monarchies of Europe.

From the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate, their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and roseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY.—Wet your shaving brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only 50 cents.

And there the waves o'er the plain, the bright golden grain,
Or which each man on earth is a lover.
The Scythe you will find,
The Snaith to your mind,
And Rifle of very best grit;
The Fork that's not fickle,
The finely formed Sickle,
And the Rake that all stubbles will fit;
These things may be found
By Farmers all round,
At BLAISDELL'S, on old Market street;
And the keeper you'll find,
Good natured and kind
To deal with him must be a rich treat. j10

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of Wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

When sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market. Bituminous coal is found at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the lands are worth; that many of the Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual payments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the purchased premises shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the early white, burning, and equal to any Sperm, and is very much cheaper, and will stand limpid in the coldest of weather. Sold at wholesale by S. CLEAVES & SON.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

THE REAL ISSUE.

Under this head, an able writer in the Newburyport Herald, (supposed to be Rev. Dr. Withington,) presents the following brief essay:

Notwithstanding so much has been written on the current questions of the day, there are thousands of people, who have never clearly stated to themselves the question at issue between the only two great parties which divide the land. It is a very simple one, and a very old one; it lies in a nut-shell. Lord Mansfield once said, that when once a question is clearly stated, it is half decided.—What then is the question which underlies all our excitement and has caused the outrage on Mr. Sumner? It is, whether a constructive and artificial majority shall rule. Whether, by some technical artifice, the real people shall be placed in the minority. It was so in the days of Robespierre—the rabble of Paris ruled France; and because they were on hand and violent, they seemed to be the people. Hence Lord Brougham tells, that Barrere, after the overthrow of the monarchy, had the honesty and audacity to say—Il y une republique—il n'y a pos de republicans; here is a republic and no republicans. Danton told them the same. It was so in Athens and it was so in Rome. The great art was to turn a great minority into a constructive majority. They chose the hour of sun-down and measured the time by its long shadow. The Constitution provides that "representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States, which may be included within the Union, according to their respective numbers; which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service by a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons." Originally, no doubt, this was regarded as a temporary expedient, for slavery was regarded then as a falling institution; more earnestly so at the South than at the North.

But a change has come over us. Slavery is now felt to be an instrument of political power. It reverses the fundamental principle of Republicanism, and says that the minority shall rule. Nor is this merely a political abstraction. It is even more so in effect, than it is in theory. For slavery produces such a unity of interest, and concentrates so much in a few proud families, that this great nation has now for half a century been ruled by about 250,000 voters—a great part of the time by a less number. They are always sure to unite on an exciting question, and their union, together with the quantum of reality always found at the North, is always sure to carry the day. The road to the Presidency and the cabinet is as plain as the road to our jail. It has been pointed out by the example of Franklin Pierce, Judge Douglas, and a host of others. The road to our political Heaven is neither a strait nor a narrow way. No wonder they wish to spread their delightful principles over the new territory.—The only way to perpetuate their artificial power is to extend it. The grand principle, involved in the civil war in Kansas, is—shall we alter our fundamental principles? Shall a constructive majority—more real in practice than it even is in theory—continue to rule this once happy land? That is the naked question. No wonder they are in earnest. Now in the name of our fathers, in the name of the Pilgrims, in the name of liberty—a name once dear to every republican ear—in the name of reason and of God, we ask all parties, every man that has a northern heart—Whigs, Native Americans, Free Soilers, Abolitionists, Democrats, Hard and Soft Shells—to look at the question, and act accordingly. Remember that Daniel Webster said, in that speech which produced so much crimination—"The North finds itself where it never did expect to find itself when they entered the compact of the Constitution."—[Speech, 1850.] These were almost his dying words.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1856.

N. Y. CONVENTION.

Banks	53
Fremont	18
McLean	24

[The name of Com. Stockton had been previously withdrawn, and the New Jersey delegation had seceded.]

It was moved and seconded by the Pennsylvania delegates, that the convention give an unanimous expression in favor of Banks. The motion was carried with great cheering for Banks.

Mr. Johnston of Pennsylvania, was nominated for Vice President.

Whole number 109—

Fremont	11
Colby, of N. H.	5
Campbell, of Ohio	7
Bell, of Tennessee	1
Hamlin, of Maine	7
Johnston, of Pa.	59
Ford, of Ohio	16
Chauncey Schaffer, of N. Y.	1

The nomination of Johnston was then declared unanimous, only one vote being given in the negative.

Mr. Johnston returned his acknowledgements; declared himself a true American, opposed to the administration, and in favor of combining the elements of opposition against it. He continued at some length in favor of liberty of conscience, liberty of the Press, free speech and free territories. He was also in favor of the improvement of rivers and harbors, and of a Railroad to the Pacific.

The Chairman announced the committee to notify the candidates of their nomination, and confer with the republican convention, in accordance with the resolutions.

A platform was then unanimously adopted: brief, but strongly in favor of freedom in all the territories, and of preserving the ballot box from foreign influence.

The convention adjourned till Thursday at 12 o'clock, then to receive the report of the committee of conference.

☞ The seceding New Jersey delegates from the North American Convention, have simply gone South, though a series of strong Anti-Nebraska resolutions were adopted.

Various addresses were made; one by Mr. Perrin, formerly of Tennessee, who acted as a self-appointed delegate from that State. He explained that the entire action of the seceders was a ruse to aid Fillmore, that was the object of the delegation from New Jersey in attending the convention; that they had as good right to play games as the men who voted for Banks.

There was not a dozen seceders in all, the entire number being from New Jersey, except one from Deleware, two from New York, and one from Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

A special dispatch to the Boston Advertiser, from Philadelphia, dated Monday evening, June 16, says:

The Ohio delegation to the National Opposition Convention, stands:— 34 for Chase, 24 for McLean, and 10 for Fremont. The Chase men will doubtless make Fremont their second choice.

New England is all for Fremont.

The nomination of Fremont is conceded on all hands. Mr. Banks will decline the New York nomination, nor do I see yet how Johnston can be adopted for Vice President. His own friends say that he cannot help the cause in Pennsylvania.

There is a strong feeling for a conservative 'old line' whig for Vice President, but the exact name cannot readily be hit upon. Mr. Banks declines everything, but may yet be pitched upon.

Most of the Congressional influence is for Judge McLean, and he counts among his supporters some of the best men here. They are earnest in believing that he is the only man that can be successful; but the refusal of the Pennsylvania republican State Convention to instruct their delegates in his favor is a bad blow to him.

The convention will continue at least two days.

The Ohio delegation has expressed its second choice; all but five are for Fremont.

Massachusetts has elected Hon. Thomas D. Elliot of New Bedford, Chairman, and Judge Hoar a member of the Committee on Resolutions. Mr. Hoar is strenuously opposed to any platform.

☞ There was a large Buchanan mass meeting at Brooklyn, N. Y., on the evening of the 16th. While Mr. Murphy was speaking, the platform upon which were the speaker, officers of the meeting and reporters, broke down with a tremendous crash, precipitating all to the ground, and breaking the leg of Major Taft of Brooklyn.

☞ The State Agricultural Fair is to be at Concord this year, and not at Manchester as has been stated.

KANSAS RESOLUTIONS.

In the Legislature of New Hampshire, on Friday June 13, Mr. Edwards of Keene, from the special committee on the outrages of the slave power, reported to the House the following Resolutions of the Legislature of New Hampshire in relation to the late acts of violence and bloodshed by the Slave Power in the Territory of Kansas and at the National Capital.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened,

1. Resolved, That all subsequent events have demonstrated that the abrogation, in the act organizing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska, of the prohibition against slavery, which formed a part of the compact long known and respected as the Missouri Compromise, was not, as was alleged by the supporters of the measure, for the purpose of recognizing and establishing a great political principle, but, as was charged by its opponents at the time, had for its object to strip that great territory of its defences, and to open it to invasion and conquest by that relentless power which in its onward movement no concession can appease and no acquisition can satisfy, and which, for the advancement of its unholy purposes, has long wielded, and virtually claims the right to wield, the whole power of the general government.

2. Resolved, That the successful incursions of the armed and organised bands of lawless marauders from a neighboring state into the Territory of Kansas—assailing and overpowering its peaceful inhabitants, preventing the lawful exercise of their political rights, seizing upon and appropriating all the powers vested in them for the formation of a government, and fortifying and perpetuating this usurpation by the most oppressive and atrocious laws—have proved that the doctrine of popular sovereignty, however true in the abstract, and in its application to a nation or to independent communities, is not fitted to the condition of an infant territory, under constitutional guardianship, and most especially where the powers vested in the guardian shall be used in violation of the great trust which it holds.

3. Resolved, That there never has been established in Kansas any government in accordance with the provisions of its territorial or organic law, and consequently that no lawful government now exists in that territory; and that the conduct of the National Executive, in sanctioning and sustaining a pretended government, forcibly imposed upon its inhabitants by slavery fanatics and propagandists from the state of Missouri, is unjust and inhuman, and ought to be rebuked by the friends of freedom throughout the Union, in the most emphatic manner in which they can express their condemnation of wrong.

4. Resolved, That responsibility for the depredations, burnings, imprisonments, and murders which have been committed against the property and persons of the citizens of Kansas, tidings of which have come to us upon every western breeze, rests, we are constrained to say, as well upon the President of the United States, charged with the execution of the laws and the preservation of the peace of the country, as upon the infamed and misguided men who have been the actors in the perpetration of these crimes, and upon those who have stimulated and instigated their commission.

5. Resolved, That the recent unmanly and murderous assaults which have disgraced the National Capital, are but the single outbursts of that fierce spirit of determined domination which has revealed itself so fully on a large field, and which manifests itself at every point of contact between Freedom and Slavery, and which, if it shall not be promptly met and subdued, will render any free expression of opinion, any independence of personal action by prominent men of the free states, in relation to the great national issue now pending, imprudent and perilous, unless it shall be understood that it is to be backed up by the bowie knife and the revolver.

6. Resolved, That while offences, of whatever enormity, which affect only or mainly individual rights or individual security, may be referred for punishment to the local laws of the place where they are committed, for those offences which reach beyond the individual, and inflict a wound upon a great principle which concerns the whole people, it becomes a duty to arraign the offender at the great bar of the public opinion of the country, and to pronounce upon him such sentence of condemnation as his crime shall merit.

7. Resolved, That the assault upon an editor of a public journal, when in attendance upon Congress in the lawful exercise of his profession, supposed to have been expressed by him through the columns of that journal, upon the public official conduct of a member of the government, was a blow at the freedom of the press, and could only have been intended as an admonition that Slavery had grown so great that her champions must be spoken of only in careful language and with bated breath.

8. Resolved, That the later, more atrocious and more brutal attack, by one of the chivalrous Representatives of South Carolina, upon a Senator from Massachusetts, in the Senate Chamber, for words spoken in debate, in his place, and as the organ of the state which he in part represents in that body, made with the stealthy approach of the assassin, and with the cowardly accompaniment of an accessory and coadjutor, inflicting blows which by their force and frequency had in them hardly any thing short of the significance of murder, is receiving the indignant rebuke it deserves, from the concentrated voice of the people of the free states, expressed through the press, and in popular assemblies and legislative bodies—not merely as a crime against personal sanctity, but as a violation of Senatorial privilege, as an insult to the dignity and rights of a sovereign state, and as an outrage upon the great constitutional right of freedom of debate—a right in the vindication and preservation of which every state and every citizen has a deep interest—and that it is fitting that New Hampshire, through her Legislature, should add her voice, and the voice of her sons of Massachusetts and Connecticut, in swelling the volume of denunciation, and in demanding the punishment of the offender by his expulsion from that body which he has disgraced.

9. Resolved, That the people of the free states, strong in the irresistible force of the majority of numbers, have the power, if they will exercise it, through the lawful and peaceful agency of the ballot box, to compel respect for the rights of their representatives wherever they may be called to go, in the discharge of their official duties; the power to right the wrongs of Kansas, and to restore peace and security to that unhappy territory; the power to prevent the extension of slavery over any territory now free, and to re-establish freedom in it should the people desire it; the controlling power in the government,—and that this state now pledges herself to cooperate with any and all of her sister states in all constitutional measures for the accomplishment of this great end.

10. Resolved, That His Excellency the Governor be requested to forward a copy of these Resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, to be laid before the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

The Tables Turned.—The Manchester Mirror reports that in that city some time ago, one Mary Phinney complained against one G. E. Palmer, in a case of seduction and bastardy. Palmer denied, gave bonds, waited the event, and went to Court. Miss Phinney did not appear, the suit fell through; and she now stands charged with perjury, under $500 bonds to appear before the Court of Common Pleas.

New Map.—We have received from the publisher, Mr. A. Ranney, 195 Broadway, New York, a cheap and convenient Map of New Hampshire and, Vermont, by Morse, price only 50 cents, in a neat cover for the pocket. Of course such a map does not claim accuracy,—but it is just the thing for a traveller.

The wolf or other wild animal that committed so extensive depredations at Piermont and vicinity, still lives. About a fortnight since, he killed nine sheep in mid-day, in the town of Warren, N. H. The farmers of Piermont drive their sheep into sheds every night—the only way they can save them.

Suicide.—Oliver Briggs, a pauper, aged about 60 years, was found dead in the woods some thirty rods from the clearing, in Lyman, N. H., on Tuesday the 3d inst. He was last seen the Sunday previous, and was found by Mr. Wm. Berkley, as he was passing through the woods after his cows. The deceased was found hanging to the limb of a tree.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The universal satisfaction which the these Pills have given, where they have been introduced, is truly astonishing; the numerous and valuable testimonials which Dr. Hayden has received from physicians and other professional men, together with the vast number of certificates from private sources, is truly gratifying, and is a sufficient proof of their virtues; though we are aware that the public have been imposed upon so often with medicines which have been highly extolled, but which on trial possessed no real virtues, that they have lost all confidence in any medicine which is advertised.

To those who may be induced to give these Pills a trial, they will find that the truth has not yet become entirely extinct. In conclusion, we would ask those who are suffering from disease, to read the certificates published in our columns. They are from persons who have been benefitted by their use, and who will at any time be happy to recommend them to others.

THE COST IS TRIFLING.

The smallest size bottle of Dyer's Healing Embrocation can be bought for 12½ cents. This is generally sufficient for a trial of this wonderful preparation; a saving can then be made in buying larger sized bottles. A person who has once used this valuable external and internal remedy will never suffer themselves to be without it.

There will be four terms, of eleven weeks each, in the year. The charge for tuition will be fifteen dollars a term.

In order that suitable arrangements may be seasonably made, it is important that the number of Young Ladies who may be offered as pupils, be early ascertained. Persons desirous of sending their daughters, are requested to leave their names with Mr. Joseph H. Foster, before the first of July.

Notice.

MR. WENZEL respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has disposed of his Book Bindery, Picture Frame and Fancy Box Manufactory, No. 58 Congress street, Portsmouth, to Mr. JAMES BARTON, late of the firm of Barton & Cobb, who will conduct the business in all its branches, from and after this date.

Mr. Barton is well known to our citizens as a competent and skilful mechanic, and will retain as assistants the excellent workmen lately employed by me. I am therefore convinced that all work entrusted to him will be executed in the most elegant and thorough manner.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Trees with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Dogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it: if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH OF JULY, 1776, should n ever be forgotten.—It is proposed by some of our enterprising citizens, to observe the occurrence of our Nation's birth, by public demonstrations, with a Floral Procession, Parade of Fire Companies, and other attractions that will not only be pleasant for those who take an active part in the proceedings, but will interest all our own citizens and draw in our neighbors from the adjoining towns to witness and partake in the joys of the day. It requires but a small appropriation by our city government to be liberally responded to by our citizens generally; and it is hoped that at their next meeting they will pass the appropriation solicited. We all boast of the beauty of our city, and we have reason so to do. Our streets are lined with trees that now throw their beautiful foliage, protecting us from the rays of the scorching sun, and cause all strangers to regard our city as one of the most delightful places to pass a few weeks during the hot summer months. The observance of all public days, and liberal appropriations to defray the expenses of such, are by no means useless expenditures. Every individual who visits us from abroad, leaves with our storekeepers and others a large amount of money which would otherwise be spent in some other locality, and where an individual is benefitted the masses feel its influence. It is hoped, therefore, for the gratification of our own citizens and those who may visit us on that day, that we shall be enabled to carry out the proposed festivities, and to satisfy any one that it is for the interest of all to lend their aid for its observance. P.

LAUNCH.—A ship of 1100 tons will be launched from the yard of Samuel Badger, in this city, to-day. She is owned by Hon. Daniel Marcy, Hon. Richard Jenness, W. Williams and T. M. Ball of Portsmouth, and Peter Marcy of New Orleans. She has been named the James Buchanan, in honor of the Presidential nominee of the Cincinnati Convention.

☞ A correspondent of the Great Falls Advertiser, writing from Gloucester, Mass., says, "a steamer will commence running here as soon as arrangements can be made. She will land her passengers on her regular trips to Portsmouth—fare only 50 cts. This will be good news to the citizens of the old Granite State—Portsmouth and Dover in particular."

☞ Preston S. Brooks (in effigy) was taken down about 7 o'clock, by order of the City Marshal, and incarcerated in the Watchhouse. He will doubtless be cleared (out).

FOUR DAYS LATER NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARAGO.

NEW YORK, 17th.—The steamer Arago arrived at 10 o'clock. She brings Havre and Southampton dates to the 4th inst.

The excitement in reference to the American question was increasing. The Times says the recognition of Walker is not necessarily to be followed by war, although it greatly embitters the dispute.

The English government will act with forbearance, if Crampton is dismissed, and will probably assume a temporising policy till after the Presidential election.

The Times also says the dismissal of Mr. Dallas must follow immediately that of Mr. Crampton.

The last intelligence from the United States caused a flatness in the Money market.

The Daily News reiterates the hopes of the Times on the preservation of peace, and considers that if war should take place, it would only be looked at in the light of a civil one.

NEW YORK, June 16th.—The Morning Express has seen several private letters from San Fransisco, detailing events connected with the murder of James King. The Vigilance Committee, says one of these letters, has upwards of 5,000 members on its muster roll. Casey, and Cora the murderer of Col. Richardson, would certainly be executed by this committee on the morning of the 22d of May, the day after the departure of the steamer.

They have prepared a "black list" embracing the names of about 180 of the most notorious murderers, thieves, and blacklegs, all of whom will be required to quit the country at short notice, or contemplate the contingency of summary judgment before the tribunal of Judge Lynch. Among them are said to be those of Yankee Sullivan, the pugilist, and David Broderick, who was once the Democratic Southern candidate for the United States Senator.

The vigilance Committee now extends throughout the State, and, it is said, every little town and hamlet now has its organization.

It is stated on good authority, that all the officials of the State intended to resign their offices, and people are now inclined to look on the Vigilance Committee as the rulers and law givers.

SENATOR SUMNER.—Mr. Sumner is now in Maryland, at the country residence of F. P. Blair, Esq., receiving every attention which kindness can suggest.

The injury to the U.S. steam frigate Merrimac consisted of wearing away the plumer boxes of the engine. The Merrimac has arrived at Key West, from whence the Fulton was despatched to HAVANA for machinery.

☞ The Great Falls Advertiser states that Rev. D. P. Cilley of Boston, has decided to locate in that village as pastor of the Free Will Baptist Church.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, 16th.

SENATE.—Mr. Brown submitted a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the President to communicate a copy of the instructions to Mr. Buchanan, on "free ships making free goods," and Mr. Buchanan's letter to Lord Clarendon on the same subject.

Mr. Clayton said it would be remembered that he carefully abstained from uttering during the present session one word calculated to add to the excitement growing out of the present distressing occurrences in Kansas—He had endeavored to conciliate all parties, in order that he might, on some suitable occation, present a measure of harmony, justice and peace. He now rose for the purpose of making the proposition in the sincerity of an honest heart, desiring to propitiate no particular party nor section. He would not present his bill as a partizan of any candidate for the Presidency, but like the sailor, he desired to go in a gang by himself. He was the representative of a little state (Delaware) which occupies middle ground between the Northern and Southern portions of the confederacy.

The Northern county of that State, with 50,000 inhabitants has scarcely 100 slaves.—The Southern is as grossly pro-slavery as Georgia. The middle county is the one which gave him his birth, and is conservative and is fairly divided in opinion. But the whole of that little State is deeply anxious to preserve the Union, and prevent rupture, if possible. He had objections to Kansas coming into the Union now as a sovereign state. One reason was, there is not a federal population of 20,000, exclusive of Indians, and others, not taxed. There is a feeling in the North, which if suffered to continue, will result in serious injury to the common Union. He stated his objections, both to Mr. Douglas's and Mr. Seward's bills, which propose the admission of Kansas into the Union, referred to the latest accounts from that territory, asking shall we sit by when 40 men were recently slain, and the excitement constantly increasing, and towns sacked and plundered, without endeavoring to avert this distressing and shameful state of things. It is only by justice that peace can be restored.

Some laws in Kansas, continued Mr. Clayton, are palpably unjust and unconstitutional, and these it is the duty of Congress to repeal. One of them proclaims that no one shall vote until he swears to support the fugitive slave law. He repeated that it was unjust and cruel towards one section of this Union, and was insulting to any honorable man who differed from him, regarding that law. It was a dangerous and unexampled precedent and contrary to the Nebraska bill. Another law of Kansas denies to any man the right to speak or print against the existence or legality of slavery in that territory, and punishes those infracting the statutes with hard labor in the Penitentiary for not less than two years, it does not say how many more. This shows the disgraceful character of the act. Mr. Clayton said he submitted his bill as supplementary to the act to organize Kansas and Nebraska.

The bill provides that the Secretary of State shall cause a census to be taken, making 1000 persons the basis for one representative, in the lower branch of the territorial legislature, and 2000 for the upper. Legal voters must be bona-fide residents of the territory three months, and residents of their respective election districts one month before election. After the appointment, the Governor is to issue his proclamation directing the election of members of the legislative assembly, such election to be held at not less than fifty nor more than sixty days after the date of the proclamation. No law shall remain in force violative of the great principle asserted in the Kansas and Nebraska bill relative to non-intervention on the subject of slavery, or whereby the inhabitants shall be prohibited from a free and full discussion of their own domestic institutions or interests, or whereby said people shall be prohibited from advocating or denying the extension, or propriety of prohibiting slavery in the territory, or be visited or threatened by any penalty or punishment; nor shall any test oath be required relative to the fugitive slave law, or any other law of Congress. Trial by jury shall be in accordance with the common law, and no challenge or objection to a juror shall avail, which is not authorized by the common law, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The bill provides that when the territory contains 93,420 inhabitants, the people shall be authorized to call a convention for the formation of a State Constitution.

Mr. Butler caused to be read a letter from Dr. Boyle to him, complaining that the note of Dr. Lindsley, read at the instance of Mr. Wilson on Friday, did him injustice. Dr. Boyle says that Dr. Lindsley himself, on the 30th May, informed him that there was not much the matter with Mr. Sumner. Dr. Boyle encloses a letter from Dr. Miller, for the purpose of showing that Mr. Sumner's condition has not been so critical as has been represented by Dr. Lindsley.

[This Dr. Boyle, we think was the Washington Doctor who became bail for Brooks, and whose bogus report of Sumner's case went over the wires to the effect that Sumner would be out in a day or two. Butler, Brooks and Boyle, most noble trio of Bs, seem to be rivalling each other in Base words and Brutal deeds.—Somebody must get up a testimonial for the five Bs.]

Mr. James presented the resolutions of the Rhode Island legislature, concerning the assault on Mr. Sumner by Mr. Brooks. He said while he had the honor to hold a seat in the Senate, he should defend here, or elsewhere if need be, the freedom of debate.

Mr. Brown asked Mr. Seward whether, if any one should say that the Senator from New York could not open his mouth without uttering a falsehood, it would not be a personal insult for which the person so speaking should be held responsible.

Mr. Seward replied that everything which could be said against him had been said; but he had a philosophical rule which had served him through life, and which he thus expressed: "A modest, wellbred man will not offend me, and no other can."

The resolutions were ordered to be printed. Adjourned till Thursday.

From the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate, their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and roseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY.—Wet your shaving brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only 50 cents.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent published for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilled Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

Ancoer 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of such lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their lands; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects; the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others one year thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1856.

WE SAY SO.—The Union Democrat, speaking of the attempts of the black republicans to make party capital out of the assault on Sumner, well says that when "they couple the Democratic party or its measures with that affair, they are guilty of an outrage as cool, flagrant and atrocious as that of which they complain."

We copy the above piece of good news from the Concord Patriot,—and invite special attention to the subject matter in the extract from the Union. The black republicans are declared to be guilty of an outrage.

What outrage?

The outrage of telling a lie.

What is the lie?

The assertion that the Democratic party or its measures are connected with Brooks's assault, or responsible for it.

If this be a lie, then the opposite truth must be, that the Democratic party are in favor of free debate in Congress, in favor of freedom everywhere; and consequently against Gag law and Club law at Washington, and against slavery extension elsewhere.

We gladly accept this construction of party relations. It is true that the party which upholds and extends slavery, and strikes down free speech and a free press, cannot be the Democratic party, or a Democratic party. Aristocracy, Monarchy, or Anarchy, may stifle discussion and muzzle the press—but Democracy never can.

Yet some party, and its measures, are coupled with the assault on Sumner. The party is properly termed the slavery extension party, and for the sake of a short name we will call it the slave party. Mr. Sumner opposed such extension, and of course exposed all parties, combinations and individuals, whom he found upholding it;—but of course they could not be democrats, but slavocrats. One of them became indignant, and nursing his wrath two whole days, to keep it warm, stole into the Senate chamber with three or four accomplices, (none of them democrats,) and struck down the Senator with a club, while an accomplice, (no democrat,) flourished his shillaleh to keep off the bystanders. Next, in the House of Representatives, 68 men, (no democrats we suppose, but) all slavocrats, voted against a resolution to look into the matter. It is a little remarkable that nearly the same men voted not to inquire into the murder of Keating by Herbert.

And finally, a lot of papers, in various parts of the country, have offered various pleas, excuses and apologies for Brooks and against Sumner, some with disclaimers and some without.—But none of these were Democratic papers—no, not one,—they all belonged to that ancient and honorable fraternity, the Slavocrats. Vive la Humbug.

LIQUOR DEBTS WORTHLESS.—The Boston Telegraph says, "We have recently heard from reliable sources that many liquor dealers in this city have had great trouble in collecting their liquor debts, in consequence of a section of the law which provides that all such debts shall be worthless. Some have actually given up business, voluntarily, on this account, and others have failed, not being able to stand up under such heavy losses as they have been obliged to meet."

This agrees with a statement which we have seen several times in the anti-law papers, to the effect that the business would fall into the hands of the meanest and worst men, as the better sort would leave an illegal traffic. We will not undertake to say how correct the statement is;—but are inclined to believe there is some truth in it. It is very certain, that some of the worst men who were disturbed in other New England States, and in the country parts of Massachusetts, have crept into Boston and into other towns and cities where morals are too low to ensure a general obedience to the law. These are the customers who don't pay. We thought the trade went hard, — by some other signs.—Now we are sure of it.

CARELESSNESS.— We see in the papers a notice of the death, in South Lee, Mass., June 12, of a child, aged 3 years, of James Hackett. His death was occasioned by drinking hair dye from a bottle which some careless person had thrown in the street.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says "three quarters of all the mechanics in America are working themselves to death, to pay for the follies of fashion for themselves and their families." That's a fact, and a shame, too.

The Cincinnati correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat telegraphed to that paper:

"The office holders who combined to defeat Buchanan are in doleful visage, for it is well understood that there is to be a clean deal throughout.

THE COLUMBIA (S. C.) TIMES, a Democratic journal, repudiates Mr. Buchanan, because he is not only a renegade from the Whig party, a tariff man, and a Federalist, but a Pretoolter.

CONCORD, June 18th.—The Democratic Ratification Meeting held here to-day was the largest and most enthusiastic political demonstration that has been made in this state for many years. It is estimated that from 6000 to 8000 people were present. The meeting organized temporarily at Depot Hall, and adjourned to the State House yard, to which place they marched in procession, with three bands of music, under the escort of the Granite Guards. The meeting was then organized by the appointment of John S. Wells for President, with thirty Vice-Presidents and six Secretaries. Addresses were made by Mr. Wells, Hon. Benjamin Rush of Pennsylvania, Hon. Harry Hibbard, Hon. H. W. Morrison, Col. John H. George, B. F. Ayer, Esq.. C. L. Woodbury, Esq., W. Williams, Esq., of Charlestown, and N. B. Bryant, Esq. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Cincinnati platform and candidates, and the administration of Gen. Pierce. The whole affair was highly satisfactory to the Democrats. The exercises of the day were closed with a display of fireworks.—Tel. to Boston Cour.

The Patriot speaks of the gathering of 8000; and the Statesman says it was quite large, but gives no number. While an eye witness, who saw the Republican gathering in Concord on the 10th inst, as well as that of the Democratic party, thinks the latter no larger, but somewhat smaller than the former. He observed also, that the enthusiasm seemed to come chiefly from the stand, per order, rather than from the people. He is of opinion that the number of persons in the State Yard, at no time during the afternoon of Tuesday, exceeded 2500. The number of persons who witnessed the display of fireworks, in the evening, was very much larger.

RATIFICATION MEETING. — The Democrats of Boston held their Presidential ratification meeting in Faneuil Hall on Tuesday evening. James Whiting called the meeting to order, when Oliver Stevens, President of the Common Council, was elected the presiding officer, with numerous aids as Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Speeches were made by Mr. Stevens, B. F. Butler of Lowell, Benjamin Rush of Philadelphia, Isaac H. Wright and Edward Riddle.

The Boston Courier says the hall was well filled during the evening, but the enthusiasm was not up to the height which has generally been reached in Democratic meetings of late years.

MUSICAL.—Alfred Jaell, the pianist, is concertizing, with great success, in Germany.—Mr. Dempster, the ballad singer, is giving concerts in New York State.—Mdlle. Camille Urso, the violinist, is performing in Tennessee. — The New York Musical Review is down upon the "old clothes concerts," or old folks concerts in costume,—as well it may be. —Dwight's Boston Musical Journal states that an organ, "the best that the old world can make," is to be placed in the Music Hall in that city. It is to cost $25,000, and will be in keeping with the splendid room it is to occupy. More than one half the amount required is already subscribed.—The Journal also says—"There is now in Boston a German lad of ten years, who must be a very prodigy of musical executive talent. He plays many of Bach's fugues, including some of the most difficult, from memory, both on the piano and the organ, reads difficult music at sight, &c., and has no small skill on the violin. The boy is named Perabesn; he has been living for some years, with his father, who is a teacher of music, in Dover, N. H." This is all correct—and this is the same boy, who, with his father, gave two concerts in Portsmouth a couple of years since—and, we are sorry to say, didn't receive half money enough to pay expenses.

MUSICAL CONVENTIONS. — The Grafton County, (N. H.) Musical Association held its Convention at Wolfboro' this year, commencing June 17th. Dr. Lowell Mason presided.

The Vermont and New Hampshire Musical Association held its annual Convention this year at Springfield, Vt., commencing June 11. Prof. Baker has for several years directed the musical performances of this association, and by his gentlemanly bearing, and his thorough and consistent method of imparting musical knowledge, he merits and receives the highest esteem and warmest regards from all. One need but attend these meetings from year to year, and witness the improvement in the style of singing and in musical culture in general, to be impressed with the utility and importance of these associations when rightly conducted.

The Rockingham County Musical Association will hold its third Convention at Exeter, the last of August: and another in Portsmouth in January next.— Prof. B. F. Baker will be conductor.

A Canada paper states that the Legislative Council of Canada has reported the Prohibitory Liquor Law, which was lost last year, with some modifications. They state that in 289 petitions, 72,357 petitioners have asked for relief from the spread of intemperance; that intoxication is the parent of crime; that licenses are improperly granted, both as to persons and places.

NAVAL.—The frigate Constellation, Capt. Bell, was at Marseilles May 27. Crew in good health and perfect discipline.

GENERAL CONVENTION OF YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTAIN ASSOCIATIONS. — The North American Confederation of Young Men's Christian Associations will hold its annual meeting in the city of Montreal on Thursday next, June 19th, and continue in session over the following Sabbath. Similar confederations exist in Europe.
